Imagining Cities Sallie Westwood,John M Williams,2018-05-11 First published in 1997

Imagining Cities gives students access to the most exciting recent work on the city from within sociology cultural studies and cultural geography Contributions are grouped around four major themes The theoretical imagination Ethnic diversity and the politics of difference Memory and nostalgia The city as narrative The book considers the interplay of past and present imagined and substantive and links present and future in examining the idea of the virtual city Here the world of cyberspace not only recasts views of space and communication but has a profound impact on the sociological imagination itself

Cities on the Margin, on the Margin of Cities Philippe Laplace,Eric Tabuteau,2003

What Is Geography? Alastair Bonnett,2023-06-23 Geography is fundamental to understanding the way the world works This text offers readers a short and highly accessible account of the ideas and concepts constituting geography Including discussion of both the human and the natural realms the text looks at key themes such as environment space and place as well as geography s methods and the history of the discipline showing us how and why they are essential for a thriving planet Introductory but not simplified Bonnett provides students with the ability to understand the history and context of the subject without any prior knowledge This short elegant book will be of interest to all readers intrigued by the geographical imagination

Cine-scapes Richard Koeck,2013 Cine scapes ignites new ways of seeing thinking and debating the nature of architecture and urban spaces Drawing on the author s extensive knowledge it offers insight into architecture and urban debates through the eyes of a practitioner working in the fields of film and architectural design emphasizes how filmic cinematic tendencies take place or find their way into urban practices can be used as a tool for educators students and practitioners in architecture and urban design to communicate and discuss design issues with regard to contemporary architecture and cities

The Geography of Nostalgia Alastair Bonnett,2015-08-11 We are familiar with the importance of progress and change But what about loss Across the world from Beijing to Birmingham people are talking about loss about the loss that occurs when populations try to make new lives in new lands as well as the loss of traditions languages and landscapes The Geography of Nostalgia is the first study of loss as a global and local phenomenon something that occurs on many different scales and which connects many different people The Geography of Nostalgia explores nostalgia as a child of modernity but also as a force that exceeds and challenges modernity The book begins at a global level addressing the place of nostalgia within both global capitalism and anti capitalism In Chapter Two it turns to the contested role of nostalgia in debates about environmentalism and social constructionism Chapter Three addresses ideas of Asia and India as nostalgic forms The book then turns to more particular and local landscapes the last three chapters explore the yearnings of migrants for distant homelands and the old cities and ancient forests that are threatened by modernity but which modern people see as sites of authenticity and escape The Geography of Nostalgia is a reader friendly text that will appeal to a variety of markets In the university sector it is a student friendly interdisciplinary text that will be welcomed across a broad range of courses including cultural geography post colonial studies landscape and planning sociology and history Revolutionary Tunisia Stefano Pontiggia,2021-10-18 In Revolutionary Tunisia Inequality Marginality and Power Stefano Pontiggia examines marginality and inequality in Tunisia through the stories of people living in Redeyef a mining town in the Tunisian south that is well known for its militant past Considering the ongoing formation of the post revolutionary Tunisian state Pontiggia explores the extent to which state led institutions local power relations the social structure and the dynamics of space production coincide to perpetuate inequality Far from being a process of exclusion from wealth and development Pontiggia asserts marginality is instead synonymous with a gradual integration of territories and populations into a socio territorial hierarchy that is rooted in the colonial experience What emerges is a country whose revolution is characterized by change as much as continuity with the past Urban Imaginaries ,2007 Urban Futures Tim Hall,Malcolm Miles,2004-11-23 Urban Futures brings together commentaries from a wide range of contemporary disciplines and fields relevant to urban culture form and society The book concerns cities in the broadest sense not just as buildings and spaces but also as processes and events or sites of occupation in which meanings are constructed in many ways The contributors draw on their specialist areas of research to inform current debate but they also speculate as to how cities will be shaped in the 21st century Specific areas of research include homeless people s organisations and restoration ecology in brownfield sites in the USA post industrial urban landscapes post industrial economics tourism and cultural planning The book allows each writer to state their own conclusions but together they suggest that tomorrow s cities will while remaining locations of difference and contestation be rapidly evolving systems in which dwellers assume increasing responsibilities and power Small Cities, Big Issues Christopher Walmsley,Terry Kading,2018-07-20 Small Canadian cities confront serious social issues as a result of the neoliberal economic restructuring practiced by both federal and provincial governments since the 1980s Drastic spending reductions and ongoing restraint in social assistance income supports and the provision of affordable housing combined with the offloading of social responsibilities onto municipalities has contributed to the generalization of social issues once chiefly associated with Canada s largest urban centres As the investigations in this volume illustrate while some communities responded to these issues with inclusionary and progressive actions others were more exclusionary and reactive revealing forms of discrimination exclusion and othering in the implementation of practices and policies Importantly however their investigations reveal a broad range of responses to the social issues they face No matter the process and results of the proposed solutions what the contributors uncovered were distinctive attributes of the small city as it struggles to confront increasingly complex social issues If local governments accept a social agenda as part of its responsibilities the contributors to Small Cities Big Issues believe that small cities can succeed in reconceiving community based on the ideals of acceptance accommodation and inclusion

Learning Cities Sue Nichols, Stephen Dobson, 2018-03-29 This book is an interdisciplinary text exploring the learning and educative potentials of cities and their spaces including urban and suburban contexts at all stages of life Drawing on the insights of researchers from diverse fields such as education architecture history visual sociology applied linguistics and sensory studies this collection of papers develops and demonstrates the connection between experience in all its dimensions and informal learning in the city The chapters discuss various sensory domains of experience considering visual embodied and even sexual dimensions in relation to what and how learning operates and the contributors reflect on their learning and inquiring experiences in the city with special reference to topics such as narrativity race and ethnicity equity urban literacy re generation participation representation and oral histories

Thinking Space Mike Crang, Nigel Thrift, 2002-09-11 As theorists have begun using geographical concepts and metaphors to think about the complex and differentiated world it is important to reflect on their work and its impact on our thoughts on space This revealing book explores the work of a wide range of prolific social theorists Included contributions from an impressive range of renowned geographical writers each examine the work of one writer ranging from early this century to contemporary writers Among the writers discussed are Georg Simmel Mikhail Bakhtin Gilles Deleuze Helene Cixous Henri Lefebvre Jacques Lacan Pierre Bourdieu Michel Foucault and Franz Fanon Ideal for those interested in the spatial turn in social and cultural theory this fascinating book asks what role space plays in the work of such theorists what difference if any it makes to their concepts and what difference such an appreciation makes to the way we might think about space

Complexity and Planning Gert de Roo, Jean Hillier, 2016-05-23 Complexity complex systems and complexity theories are becoming increasingly important within a variety disciplines While these issues are less well known within the discipline of spatial planning there has been a recent growing awareness and interest As planners grapple with how to consider the vagaries of the real world when putting together proposals for future development they question how complexity complex systems and complexity theories might prove useful with regard to spatial planning and the physical environment This book provides a readable overview presenting and relating a range of understandings and characteristics of complexity and complex systems as they are relevant to planning It recognizes multiple relational approaches of dynamic complexity which enhance understandings of and facilitate working with contingencies of place time and the various participants behaviours In doing so it should contribute to a better understanding of processes with regard to our physical and social worlds

David Bowie and Transmedia Stardom Ana Cristina Mendes, Lisa Perrott, 2020-05-21 Addressing the interart intertextual and intermedial dimensions of David Bowie s sonic and visual legacy this book considers more than five decades of a career invested with a star s luminosity that shines well beyond the remit of pop music The book approaches the idea of the star David Bowie as a medium in transit undergoing constant movement and change Within the context of celebrity studies the concept of stardom provides an appropriate frame for an examination of Bowie's transmedial activity especially given his ongoing iconic signification within the celestial realm. While Bowie has traversed many mediums he has also been described as a medium which is consistent with the way he has described himself. With contributions from a wide range of disciplinary areas and countries each chapter brings a fresh perspective on the concept of stardom and the conceptual significance of the terms mediation and navigation as they relate to Bowie and his career. Containing a multitude of different approaches to the stardom and mediation of David Bowie this book will be of interest to those studying celebrity audio and visual legacy and the relationships between different forms of media. It was originally published as a special issue of Celebrity Studies.

Contextualizing Urban Narratives through the Socio-Spatial Dialectic Ankur Konar, 2024-03-26 This book examines how urban narratives explore the complexities of city life including the diversity of its inhabitants the challenges of urbanization and the impact of social and economic disparities. They may delve into such topics as crime poverty gentrification and the struggle for identity and belonging in different bustling metropolis settings like Delhi Mumbai Kolkata Benaras Edinburgh and Glasgow. This monograph provides a lens through which authors and storytellers examine and reflect upon the complexities challenges and opportunities of urban life. It seeks to reiterate how the discourse of urban narratives refers to the specific language themes and ideas that are commonly found in stories set in urban environments and encompasses the ways in which urban spaces are portrayed the issues and conflicts that arise within these settings and the social cultural and political commentary that is often embedded in these narratives.

Unruly Cities? Chris Brook, Gerry Mooney, Steve Pile, 2006-02 The text argues that cities are open to many forms of order and disorder both from within the city and outside. They represent cities potentials as well as their problems. It challenges the assumption that cities are threatened by disorder from below and that they might be ruled by order imposed from above.

Cities And Urban Cultures Stevenson, Deborah, 2003-04-01 Explores cities and urban life from the perspectives of both sociology and cultural theory. Through an interdisciplinary approach the book demonstrates that the real city of physicality and struggle and the imagined city of representations are entwined in the construction of urban cultures.

Cities and Fascination Wolf-Dietrich Sahr, 2016-05-23 Bringing together leading urban scholars this book discusses the linkages between the economic social and psychological factors of the urban environment. It focuses on the growth of private urbanity that has led to a spectacularization of the city the most extreme component of attention being the fascination which is aroused by attractions and state managed events. The complex characteristics of this fascination are examined under the dimensions of aesthetics emotions lived experiences and power structures and governance. The interdisciplinary nature of this collection has wide international appeal and will be of interest to academics of social and cultural geography and cultural and media studies.

The Evolving Spatial Form of Cities in a Globalising World Economy Martin J. Murray, Human Sciences Research Council, 2004 In this paper Murray draws attention to the large metropolises that dominate as economic power base cities such as New York and Japan and then contrasts them with cities that aspire to such world class status as Johannesburg and S o Paulo using the concept of global cities as a key context to the discussion Fear, Space and Urban Planning Simone Tulumello, 2016-07-27 This book examines the phenomenon of urban fear the increasing anxiety over crime and violence in Western cities despite their high safety with a view to developing a comprehensive critical exploratory theory of fear space and urban planning that unravels the paradoxes of their mutual relations By focusing especially on the southern European cities of Palermo and Lisbon the book also aims to expand upon recent studies on urban geopolitics enriching them from the perspective of ordinary as opposed to global cities Readers will find enlightening analysis of the ways in which urban fear is re produced including by misinformative discourses on security and fear and the political construction of otherness as a means of exclusion The spatialization of fear e g through fortification privatization and fragmentation is explored and the ways in which urban planning is informed by and has in turn been shaping urban fear are investigated A concluding chapter considers divergent potential futures and makes a call for action The book will appeal to all with an interest in whether and to what extent the production of fearscape the contemporary landscapes of fear constitutes an emergent urban political economy
