Imagining Japan The Japanese Tradition And Its Modern Interpretation:

Imagining Japan Robert Neelly Bellah, 2003 Bellah is a sociologist with a grand vision of history deeply concerned with the twists and turns of religious values weaving pre modern religious thinking into the debates of modernization and modernity He takes a reflective turn with Imagining Japan evidencing his profound concern with religious evolution Tetsuo Najita University of Chicago One of the most original attempts to understand some of the psychological and symbolic roots of the central problems in Japanese history Bellah masterfully brings together intellectual and institutional dimensions of Japan making a very important contribution to Japanese Studies S N Eisenstadt Professor Emeritus at Hebrew University and author of Japanese Civilization A Comparative View A Joyfully Serious Man Matteo Bortolini, 2025-11-18 The brilliant but turbulent life of a public intellectual who transformed the social sciences Robert Bellah 1927 2013 was one of the most influential social scientists of the twentieth century Trained as a sociologist he crossed disciplinary boundaries in pursuit of a greater comprehension of religion as both a cultural phenomenon and a way to fathom the depths of the human condition A Joyfully Serious Man is the definitive biography of this towering figure in modern intellectual life and a revelatory portrait of a man who led an adventurous yet turbulent life Drawing on Bellah's personal papers as well as in depth interviews with those who knew him Matteo Bortolini tells the story of an extraordinary scholarly career and an eventful and tempestuous life He describes Bellah's exile from the United States during the hysteria of the McCarthy years his crushing personal tragedies and his experiments with sexuality Bellah understood religion as a mysterious human institution that brings together the scattered pieces of individual and collective experiences Bortolini shows how Bellah championed intellectual openness and innovation through his relentless opposition to any notion of secularization as a decline of religion and his ideas about the enduring tensions between individualism and community in American society Based on nearly two decades of research A Joyfully Serious Man is a revelatory chronicle of a leading public intellectual who was both a transformative thinker and a restless passionate seeker Fate, Nature, and Literary Form Kinya Nishi, 2021-03-09 This study is a theoretical reconsideration of the concept of the tragic combined with detailed analyses of Japanese literary texts Inspired by contemporary critical discourse especially the works by such thinkers as Theodor Adorno Fredric Jameson and Raymond Williams the author challenges both exotic and postmodern representation of Japanese culture as the other of the West By examining the social backgrounds of artists endeavors to create new literary forms the author unveils a rich tradition of tragic literature that unlike the dominant local tradition of naturalism has registered the unbridgeable gap between universal ideals and social values at a particular historical moment Debating civilisations Jeremy C. A. Smith, 2017-06-24 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC open access license Debating civilisations offers an up to date evaluation of the re emerging field of civilisational analysis tracing its main currents and comparing it to rival paradigms such as Marxism globalisation theory and postcolonial sociology The book suggests that civilisational analysis offers an alternative approach to understanding globalisation one that focuses on the dense engagement of societies cultures empires and civilisations in human history Building on Castoriadis s theory of social imaginaries it argues that civilisations are best understood as the products of routine contacts and connections carried out by anonymous actors over the course of long periods of time It illustrates this argument through case studies of modern Japan the Pacific and post Conquest Latin America including the revival of indigenous civilisations exploring discourses of civilisation outside the West within the context of growing Western imperial power
