

Lesson 2

C.A.D. 35

"Saul, Who Also Is Called Paul"

22 You may have heard of a man named Paul. It is mentioned many times in the New Testament because he wrote most of the New Testament. He wrote to the Jews of letters to various individuals, like Timothy and Titus, and to various people groups, like the Galatians and the Ephesians. But in the Book of Acts, written by Luke, that tells us a great deal about the amazing life of Paul, from his infancy through prison to old age, whose years. It was in his younger years that he was named others called Saul of Tarsus (Tarsus is a city in southern Turkey). Today, we think of what made "Saul, who also is called Paul" such an incredible witness for Jesus Christ (Acts 13:9).

Let's consider first what Saul was before he knew Christ. Believe it or not, Saul was a great enemy of early Christians. Yes, an enemy! Saul was actually one of the very few who persecuted the first Christians before.

In fact, according to Acts 7:58, Saul was at the scene and possibly led the stoning of Stephen, the first Christian martyr. (I mentioned him to you last lesson.) Acts 7:58 says, "And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul." Stephen, Acts 6:1, is named. Yet the Saul, the middle names of the church, meaning evil, harm, and dragging off men and women, committing them to prison.

"And the witnesses laid down their clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul." And they stoned Stephen as he was calling out loud and saying, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them!" (Acts 7:58-60)

From what you might already know about Paul — that he was a "good guy" — you may be wondering what possessed him to be so hard on the early believers. Well, to tell you the truth, his religious background. Saul of Tarsus was a very devout Jew and the son of a Pharisee. Pharisees were considered the most faithful Jews of their day. They were particularly devoted to the Law (of commandments given to them). Saul was, in fact, as devoted to his Jewish customs that he was one of their best.

If anyone else thinks he was born with a heart for God, I want you to consider the eighth day of the month of Sivan, at the time of the Passover, a festival of the Pharisees, commemorated the Law, a Pharisee, was among and persecuting the church, persecuting the righteousness, which is in the Law, Matthew (John 8:4-40).

As we move from this moment, it was Saul's Jewish heritage that made him so persecuting the New Testament Church. At the time of the Passover, the Law, Saul was extremely upset when he heard Jesus' claims to be God. It he thought it was blasphemy, and he was willing to do anything to stop it. Blasphemy is saying God is allowing to have the qualities of God. In Jewish Law, blasphemy was a crime deserving death.

Now you may be wondering exactly how Saul of Tarsus went from killing Christians to being a Christian. Well, God works in amazing ways. Acts Chapter 9 tells the story of Saul's extraordinary conversion, which occurred about A.D. 35.

As he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?" And he said, "Who are You, Lord?" Then the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are lying and imprisoning. It is hard for you to kick against the goads." So he, when the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and you will find what you must do." And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, and when the men were opposed he saw no one, that they led him by the right hand and brought him near Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank. (Acts 9:1-9)

"And he journeyed he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light shone around him from heaven. Then he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?'" (Acts 9:1-4)
