Who Defines Me Eid Mohamed,Yasser Fouad Selim,2014-06-19 Who Defines Me Negotiating Identity in Language and Literature is a collection of insightful articles that represent an interdisciplinary study of identity The articles start from the premise that identity is and always has been unstable and mutable which is to say that identity is constructed and deconstructed and reconstructed only to be deconstructed and reconstructed again in turn to be deconstructed and reconstructed and so on ad infinitum Time and place are variables So too as Who Defines Me underscores are ethnicity religion politics and power race and color nationality gender culture language and socio economic status With all of these variables in mind Who Defines Me focuses on language and literature as the portal through which identity is explored The overarching rubrics under which the explorations are conducted are Arabs and Muslims race identity in America and language identity

Key Topics of Study Jessica Kuper,2022-01-26 First published in 1987 Key Topics of Study gives an updated overview of the various disciplines and areas of study which go to make up the social sciences today The essays deal expertly with the various branches of the social sciences from anthropology to Women s Studies and include a useful bibliography for each topic All the topics have been described succinctly and are comprehensible even to a casual reader The book highlights the interdisciplinary nature of the social sciences and outlines the foundational arguments of various disciplines This reference book can be read by everyone but will be particularly handy for students of the social sciences

It's not all about you Bettina Kluge,María Irene Moyna,2019-11-15 The twenty first century has seen a surge in cross linguistic research on forms of address from increasingly diverse and complementary perspectives The present edited collection is the inaugural volume of Topics in Address Research a series that aims to reflect that growing interest The volume includes an overview followed by seventeen chapters organized in five sections covering new methodological and theoretical approaches variation and change address in digital and audiovisual media nominal address and self and third person reference This collection includes work on Cameroonian French Czech Dutch English from the US UK Australia and Canada Finnish Italian Mongolian Palenquero Creole Portuguese Slovak and Spanish in its Peninsular and American varieties By presenting the work in English the book offers a bridge among researchers in different language families It will be of interest to pragmatists sociolinguists typologists and anyone focused on the emergence and evolution of this central aspect of verbal communication

Men in Color Josep M. Armengol,2011-01-18 Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab

American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world
