Ecological Perspectives on Language Endangerment and Loss Salikoko S. Mufwene,2025-07-01 This book discusses various issues arising from the dominant discourse on language endangerment and loss in linguistics Are the terms mother tongue heritage language and ancestral language interchangeable Does a child receiving formal education in a mother tongue different from that of his or her parents lose a culture that he or she should otherwise inherit Is a language separate from the culture in which its speakers evolve and it is being practiced Thus is a population shifting to a dominant language necessarily abandoning its traditional culture ipso facto or is it also reshaping it along with that associated with the new language into a new mixed culture Are cultures intended to be static Must speakers of particular languages be wedded to them in the same way they are to their genes What can we learn about language shift language vitality and human adaptiveness from the protracted history of mankind These and a host of other issues regarding the intertwining of colonization globalization language and culture are discussed in this book inviting linguists and other interested scholars to be critical participants in the current debate

Education in Languages of Lesser Power Craig Alan Volker,Fred E.
