Wax, 2003-09-02

Hundreds of thousands of students with learning disabilities head to college every year. The challenges seem endless. Aside from coping with difficulties in learning, students and their families face the daunting process of seeking out the right school for their specific needs. This indispensable resource includes advice from specialists in the field of learning disabilities. Learning disabled programs, admission requirements and graduation policies. Services available to learning disabled students at each college, tutors, note takers, oral exams, extended test time and more. Policies and procedures regarding course waivers or substitutions. Names, phone numbers and email addresses of program administrators at each school. Strategies for finding the right program for each student's needs. In addition to the 338 schools profiled, a Quick Contact Reference List provides essential program information for another 1,000 schools.

Assessment for Learning Stephen Chappuis, 2004

Helps administrators gain a clear vision of what excellence in assessment looks like and what it takes to achieve that vision. The specific competencies leaders need to support assessment FOR learning are identified with activities and resources to help them learn and apply the skills.

More than 1,650 accredited four year colleges are profiled. An interactive CD ROM enclosed with the directory guides students to specific schools when they enter details describing their personal academic plans and aptitudes. In addition to the above cited information, each college profile gives details on Admission requirements, Library and computer facilities, Admissions procedures for freshmen, Campus safety and security, Thumbnail descriptions of faculty Requirements for a degree, Athletic facilities, Extracurricular activities, E mail addresses, College fax numbers and web sites, Admissions Contacts and much more. Schools are rated according to Barron's well known competitiveness scale from Noncompetitive to Most Competitive. Unlike some other publications, Barron's refrains from the unreliable practice of ranking colleges on a first through last basis. The book's tinted pages section presents a quick reference Index of College Majors that lists all available major study programs at each school. Also profiled are many excellent colleges in Canada and several other countries as well as brief profiles of religious colleges and American colleges based in foreign countries.
