educator Michael Hensel advocates an entirely different way of thinking about architecture By favouring a new focus on performance he rejects longstanding conventions in design and the built environment This not only bridges the gap between academia and practice but even more significantly the treatment of form and function in design It also has a far reaching impact on knowledge production and development placing an important emphasis on design research in architecture and the value of an interdisciplinary approach Though performance first evolved as a concept in the humanities in the 1940s and 1950s it has never previously been systematically applied in architecture in an inclusive manner Here Michael Hensel offers Performance Orientated Architecture as an integrative approach to architectural design the built environment and questions of sustainability He highlights how core concepts and specific traits such as climate material performance and settlement patterns can put architecture in the service of the natural environment A wide range of examples are cited to support his argument from traditional sustainable buildings such as the Kahju Bridge in Isfahan and the Topkap Palace in Istanbul to more contemporary works by Cloud 9 Foreign Office Architects Steven Holl and OCEAN

The Changing Shape of Practice Michael U. Hensel, Fredrik Nilsson, 2016-04-14 Architectural practices worldwide have to deal with increasingly complex design requirements How do practices acquire the ability to do so The Changing Shape of Practice provides a handbook of examples for practices that wish to integrate more research into their work and a reference book for students that seek to prepare themselves for the changing shape of practice in architecture It addresses the increasing integration of research undertaken in architectural practices of different sizes ranging from small to very large practices from the UK USA Europe and Asia The book is organized according to the size of the practices which is significant in that it addresses the different structures and resourcing requirements that are enabled by specific practice sizes as this determines and constrains the type scope and modes of research available to a given practice The practices covered include Woods Bagot Perkins Will White AECOM UN Studio Shop Architects PLP Architecture Kieran Timberlake 3XN ONL AZPML Thomas Herzog Partners Herreros Arquitectos Spacescape OCEAN Design Research Association By taking stock of the current shape of practice the book provides essential information for professional

This book is a reflection on contemporary computational design thinking at the intersection of architecture urban design and landscape architecture in a time marked by complex challenges like climate change urbanization and population growth Based on a critical rethinking of the notion of ground and the relation between the manmade and the natural environment an understanding of architecture as regenerative practice is proposed It aims at a built environment as landscape at an architecture of prosthetic nature The design approach is illustrated by a number of design experiments conducted within a studio setting and complemented by a series of conversations with leading experts on sustainable design and landscape architecture      The Changing Shape of Architecture Michael U. Hensel, Fredrik Nilsson, 2019-04-10

The discipline of architecture is currently undergoing a significant change as professional practice and academia seem to be transforming one another specifically through succinct research undertakings This book continues the discussion started in The Changing Shape of Practice Integrating Research and Design in Architecture on architectural offices modes of research and lines of inquiry in architecture and how it reshapes practice The book aims to contribute to the mapping and discussion on research in architectural practice and its transformational impact and gives input to the discussions on where the architectural profession is heading In this second volume various research initiatives and modes in architectural practices are portrayed The book also includes contributions that broaden the scope and put the developments into larger contexts and present an overview of developments from different regional perspectives and of various social aspects of architecture It also relates the developments in practice to educational efforts and to initiatives where the more traditional role of architects is challenged The contributions include chapters by Walter Unterrainer Anthony Burke Ren e Cheng and Andrea J Johnson and Michael U Hensel and on the practices atelier d architecture autog r e Helen Hard MVRDV and The Why Factory NADAAA Nader Tehrani Nordic Office of Architecture Schmidt Hammer Lassen Skidmore Owings Merrill Void Sarah Wigglesworth Architects and Ivstranden Utveckling      Philosophical Hermeneutics and the Architecture of Álvaro Siza Sally J.

Faulder, 2024-12-30 This book presents an original study of the work of Pritzker Prize winning Portuguese architect Ivaro Siza from the perspective of architecture as an interpretation of human life It combines philosophical hermeneutics narrative textual description and history and theory research to provide a rich account of Siza s work The book gives a detailed analysis of three of Siza s works from this perspective the Tidal Pool Piscina das Mar s in Le a da Palmeira Portugal the Galician Centre of Contemporary Art Centro Galego de Arte Contempor nea in Santiago de Compostela Spain and the Santa Maria Church in Marco de Canaveses Portugal This form of analysis provides insight into the unique temporal dimension of Siza s work both in the memory inscribed by the structure and in how what is inscribed is revealed by degrees to those who come into contact with it Drawing on Hans Georg Gadamer and Paul Ricoeur this book defines both building and inhabiting as acts of interpretation Through employing the technique of writing architecture as a mode of phenomenological description the book uses one form of creative configuration narrative to draw out the meaning inscribed in another form of creative configuration architecture The book contributes a unique perspective to scholarship on Siza and an in depth study to the growing field of hermeneutics of architecture It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture and philosophy

Inside OUT Elizabeth McCormick,2024-03-14 Inside OUT Human Health and the Air Conditioning Era focuses on the enclosed environment of fully conditioned buildings revealing a unique ecosystem with broad implications for human life and a rapidly expanding global footprint Emphasizing the interconnections between buildings and human health equity and environmental sustainability it presents an interdisciplinary holistic analysis of the social behavioral and technological issues of indoor space Over the 20th century advances in mechanical conditioning technologies led to the dispersion and international dominance of the sealed building envelope which casually and progressively disconnected buildings and their occupants from local climatic biological and cultural environments At the same time humans were increasingly pushed indoors by less tangible socially constructed forces that associated climate control with cleanliness health social status and modernization In this volume a multi disciplinary group of experts on the indoor microbiome from the fields of biology anthropology and architecture come together to thoughtfully reflect on the history properties and meaning of indoor air quality in buildings and to discuss the future of human habitation with a dominant focus on human health in a post pandemic world Taking a human first approach to health and sustainability the authors weave together a compelling analysis of social and technological drivers of conditioned space with arguments for future interventions in the built environment Amid growing awareness of air quality and climate concerns Inside OUT provides a timely discussion of the relationship between building design and human health of relevance to professional and academic readers from across the spectrum of the building industry as well as fields including public health and environmental studies academic theories that have resulted in the concept of sustainability Susannah Hagan uses this as a basis to argue for developments in the future and argues that these theories are not just an intellectual and aesthetic regression as they are often perceived to be By focusing on the impact of the new theories of sustainable technology and new materials in architecture Hagan moves the discourse and practice of environmental sustainability within architecture towards a greater degree of awareness of both its cultural significance and cultural potential In short it demonstrates the capacity of sustainable architecture to embrace cultural and technical innovation Enables you to understand the evolution of the theoretical arguments behind sustainability Allows you to project into the future of sustainability technology rather than just examining the current situation Provides you with a valuable insight into the relationship between the physical and cultural context and architecture
