Hope in the Face of Cancer Amy Givler, 2003-01-01 Amy Givler M D a cancer survivor shares her experience and the stories of others with the voice of encouragement faith and strength she so desperately needed at the point of her diagnosis With medical knowledge and insight into the path to come Dr Givler is able to offer answers and hope as she discusses looking at cancer through the lens of hope seeking evaluating and making decisions for treatment drawing closer to God along the journey facing family and friends Dr Givler shares more than professional wisdom she extends her friendship And as a fellow survivor she provides a comforting presence during an experience that too often is mired in uncertainty fear and loneliness Live Strong The Lance Armstrong Foundation,2005-09-27 Survivors from all walks of life talk about what living strong in the face of cancer means to them Since the now ubiquitous LIVESTRONG wristbands became available in May 2004 the Lance Armstrong Foundation has raised more than 50 million for cancer survivorship programs and the signature phrase has become a battle cry for those who fight the disease every day Now the Lance Armstrong Foundation has compiled from hours of videotaped interviews poignant and dramatic personal accounts from cancer survivors Covering a wide range of subjects from grief to spousal relationships employment discrimination to coping with medical bills infertility to fear of recurrence survivors share their experiences and speak candidly about how cancer has impacted their lives For twenty four year old Amy it s how her illness changed her relationship with her parents Mike a male survivor of breast cancer talks about gender stereotypes and genetic testing And Eric the father of a five year old survivor of a brain tumor recalls how friends and strangers helped his family with financial issues and how the experience brought him and his wife closer together While heartbreaking at times these powerfully honest stories are ultimately uplifting and extremely reassuring to patients and their families They offer the wisdom and hope that only survivors can give LiveStrong is a remarkable testament to the resilience of the human spirit From the introduction by Lance Armstrong My work with the LAF shows me daily that sharing our stories and learning from one another s experiences helps us cancer survivors continue to survive Some people think the cancer experience is only about the diagnosis and treatment of cancer as if after the disease goes into remission it no longer exists But survivorship goes beyond remission Survivorship is an evolution Cancer Survival Guide Charlotte Libov,2016-01-12 An American Society of Journalists and Authors Annual Writing Awards Prize Winning Book When faced with cancer timely and educated healthcare decisions are crucial to recovery Put the odds in your favor with the help of Cancer Survival Guide the leading manual of its kind offering the most comprehensive and cutting edge information on the subject such as Comprehensive info on the 13 most common cancers including lung breast prostate and colon The causes and hidden symptoms of cancer and how it affects the body New genetic tests that can reveal your risk Early detection and prevention techniques Latest medical breakthroughs and miracle drugs Conventional and alternative therapies that really work How to find the best treatments and doctors Creating a personal healthcare record Locate a lifesaving clinical trial near you Find cost effective therapies and free resources Physical and emotional coping strategies How to navigate life after cancer Don t let a cancer diagnosis fill you with feelings of fear panic and helplessness Take back your power with Cancer Survival Guide Cancer Ross Suozzi,2019-09-14 THRIVING WITH CANCER Survival doesn t have to be a cancer patient s only goal and feeling overwhelmed doesn t have to describe what it s like to go through treatment Focusing on one s purpose and goals can make every day more manageable In a book that tells the harrowing story of his own diagnosis and treatment alongside his wife s and his eldest son's battles with cancer Ross Suozzi encourages readers to see that a successful treatment comes from actively plotting a positive approach to each and every day Reflecting on his own trials and errors he offers a step by step guide filled with helpful suggestions for cancer patients and those who love and care for them Suozzi details his family's discovery that a semi structured and thoughtful approach to daily living can do wonders when it comes to navigating the confusion letdowns and pains that arise during treatment Conscientious planning can help to lower anxiety boost overall well being and even make room for moments that are full of life's exuberance This book tackles personal and family issues that aren't often raised by medical professionals and shines a light on what matters most experiences that give life meaning and purpose Cancer It's Not a Death Sentence is about reaching for happiness and recovery in the face of sudden life threatening situations like cancer and reviews the caregiving life and health challenges of survivors and members of Ross Suozzi's family Where other cancer memoirs often become singular focuses blending personal experience with recovery and medical insights Suozzi's ability to cover both sides of the cancer coin creates an atmosphere that is as specific about emotional hurdles as it is about treatments what works and what doesn't and how to handle not just physical but psychological and social challenges surrounding cancer This cancer survivor's ability to incorporate all these facets under one cover represents a unique approach to his subject that will educate and enlighten not just fellow sufferers but caregivers families friends and anyone whose lives have been touched by a cancer diagnosis James A Cox Editor in Chief Midwest Book Review The Anti-Cancer Survival Guide Steeve Reeds,2023-08-31 If you or a loved one has been diagnosed with cancer it's important to take action Arm yourself with knowledge and resources to fight this disease Start by learning about your diagnosis and treatment options Then seek out the best possible medical care and connect with others who have been through similar experiences Finally don't forget to take care of your emotional and mental health during this difficult time Remember you're not alone in this fight Together we can beat cancer together Learning to Survive Eve Adalsteinsson,V S Brynn,1999-11 Learning To Survive is a must read work for anyone touched by cancer It also provides an important perspective for those trying to prevent the disease It is not a typical cancer story Packed with survival tips innovative ideas and strategies for dealing with cancer this book examines the whole process It begins with the shock of diagnosis the need to make decisions treatment information and ends with a valuable resource list Included also is a discussion of support and nutritional options All individuals concerned about their health could benefit from this book The author had an advanced case of breast cancer and she wants to share what she has learned about surviving Recently diagnosed patients should find the work to be of great comfort and use The book offers friends and families of cancer patients an easily comprehensible overview of having the illness several autobiographical accounts are included For those in the medical profession who wish to understand the impact of a cancer diagnosis on a patient this book is for you With a light informative tone Learning to Survive maintains that survival is a skill and that it can be learned It is an inspirational look at how to stay alive Instead of being a medical text it is a quick read witty communication of vital facts and hope for everyone There's No Place Like Hope Vickie Girard,2008-09 Retells the author s personal battle with cancer including her implementation of empowered patient care and inspirational thoughts and guides others with cancer to come to terms with their illness A Lonely Wonderful Walk Kyle J. Roderick,2016-07-19 You awaken from a deep sleep to find yourself in a dimly lit room A large gathering of friends hover uneasily around you A young man slouches against the wall picking at a hangnail An older woman s eyes glisten as she peers longingly at your face She is your favorite aunt and as you look up you take note of an embarrassing drip leaving her nose Single file they shuffle up to you Standing in a corner of the small room your father embraces your mother comforting her as she sobs quietly but inconsolably Her crying draws tears from the others around you Wondering what your family and friends are doing you mean to stand and ask them Ineffectually you attempt to sit up Your best friend from high school walks over slowly and you ask him for a bit of help Instead he kneels in front of you and water streams from his eyes down his freshly shaven cheeks As he grasps your hand he mumbles I just wish we could grab one more rum and coke buddy His voice quivers uneasily What in the hell is going on here you shout but no one hears you Surveying the room it becomes painfully obvious Flower arrangements line the walls Baby blue satin pillows embrace your limp limbs You try to scream but your mouth is sewn shut In fact you come to realize that even your eyelids are glued together but somehow you can still see As a younger cousin stares at your face you wonder if she can sense your eyes behind their curtains The hospital room slowly comes back to me as I open my eyes and I realize that I ve been daydreaming again I m not sure I can call this horror a daydream but I wasn t sleeping so that s where we ll leave it The drugs spark many dark thoughts and this afternoon I find myself wondering who else might be at my funeral I start to count how many friends would show up but I quickly lose track I ve never spoken to a soul about these horrific thoughts before In life some subjects go unspoken Of all the subjects death may be the most taboo of all Yet an essential component of life is the guarantee that someday we must die It s just part of the deal In fact death has come to mean as much to me as life if that s possible It has taught me many lessons and given me many gifts If you ll allow me I d like to share a story with you in the hopes that you may also learn something about the seldom discussed place where life and death meet like the sea and sand There is no beginning of one and end of the other there is only the place where they meet We skirt around issues of importance to discuss inconveniences of the weather and compliment each other s new shoes Why start a book with a discussion of death you may ask In truth I m not trying to explore what happens in death as I m no more an authority on the subject than anyone else Instead I m hoping with share with you a precious secret about life To see the end is strangely enough the beginning Written in the same vein as Tuesdays with Morrie Mitch Albom 1997 and My Sister s Keeper Jodi Picoult 2004 this inspiring true story is written from the first person and is both raw and sensitive Not Today Cancer Jen Delvaux,2022-03-23 How to Emotionally Survive Cancer Tina Kowalski,2024-12-13 What if you could learn from someone who s experienced cancer from both sides of the hospital bed Have you wished for a
