Children and Media Bea Van den Bergh,2000 Offers a large array of approaches to studying children and the media including views from communication theory and history with methodologies such as quantitative analysis ethnographic studies and theoretical inferences   Media Power in Hong Kong Charles Chi-wai Cheung,2016-02-12 Studies of Hong Kong media primarily examine whether China will crush Hong Kong s media freedom This book however traces the root problem of Hong Kong media back to the colonial era demonstrating that before the resumption of Chinese sovereignty there already existed a uniquely Hong Kong brand of hyper marketized and oligopolistic media system The system encouraged by the British colonial government was subsequently aggravated by the Chinese government This peculiar system is highly susceptible to state intervention and structurally disadvantaged dissent and marginal groups before and after 1997 The book stresses that this hyper marketized media system has been constantly challenged Through a historical study of media stigmatization of youth this book proposes that over the years various counter forces have penetrated the structurally lopsided Hong Kong media independent public popular and news media all make occasional subversive alliances to disrupt the mainstream and news media with a strong liberal professionalism provide the most subversive space for challenging cultural hegemony The book offers an alternative and fascinating account of the dynamics between hegemonic closure and day to day resistance in Hong Kong media in both the colonial and post colonial eras arguing that the Hong Kong case generates important insights for understanding ideological struggles in capitalist media   Docu-Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova,2019-05-01 Historical writing and fiction are not the same thing though historians often creatively manipulate material in imposing plot structures selecting starting and ending points and fashioning compelling literary characters from historical figures In Docu Fictions of War Tatiana Prorokova argues that the opposite is also true war fiction offers a kind of history that both documents its subjects and provides a snapshot of the cultural representation of the United States most recent military involvements She covers a largely neglected body of cinematic and literary texts about the First Gulf War the

Balkan War the Afghanistan War and the Iraq War to open a fresh analysis of cultural texts on war Prorokova contends that these texts are not pure fiction but docu fictions works of imagination that can document their subjects while disclosing the social political and historical link between war and culture during the last three decades Docu Fictions of War analyzes how these representational narratives have highlighted a humanitarian rationale behind American involvement in each war whether the stated goals were to free the oppressed from tyranny stop genocide or rid the world of terrorism The book explores the gap between history what allegedly happened and the cultural mythology that is both true and inexact tangible and sensed recognized and undocumented Media Studies: Institutions, theories, and issues Pieter Jacobus Fourie,2001 This outcomes based textbook provides comprehensive information on the makeup of media institutions theories in media studies and critical issues that face the media today With this guide media students learn the history of the media and learn how to keep up with the latest trends and developments in broadcasting printed press and film Outlined is how to develop an internal media policy with company mission statements news and programming policies The relationship of the media to the economy politics and society and how the media represents race gender violence and terrorism are also discussed Evangelical Review of Theology, Volume 45, Number 1, February 2021 Thomas Schirrmacher,2021-02-02 ERT publishes quality articles and book reviews from around the world both original and reprinted from an evangelical perspective reflecting global evangelical scholarship for the purpose of discerning the obedience of faith and of relevance and importance to its international readership of theologians educators church leaders missionaries administrators and students The journal is published as a ministry rather than as a commercial project seeking to be of service to the worldwide spread of the gospel and the building up of the church and its leadership in co ordination with the World Evangelical Alliance s broader mission and activities Human Development III Marco Bracci,Francisco Manuel Moreno Lucas,Maria Isabel Rojas Marin,2017-05-11 This collection is inspired by the idea of promoting human development in all its aspects and it presents perspectives across the social sciences and humanities on the journey human beings make to build and redefine their identity It continues where the previous two volumes left off by deepening the natural conditions and human needs to respect man as he deserves and allow him to develop the potential that he contains Language Arts in Asia 2 Christina DeCoursey,2014-06-19 This volume is the second of a series deepening the research understanding and academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm Previously used extensively in native speaking countries Language Arts has been taken up in the past decade in many parts of Asia Language Arts uses intrinsically motivating materials such as literature drama and popular culture to help students develop mastery of written and spoken language and text types In recent years Language Arts has embraced media and multiliteracies as well as critical and creative thinking intercultural sensitivity civics and ethics This volume offers a breadth of topics which embody methodologically sophisticated and contemporary language arts research These include multimodal analysis virtual environments the use of comics anime and film in second language teaching and learners experiences of drama and literary tourism The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe It was traditionally appreciated for its ability to instil ethics and finer sensibilities and teach leadership But the traditional program was marred by its function in inculcating and preserving elitist high culture voices texts and values The post colonial incarnation of Language Arts has been informed by critical and linguistic theory helping it to embrace a popular scope and include a wide array of authentic social and media texts The movement of English language teaching beyond native speaker shores has given rise to a vibrant variety of World Englishes whose literary and media works are now represented within Language Arts The explosion of media over the past few decades has given rise to an increasing array of media to use in language teaching These trends invite scholarly analysis and this is clearly reflected in the chapters in this volume Linguistics has long had a connection to and a natural role to play in analysing the creative verbal and visual arts As a paradigm Language Arts now takes an inclusive view of the continuum of spoken written and performed languages and texts Cutting edge Language Arts research is now also supported through the new journal Language Arts and Linguistics Taylor and Francis
