Imagining Modernity In The Andes:

Imagining Modernity in the Andes Priscilla Archibald, 2011-01-06 This interdisciplinary work deals with the intersection of projects of modernity with constructions of race and ethnicity in the Andes. The book analyzes indigenista writings, the multidisciplinary work of José María Arguedas, and the anthropological experiments of the nineteen fifties. It addresses the relevance of transculturation theory in a transnational age and analyzes the emergence of new visual media in a cultural context long defined by the oral textual divide.

Imagining Modernity in the Andes Priscilla Archibald, 2011-01-06
Imagining Modernity in the Andes deals with the intersection of projects of modernity and cultural representation in the Andes. The Peruvian novelist and anthropologist José María Arguedas occupies a privileged place in a study that charts the social, cultural, and intellectual transformations that took place in the Andes throughout the twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. In its examination of political and literary indigenistas of the 1920s, applied anthropology in the 1950s, the novelistic response to emigration and urbanization, the theory of transculturation in the era of transnationalism, and the appearance of new visual technologies in a cultural context long defined by the oral textual divide, Imagining Modernity in the Andes conducts the type of interdisciplinary approach which affords a full appreciation for the heterodoxies of Andean cultural production and makes indispensable.

The Andes Imagined Jorge Coronado, 2009-05-31 In The Andes Imagined Jorge Coronado not only examines but also recasts the indigenismo movement of the early 1900s. Coronado departs from the common critical conception of indigenismo as rooted in novels and short stories and instead analyzes an expansive range of work in poetry, essays, letters, newspaper writing, and photography. He uses this evidence to show how the movement's artists and intellectuals mobilize the figure of the Indian to address larger questions about becoming modern, and he focuses on the contradictions at the heart of indigenismo as a cultural, social, and political movement. By breaking down these different perspectives, Coronado reveals an underlying current in which intellectuals and artists frequently deployed their indigenous subject in order to imagine new forms of political inclusion. He suggests that these deployments rendered particular variants of modernity and made indigenismo's representational practices a privileged site for the examination of the region's cultural negotiation of modernization. His analysis reveals a paradox whereby the unmodern indio becomes the symbol for the modern itself. The Andes Imagined offers an original and broadly based engagement with indigenismo and its intellectual contributions both in relation to early twentieth-century Andean thought and to larger questions of theorizing modernity.

Imagining Ecuador Luis A. Medina Cordova, 2022 How are contemporary authors reimagining the idea of Ecuador following the worst financial crisis in the nation's history and how do countries on the periphery of the global literary market challenge and enrich World Literature? Winner of the 2020-21 AHGBI Spanish Embassy Publication Prize. In March 1999, in an effort to stave off financial collapse, the Ecuadorian government suspended all banking operations and froze all bank accounts in the country for a period of five days. This episode, the Feriado Bancario, represents the peak of the worst financial crisis in the nation's history and one which had far reaching and long last effects on society politics the economy and cultural production The very idea of Ecuador was transformed as Ecuador became a country marked by constant interaction with the world beyond its borders This book explores how contemporary Ecuadorian authors are reimagining the nation following the Feriado Bancario Starting from a rereading of Ecuador's national novel Jorge Icaza's Huasipungo 1930 which saw the nation as rooted in the land the book examines post crisis fiction which offers an image of Ecuador as a transnational space It posits that these novels Eli cer C rdenas El oscuro final del Porvenir 2000 Leonardo Valencia s Kazbek 2008 Carlos Arcos Memorias de Andr s Chiliquinga 2013 and Gabriela Alem n s Humo 2017 both reflect and explain the new reality of Ecuador as a nation that can no longer be defined by its territory At the same time the book uses the Ecuadorian case to challenge the conceptualisation of Latin American literature as post national and to show how countries on the periphery of the global literary market can from the very fact of their minoritarian position enrich and better define World Literature

Itinerant Ideas Joanna Crow,2022-09-10 This book explores how ideas about race travelled across national borders in early twentieth century Latin America It builds on a vast array of scholarly works which underscore the highly contingent and flexible nature of race and racism in the region The framework of the nation state dominates much of this scholarship in part because of the important implications of ideas about race for state policies This book argues that we need to investigate the cross border elaboration of ideas that informed and fed into these policies It is organized around three key policy areas labour cultural heritage and education and focuses on conversations between Chilean and Peruvian intellectuals about the indigenous question Most historical scholarship on Chile and Peru draws attention to the wars fought in the nineteenth century and their long term consequences which reverberate to this day Relations between the two countries are therefore interpreted almost exclusively as antagonistic and hostile Itinerant Ideas challenges this dominant historical narrative Exploitation, Inequality, and Resistance Mark A. Burkholder, Lyman L. Johnson, Monica A. Rankin, 2018 In this compelling text authors Mark A Burkholder Lyman L Johnson and Monica A Rankin tell the story of more than 500 years of Latin American history through the themes of exploitation inequality and resistance Balancing an examination of different forms of exploitation with discussions of active and passive resistance Exploitation Inequality and Resistance emphasizes these themes and analyzes the ways in which events throughout Latin America s history continue to resonate today Inventing Indigenism Natalia Majluf, 2021-11-23 One of the outstanding painters of the nineteenth century Francisco Laso 1823 1869 set out to give visual form to modern Peru His solemn and still paintings of indigenous subjects were part of a larger project spurred by writers and intellectuals actively crafting a nation in the aftermath of independence from Spain In this book at once an innovative account of modern indigenism and the first major monograph on Laso Natalia Majluf explores the rise of the image of the Indian in literature and visual culture Reading Laso s works through a broad range of sources Majluf traces a decisive break in a long history of representations of indigenous peoples that began with the Spanish conquest She ties this transformation to the modern concept of culture which redefined both the artistic field and the notion of indigeneity As an abstraction produced through indigenist discourse an icon of authenticity and a densely racialized cultural construct the Indian would emerge as a central symbol of modern Andean nationalisms Beautifully illustrated Inventing Indigenism brings the work and influence of this extraordinary painter to the forefront as it offers a broad perspective on the dynamics of art and visual culture in nineteenth century Latin America
