Imagining Europe Myth Memory And Identity:

Imagining Europe Chiara Bottici, Benoît Challand, 2013-07-29 Chiara Bottici and Benoît Challand explore the formative process of a European identity situated between myth and memory

Imagining Europe Chiara Bottici, Benoît Challand, 2013-07-29 In Imagining Europe Chiara Bottici and Benoît Challand explore the formation of modern European identity. Europe has not always been there although we have been imagining it for quite some time. Even after the birth of a polity called the European Union the meaning of Europe remained a very much contested topic. What is Europe? What are its boundaries? Is there a specific European identity or is the EU just the name for a group of institutions? This book answers these questions showing that in Europe's formation myth and memory although distinct are often merged in a common attempt to construct an identity for its present and its future. In a time when Europe is facing an existential crisis when its meaning is being questioned Imagining Europe explores a vital and often unacknowledged aspect of the European project.

Memory and Identity in Modern and Postmodern American Literature Lovorka Gruic Grmusa, Biljana Oklopčić, 2022-09-16 This book discusses how American literary modernism and postmodernism interconnect memory and identity and if and how the intertwining of memory and identity has been related to the dominant socio-cultural trends in the United States or the specific historical contexts in the world. The book's opening chapter is the interrogation of the narrator's memories of Jay Gatsby and his life in F. Scott Fitzgerald's The Great Gatsby. The second chapter shows how in William Faulkner's Light in August memory impacts the search for identities in the storylines of the characters. The third chapter discusses the correlation between memory, self and culture in Tennessee Williams's A Streetcar Named Desire. Discussing Robert Coover's Gerald's Party the fourth chapter reveals that memory and identity are contextualized and that cognitive processes including memory are grounded in the body's interaction with the environment featuring dehumanized characters whose identities appear as role plays. The subsequent chapter is the analysis of how Jonathan Safran Foer's Everything Is Illuminated deals with the heritage of Holocaust memories and postmemories. The last chapter focuses on Thomas Pynchon's Against the Day the reconstructive nature of memory and the politics and production of identity in Southeastern Europe.

Memory and Securitization in Contemporary Europe Vlad Strukov, Victor

Apryshchenko,2018-01-24 The volume is the first study to explore the intersection of memory and securitisation in the European context By analysing a variety of practices ranging from film to art and new media the book expands the existing theoretical framework of securitisation The authors consider memory as a precondition for contemporary integration projects such as the European Union and also showcase how memory is used to stage international conflicts Following this memory securitisation nexus the European Union and Europe more generally emerges as an on going cultural political and social project The book also examines developments outside the EU such as the conflict in Ukraine and the creation of the Eurasian Economic Union which the authors argues have a profound impact on Europe From a consideration of historical contexts such as national referenda the discussion proceeds to media and film analysis artistic practice and more transient phenomena such as climate change Reconsidering Europeanization Florian Greiner,Peter Pichler,Jan

Vermeiren,2022-08-01 This pertinent and highly original volume explores how ideas of Europe and processes of continental political socio economic and cultural integration have been intertwined since the nineteenth century Applying a wider definition of Europeanization in the sense of becoming European it will pay equal attention to counter processes of disentanglement and disintegration that have accompanied slowed down or displaced such trends and developments By focusing on the practices agents and experience of Europeanization the volume strives to bring together the history of ideas and the history of human actions and conduct two approaches that are usually treated separately in the field of European studies National Museums and the Origins of Nations Sheila Watson,2020-10-28 National Museums and the Origins of Nations provides the first international survey of origins stories in national museums and examines the ways in which such museums use the distant past as a vehicle to reflect the concerns of the political present Offering an international comparison of institutions in China North and South America the Middle East Europe and Australia the book argues that national museums tell us more about what sort of community a nation wishes to be today than how and why that nation came into being Watson also reveals the ways in which narrative and exhibition design attempt to engage the visitor in an emotional experience designed to promote loyalty to and pride in the nation or to remind visitors who are not citizens that they do not belong These narratives of origin are it is claimed based on so called factual accuracies but this book reveals that they are often selective emotional and rarely critiqued within institutions At a time when nationalism is very much back on the political agenda this book highlights how museums reflect current political and social concerns National Museums and the Origins of Nations will appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of museums heritage politics nationalism and history A Feminist Mythology Chiara Bottici,2021-10-21 A Feminist Mythology takes us on a poetic journey through the canonical myths of femininity testing them from the point of view of our modern condition A myth is not an object but rather a process one that Chiara Bottici practises by exploring different variants of the myth of womanhood through first and third person prose and poetry We follow a series of myths that morph into each other disclosing ways of being woman that question inherited patriarchal orders In this metamorphic world story telling is not just a mix of narrative philosophical dialogues and metaphysical theorizing it is a current that traverses all of them by overflowing the boundaries it encounters In doing so A Feminist Mythology proposes an alternative writing style that recovers ancient philosophical and literary traditions from the pre Socratic philosophers and Ovid s Metamorphoses to the philosophical novellas and feminist experimental writings of the last century Language, Normativity and Europeanisation Heiko Motschenbacher, 2016-12-23 This book focuses on linguistic practices of identity construction in a popular culture media context the Eurovision Song Contest Subscribing to a normativity based approach to critical discourse analysis it studies Europeanisation as it surfaces at the discursive interface of European national and sexual identities in Eurovision lyrics and performances Research in critical discourse analysis that deals with Europeanisation or the discursive work involved in European identity formation has so far mainly studied data from EU political contexts that illustrate a top down approach to what Europeanness means The present book complements this earlier research in several ways focusing on the linguistic construction of identities and its interrelation with non linguistic modes of signification in the Eurovision Song Contest Discursive mechanisms that prove to be central for the normative shifts of Europeanisation in the given context are de essentialisation inclusion camp crossing and languaging Reimagining the International Legal Order Vesselin Popovski, Ankit Malhotra, 2023-07-24 International law is usually conservative with lawyers and judges emphasizing consistency stability and predictability as the major advantages of the law Legal scholars often prefer not to challenge the status quo to suggest amendments or to reform institutions advocating simply to focus on the implementation of the laws that already exist This collection stands different It shares the authors discomfort with the present legal order and some of its institutions and courts and dives into either a corrective or a profound reimagination of these so that they can better address rising global challenges Leading experts in their areas present their new and cutting edge perspectives Divided into six parts the volume paints a vast yet solid thematic landscape of unique and critical approaches The book invites and allows for a deep engagement with a wide range of opinions from across the world It enables a free and courageous reimagining of the international legal order detached from the endless feasibility skepticism The work will be fascinating reading for students academics and researchers working in the areas of International Law and International Relations Belonging to the West: Geopolitical Myths and Identity in Modern Greece Antonios Nestoras, 2023-11-13 Uncover the fascinating story of Greece s unwavering quest for European belonging This thought provoking book explores the intersection of geopolitics and political myth tracing Greece s enduring determination to align with Europe and the West From the early days of European integration to the challenges of the Eurocrisis Greece s commitment remains steadfast By analyzing the geopolitical myths that shape its identity the book illuminates the multifaceted factors driving Greece s pro European strategy and foreign policy By introducing and using Analytical Geopolitics as a pioneering approach the book provides a historical structural framework and expands the role of myth in understanding international relations Belonging to the West Geopolitical Myths and Identity in Modern Greece is now available in paperback for individual customers A More Democratic Community Sara Lorenzini, Umberto

Tulli, 2024-08-01 The histories of European unification and of West European democracy during the second half of the twentieth century have often been considered as separate or even antagonistic processes with the institutions of European integration being regarded as bastions of bureaucratic rule A More Democratic Community challenges this assumption and argues that European integration benefited from the democratic accountability of member states while contributing to the validation of national democratic institutions However it also unveils a paradox as integration deepened it diminished the power of national parliaments sparking a democratic accountability crisis within the Community Citizen Participation in Democratic Europe Alberto Alemanno, James Organ, 2021-02-05 As the European Union undergoes a major self proclaimed democratic exercise the Conference on the Future of Europe and approaches Treaty change this volume offers a new model of citizen participation to address Europe's long standing democracy challenge and respond to the aftermath of the COVID 19 pandemic Proposed are a set of democratic innovations ranging from citizens assemblies to regulatory gaming to citizens initiatives and lobbying which are complementary not antagonistic to existing representative democracy across the European continent These innovations are emerging bottom up across the continent and getting traction at local national and EU level in a new era powered by technology This book brings together academics as well as practitioners to give a forward looking holistic view of the realities of EU citizen participation across the spectrum of participatory opportunities They all converge in arguing that after many years of proven experimentation the EU must institutionalize supranational participative and deliberative democratic channels to complement representative democracy and each other and ultimately improve the effectiveness of EU citizen participation While this institutional approach will not magically treat the EU democratic malaise it should make the system more intelligible accessible and ultimately responsive to citizen demand without necessarily undertaking Treaty reform The attempt to harness citizen participation to help address the current EU crisis needs the type of multi faceted approach presented in this book One that recognises the potential of existing and new democratic mechanisms and also importantly the links between different instruments of citizen participation to improve the overall quality of EU's democratic system Anarchafeminism Chiara Bottici, 2021-11-18 How can we be sure the oppressed do not become oppressors in their turn How can we create a feminism that doesn't turn into yet another tool for oppression It has become commonplace to argue that in order to fight the subjugation of women we have to unpack the ways different forms of oppression intersect with one another class race gender sexuality disability and ecology to name only a few By arguing that there is no single factor or arche explaining the oppression of women Chiara Bottici proposes a radical anarchafeminist philosophy inspired by two major claims that there is something specific to the oppression of women and that in order to fight that we need to untangle all other forms of oppression and the anthropocentrism they inhabit Anarchism needs feminism to address the continued subordination of all femina but feminism needs anarchism if it does not want to become the privilege of a few Anarchafeminism calls for a decolonial and deimperial position and for a renewed awareness of the somatic communism connecting all different life forms on the planet In this new revolutionary vision feminism does not mean the liberation of the lucky few but liberation for all living creatures from both capitalist exploitation and an androcentric politics of domination Either all or none of us will be free The Pursuit of Europe Anthony Pagden,2022 The story of the evolution of the European project from the end of the Napoleonic Wars through to Brexit this is also the story of how and why it became possible to imagine that the diverse peoples of Europe might be united in a single political community

Reimagining Europe Georgios Tsagdis,Rozemund Uljée,Bart Zantvoort,2025-01-01 Essays addressing from various angles the relationship between Europe and philosophy in today s crisis ridden contexts such as xenophobia and migration Reimagining Europe comprises a series of contributions which address in various ways the relationship between Europe and continental philosophy phenomenology Europe is in crisis a crisis that no longer designates a moment of decision a critical point between a before and an after but a state a permanent mode of being a constant emergency At this juncture of Europe the aporia of language confronts the aporia of history We cannot speak we must speak we shall speak As such the contributions all engage with the idea that the question what is Europe must measure up a series of questions namely what was it to be What does it mean to initiate and sustain a project such as Europe if only at times after the fact The questions of internal and external borders of homogeneity and coherence identity and equality legitimacy and rights democracy and representation can only be raised insofar as the question of Europe its destiny and destination is raised as a whole

Building Europe Through Education, Building Education Through Europe Raphaëlle Ruppen Coutaz,Simone Paoli,2024-09-27 This edited volume explores the role of education in the process of European cooperation and integration as it has been conceived and realized in the late 20th century and the early 21st century as well as the mirror of this narrative the effects of the European integration process on education Through this dual analysis the contributors reflect on the concept of Europeanization by showing the complex interplay between Europeanization through education and Europeanization of education Part I offers a critical overview of the actors spaces actions and pedagogies designed to promote the European project and build Europeans Part II examines how work done on the European continental level has impacted the educational sphere and national education systems The case studies cover a wide range of international institutions College of Europe European Schools European Centre for Culture European University Institute international organizations EC EU OEEC OECD Council of Europe UNESCO and transnational actors European Trade Union Committee for Education European Federation of Education Employers providing interdisciplinary insight into how this dialectic contributed to shape Europe as a whole This book will be of interest to graduate and postgraduate students teachers and researchers of international cultural relations Europeanization and education from a transnational perspective The Open

North Africa and the Making of Europe Muriam Haleh Davis, Thomas Serres, 2018-02-22 This innovative edited collection brings together leading scholars from the USA the UK and mainland Europe to examine how European identity and institutions have been fashioned through interactions with the southern periphery since 1945 It highlights the role played by North African actors in shaping European conceptions of governance culture and development considering the construction of Europe as an ideological and politico economic entity in the process Split up into three sections that investigate the influence of colonialism on the shaping of post WWII Europe the nature of co operation dependence and interdependence in the region and the impact of the Arab Spring North Africa and the Making of Europe investigates the Mediterranean space using a transnational interdisciplinary approach This in turn allows for historical analysis to be fruitfully put into conversation with contemporary politics The book also discusses such timely issues such as the development of European institutions the evolution of legal frameworks in the name of antiterrorism the rise of Islamophobia immigration and political co operation Students and scholars focusing on the development of postwar Europe or the EU's current relationship with North Africa will benefit immensely from this invaluable new study

Contested Memories and the Demands of the Past Catharina Raudvere, 2016-12-19 This book brings together new perspectives on collective memory in the modern Muslim world It discusses how memory cultures are established and used at national levels in official history writing through the erection of monuments the fashioning of educational curricula and through media strategies as well as in the interface with both artistic expressions and popular culture in the Muslim world at large The representations of collective memory have been one of the foremost tools in national identity politics grass root mobilization theological debates over Islam and general discussions on what constitutes the modern in the Middle East as well as in Muslim diaspora environments Few if any contemporary conflicts in the region can be understood in depth without a certain focus on various uses of history memory cultures and religious meta narratives at all societal levels and in art and literature This book will be of use to students and scholars in the fields of Identity Politics Islamic Studies Media and Cultural Anthropology

Discourses and Counter-discourses on Europe Manuela Ceretta, Barbara Curli, 2017-01-12 The European Union plays an increasingly central role in global relations from migration to trade to institutional financial solvency The formation and continuation of these relations their narratives and discourses are rooted in social political and economic historical relations emerging at the founding of European states and then substantially augmented in the Post WWII era Any rethinking of our European narratives requires a contextualized analysis of the formation of hegemonic discourses The book contributes to the ongoing process of rethinking the European project identity and institutions brought about by the end of the Cold war and the current economic and political crisis Starting from the principle that the present European crisis goes hand in hand with the crisis of its hegemonic discourse the aim of the volume is to rescue the complexity the richness the ambiguity of the discourses on Europe as opposed to the present simplification The multidisciplinary approach and the long term perspective permits illuminating scope over multiple discourses historical periods and different languages including that of the European institutions This text will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Union politics European integration European History and more broadly international relations
