CONSPIRACY Robert Harris, 2009 63 BC the year when Cicero is consul Most of his time in office is devoted to uncovering and thwarting a violent conspiracy to overthrow the state ostensibly led by Crassus and a group of disaffected senators Underlying this is the great rivalry between Cicero and Caesar who represent two different types of ambition one orthodox the other revolutionary As Caesar's power grows Cicero must face the inevitable compromises that come from

Pauline Dogmatics Douglas A. Campbell, 2020-01-07 The eschatological heart of Paul's gospel in his world and its implications for today Drawing upon thirty years of intense study and reflection on Paul Douglas Campbell offers a distinctive overview of the apostle's thinking that builds on Albert Schweitzer's classic emphasis on the importance for Paul of the resurrection But Campbell learning here from Karl Barth traces through the implications of Christ for Paul's thinking about every other theological topic from revelation and the resurrection through the nature of the church and mission As he does so the conversation broadens to include Stanley Hauerwas in relation to Christian formation and thinkers like Willie Jennings to engage post colonial concerns But the result of this extensive conversation is a work that in addition to providing a description of Paul's theology also equips readers with what amounts to a Pauline manual for church planting Good Pauline theology is good practical theology ecclesiology and missiology which is to say Paul's theology belongs to the church and properly understood causes the church to flourish In these conversations Campbell pushes through interdisciplinary boundaries to explicate different aspects of Pauline community with notions like network theory and restorative justice The book concludes by moving to applications of Paul in the modern period to painful questions concerning gender sexual activity and Jewish inclusion offering Pauline navigations that are orthodox inclusive and highly constructive Beginning with the God revealed in Jesus and in a sense with ourselves Campbell progresses through Pauline ethics and eschatology concluding that the challenge for the church is not only to learn about Paul but to follow Jesus as he did
