Dynamic Assessment of Students' Academic Writing Prithvi N. Shrestha, 2020-09-11 This book explores the application of an innovative assessment approach known as Dynamic Assessment DA to academic writing assessment as developed within the Vygotskian sociocultural theory of learning DA blends instruction with assessment by targeting and further developing students Zone of Proximal Development ZPD The book presents the application of DA to assessing academic writing by developing a set of DA procedures for academic writing teachers It further demonstrates the application of Hallidayan Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL combined with DA to track undergraduate business management students academic writing and conceptual development in distance education This work extends previous DA studies in three key ways i it explicitly focuses on the construction of a macrogenre whole text as opposed to investigations of decontextualized language fragments ii it offers the first in depth application of the powerful SFL tool to analyse students academic writing to track their academic writing trajectory in DA research and iii it identifies a range of mediational strategies and consequently expands Poehner's 2005 framework of mediation typologies. Dynamic Assessment of Students' Academic Writing will be of great value to academic writing researchers and teachers, language assessment researchers and postgraduate students interested in academic writing, alternative assessment and formative feedback in higher education.

CTET Paper 1 Study Guide Book (Class I-V) | Central Teacher Eligibility Test | Theory Notes & Practice (MCQs) for Complete Preparation , Optimizing Higher Education Learning Through Activities and Assessments Inoue-Smith, Yukiko, McVey, Troy, 2020-06-26 The mission of higher education in the 21st century must focus on optimizing learning for all students. In a shift from prioritizing effective teaching to active learning, it is understood that computer-enhanced environments provide a variety of ways to reach a wide range of learners who have differing backgrounds, ages, learning needs and expectations. Integrating technology into teaching assumes greater importance to improve the learning experience. Optimizing Higher Education Learning Through Activities and Assessments is a collection of innovative research that explores the link between effective course design and student engagement and optimizes learning and assessments in technology-enhanced environments and among diverse student populations. Its focus is on providing an understanding of the essential link between practices for effective activities and strategies for effective assessments, as well as providing examples of course designs aligned with assessments, positioning college educators both as leaders and followers in the cycle of lifelong learning. While highlighting a broad range of topics including collaborative teaching, active learning and flipped classroom methods, this book is ideally designed for educators, curriculum developers, instructional designers, administrators, researchers, academicians and students.
