I Laugh: My Autobiography Paul Merton,2014-09-25 Known for his intelligent and often surreal humour Paul Merton's weekly appearances on BBC1's Have I Got News For You as well as Radio 4's Just A Minute and his travel documentaries have seen him become an artfully rebellious fixture in our lives for over 25 years He also has a real story to tell In ONLY WHEN I LAUGH his rich and beautifully observed autobiography Paul takes us on an evocative journey from his working class Fulham childhood to the present day Whether writing about school days his run-ins with the nuns and other pupils his disastrous first confession his meatpacking job taking acid leaving home to live in bedsit his early brushes with the opposite sex and not forgetting his repeated attempts to break into the world of comedy Paul's writing is always funny poignant and revealing And when his star finally ascends in the atmospherically drawn 1980s alternative cabaret scene there is a sense of excitement energy camaraderie momentum and dramatic impending success And then CRASH In an unflinching and brilliantly written section that defines the book we experience the disorienting and terrifying sustained manic episode that he suffered which landed him in a psychiatric hospital These and other tougher moments are written about candidly and with sensitivity and honesty Yet throughout ONLY WHEN I LAUGH Paul Merton succeeds in telling his life story entertainingly with warmth humour and a big bucket load of wit Ultimately uplifting it is the story of a fascinating life brilliantly told and one of the best memoirs of the year Messages for Mj Ian Wilcox, 2018-10-25 Messages for MJ is the second book from this visually impaired English poet and is dedicated to his daughter following Letters to Lodieta which was dedicated to his partner Irian Jaya, a New Frontier for Trade, Investment, and Tourism, 1993 The Tale of the Missing Man Manzoor Ahtesham, 2018-08-15 Winner of the Global Humanities Translation Prize The Tale of the Missing Man Dastan e Lapata is a milestone in Indo Muslim literature A refreshingly playful novel it explores modern Muslim life in the wake of the 1947 partition of India and Pakistan Zamir Ahmad Khan suffers from a mix of alienation guilt and postmodern anxiety that defies diagnosis His wife abandons him to his reflections about his childhood writing ill fated affairs and his hometown Bhopal as he attempts to unravel the lies that brought him to his current state while weaving new ones A novel of a heroic quest gone awry The Tale of the Missing Man artfully twists the conventions of the Urdu romance or dastan tradition where heroes chase brave exploits that are invariably rewarded by love The hero of Ahtesham's tale living in the fast changing city of Bhopal during the 1970s and 80s suffers an identity crisis of epic proportions he is lost missing and unknown both to himself and to others The result is a twofold quest in which the fate of protagonist and writer become inextricably and ironically linked The lost hero sets out in search of himself while the author goes in search of the lost hero his fictionalized alter ego New York magazine cited the book as one of the world's best untranslated novels In addition to raising important questions about Muslim identity Ahtesham offers a very funny and thoroughly self reflective commentary on the modern author's difficulties in writing autobiography The Global Humanities Translation Prize is awarded annually to a previously unpublished translation that strikes the delicate balance between scholarly rigor aesthetic grace and general readability as judged by a rotating committee of Northwestern faculty distinguished international scholars writers and public intellectuals The Prize is organized by the Global Humanities Initiative which is jointly supported by Northwestern University's Buffett Institute for Global Studies and Kaplan Institute for the Humanities Common American Phrases in Everyday Contexts Richard A. Extreme Pursuits Graham Huggan, 2010-05-18 Recent figures suggest that there will be 1.6 billion arrivals at world airports by the year 2020 Extreme Pursuits looks at the new conditions of global travel and the unease even paranoia that underlies them at the opportunities they offer for alternative identities and their oscillation between remembered and anticipated states Graham Huggan offers a provocative account of what is happening to travel at a time characterized by extremes of social and political instability in which adrenaline filled travelers appear correspondingly determined to take risks It includes discussions of the links between tourism and terrorism of contemporary modes of disaster tourism and of the writing that derives from these but it also confirms the existence of more responsible forms of travel writing that demonstrate awareness of a chronically endangered world Extreme Pursuits is the first study of its kind to link travel writing explicitly with structural changes in the global tourist industry The book makes clear that travel writing can no longer take refuge in the classic distinctions traveler versus tourist foreigner versus native on which it previously depended Such distinctions which were dubious in the first place no longer make sense in an increasingly globalized world Huggan argues accordingly that the category travel writing must include experimental ethnography and prose fiction that it should concern itself with other kinds of travel practices such as those related to Holocaust deportation and migrant labor and that it should encompass representations of travelers and traveling cultures that appear in popular media especially TV and film Graham Huggan is Professor of Commonwealth and Postcolonial Literatures at the University of Leeds He is the coauthor with Patrick Holland of Tourists with Typewriters Critical Reflections on Contemporary Travel Writing University of Michigan Press and coauthor with Helen Tiffin of Postcolonial Ecocriticism Routledge Illustration Shadow Wall 2006 Shaun Tan
