Communication and Language Elinor L. Brown, Alexander S. Yeung, Cynthia Lee, 2013-01-01 Communication and Language play a foundational role in the overall pursuit of equity and social justice in education This volume does not take up the majority and dominant views which are especially visible in developments in the field of linguistic education and English language instruction Rather it travels the path less followed to attend to the language and communication concerns of populations that possess little political and economic power and whose academic and social needs are often neglected The volume attends to the role of language acquisition in levelling the playing field to enable ALL students to develop into contented family members good neighbours and productive citizens in an increasingly diverse and global society The issue takes on far greater importance as it gradually comes to light that the capacity for language corresponds to and even implements the ability to interrelate with others Far from being a mere utilitarian tool this is now appreciated as constituting the realm of abilities to take the position of the other to share a field of meaning and to project and pursue truly humane and indeed inter humane attitudes and goals In this light communication and language whether verbal or preverbal constitute the field in which one first attains and progressively evolves one's humanity In this volume scholars from ten different countries examine issues related to the influence of language and communication patterns on equity and social justice in the lives of disadvantaged and marginalized populations around the globe i e educational opportunities community stability economic prospects and political power Critical issues addressed include education in traditional national or Western languages language integration through dialects and code switching non verbal academic engagement through art signing and photography cross cultural engagement through language equity in higher education and the influence of Western language acquisition on the self concepts of disadvantaged students As the succession of sections in this volume makes clear success in the realization of language and communication abilities is not simple Rather it reflects human life and interaction in all its complexity the country and abroad The narrative they create is at odds with historical facts and deliberately misleading but John Powers argues it is widely believed by Han Chinese Most of China s leaders appear to deeply believe the official line regarding Tibet which resonates with Han notions of themselves as China s most advanced nationality and as a benevolent race that liberates and culturally uplifts minority peoples This in turn profoundly affects how the leadership interacts with their counterparts in other countries Powers s study focuses in particular on the government s patriotic education campaign an initiative that forces monks and nuns to participate in propaganda sessions and repeat official dogma Powers contextualizes this within a larger campaign to transform China s religions into patriotic systems that endorse Communist Party policies This book offers a powerful comprehensive examination of this ongoing phenomenon how it works and how Tibetans resist it Proceedings of the 3rd Annual Conference of Education and Social Sciences (ACCESS 2021) Amrullah Amrullah,Lovy Herayanti,Tesha Sengupta-Irving,Yeo Sook Fern,Fathoroni Fathoroni,Imran Imran,2023-02-10 This is an open access book Faculty of Teacher Training and Education of the University of Mataram proudly presents the 4th Annual Conference on Education and Social Science ACCESS in 2022 ACCESS is an iconic international scientific forum which discusses new ideas and innovations especially those related to education and pedagogy generally in relation to sciences and technology Since 2019 ACCESS has been attended by hundreds of participants from various different countries such as the United States Malaysia Australia Philippines Japan Singapore and so on A Tribute to David N.
