Lart Dune Vie Cr Ative Conscience:

Morality within the Life- and Social World Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Creative Intuition in Art and Poetry Jacques Maritain, 2023-10-17 The classic work on the sublime interplay between the arts and poetics This book explores the rich and complex relationship between art and poetry shedding invaluable light on what makes each art form unique yet wholly interdependent Jacques Maritain insists on the part played by the intellect as well as the imagination showing how poetry has its source in the preconceptual activity of the rational mind As Maritain argues intellect is not merely logical and conceptual reason Rather it carries on an exceedingly more profound and obscure life one that is revealed to us as we seek to penetrate the hidden recesses of poetic and artistic activity Incisive and authoritative this illuminating book is the product of a lifelong reflection on the meaning of artistic expression in all its varied forms The Creative Imagination of Théophile Gautier Louise Bulkley Dillingham, 1927 Education in Human Creative Existential Planning Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2007-11-14 Education is the transmission of knowledge and skill from one generation to another and is vitally significant for the growth and unfolding of the living individual It manifests the quintessential ability of the logos to differentiate life in self individualization from within and in its spread through inter generative networks Without reaching the evolutive phase of the human creative condition the human being establishes a unique creative platform on which to conduct its co existence On this platform the progress of life is being transformed from a natural ontopoietic accomplishment into an autonomous achievement of the creative planning of the human mind Specifically human education focuses upon creative planning moving like a pendulum between nature and freedom The present collection of papers focuses on the underpinnings of the creative workings of the human strategies of reason From Art Nouveau to Surrealism Nathalie Aubert, 2017-07-05 This volume of edited essays is the first one in English to offer a critical overview of the specific features of Belgian modernity from 1880 to 1940 in a multiplicity of disciplines literature and poetry politics music photography and drama The first half of the book investigates the roots of twentieth century modernity in Belgian fin de siècle across a variety of genres novel poetry and drama not only within but also beyond the boundaries of Symbolism The contributors go on to examine the explosion of Belgian culture on the international scene with the rise of the avant gardes notably Surrealism and the contribution made in minor genres such as the popular novels of Simenon and Jean Ray and the Tintin comics of Herge Phénoménologie et littérature Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 1987 Life as Creative Constraint Anna Kemp, 2021-08-15 Life as Creative Constraint is the first book to focus on the extraordinary life writing of the French experimental writing group the Oulipo The Oulipo s enthusiasm for literary games and formal gymnastics has seen its work caricatured as lifeless impressively virtuoso but more interested in form than content and ultimately disengaged from the world This book examines a broad corpus of work by Georges Perec Marcel B nabou Jacques Roubaud and Anne F Garr ta to show that despite the group s early devotion to the radical impersonality of mathematics later generations of oulipians have brought the group's fascination with systems games and constraints to bear on autobiography. Far from being lifeless oulipian constraints and concepts provide the tools that allow writers to engage critically and creatively with lived experience and mine the potential of the autobiographical genre. The games played by these writers are not simply pastimes or cunning writing techniques but modes of survival, self-examination, self-invention, and relating to the world and to others. As the title of Georges Perec's masterpiece suggests, they are a mode d'emploi for life. — Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader Sarah Barbour, 1993. Situated at an intersection of feminist critical practice in the United States and feminist cultural theory in France, Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader is an investigation of the way in which this French New Novelist's first eight works, in their increasing dramatization of the issue of reading, problematize certain feminist literary analyses, especially in relation to l'écriture féminine. After an exploration of the difficulty Sarraute's writing poses for the critical enterprise through a lengthy reading of Sarrautian criticism in the U.S. and France, Sarah Barbour shows how Sarraute's works eventually prohibit any fixed reading and open up, instead, a space in which we, as readers, are moved toward a more personal understanding of our use of narrative and of socio-sexual constructs in the continual day-to-day constitution and reconstitution of subjectivity. Nathalie Sarraute conceives of the evolution of the novel as a movement through history and thus situates her work within a tradition of psychological realism at the same time that she proposes radical innovations of the tradition. Her novels do not discard or revise past works but rather internalize them in an effort to expand the notion of what is possible for psychological realism. This study takes as its model Sarraute's example of simultaneity, which invites an understanding of time both as a diachronic movement through phases from the psychological realism of Dostoyevski to that of Kafka to her own, and as a synchronic encounter that elicits simultaneous relationships to different phases. Within the movement of feminist literary criticism, scholars have often discerned what are also referred to as phases that criticism in the United States has moved from its initial concern with images of women in fiction by male writers to a desire to establish a feminine tradition of women's writing. Nathalie Sarraute and the Feminist Reader is not an attempt to claim that Sarraute's work represents écriture féminine. Reading Sarraute's novels in their evolution, Sarah Barbour has found that they forced her own reading and understanding of this term to evolve. She therefore proposes that the novels open up a space that is beyond the frozen shells of gender which continue to bind women and men personally and critically. The power of Sarraute's work lies in the solitary experience of our encounter with her presentation and perception of reality. In this encounter, we are forced to experience the fluid nature of subjectivity that is to internalize and explore differences within personal and sexual identity that, by extension, affect the identity of larger political movements. — Homeopathy of the Absurd E. M. Beekman, 2013-11-22. — Contemporary artistic sensibilities Geneviève Bénomou, 1985. — The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1867. — So What's New About Scholasticism? Rajesh Heynickx, Stéphane Symons, 2018-07-09. In So What's New about Scholasticism, thirteen international scholars gauge the extraordinary impact of a religiously inspired conceptual framework in a modern society The essays that are brought together in this volume reveal that Neo Thomism became part of contingent social contexts and varying intellectual domains Rather than an ecclesiastic project of like minded believers Neo Thomism was put into place as a source of inspiration for various concepts of modernization and progress This volume reconstructs how Neo Thomism sought to resolve disparities annul contradictions and reconcile incongruent new developments It asks the question why Neo Thomist ideas and arguments were put into play and how they were transferred across various scientific disciplines and artistic media growing into one of the most influential master narratives of the twentieth century Edward Baring Dries Bosschaert James Chappel Adi Efal Lautenschlager Rajesh Heynickx Sigrid Leyssen Christopher Morrissey Annette M lberger Jaume Navarro Herman Paul Karim Schelkens Wim Weymans and John Carter Wood reconstruct a bewildering yet decipherable thought structure that has left a deep mark on twentieth century politics philosophy science and religion

Dreams in French Literature Tom Conner,2023-10-16 The nine essays in this volume deal with several well known French authors through the ages for example Descartes Voltaire Mme de Sta l Nerval Verlaine and explore the problematic relationship between dreams and literature Generally speaking contributors are interested in the production of literary meaning How does various dream material ranging from the traditional dream to visions and hallucinations and day dreams come to be And how is the dream image transformed into discourse What exactly is the relationship between dream and narrative Each essay focuses on a different author and different period ranging from the Middle Ages to the late nineteenth century but also takes a unique critical and theoretical approach What the contributors have in common though is an analytical sensemaking strategy that characterizes the interpretation of dreams through the ages from ancients such as Artemidorus and Cicero to modern thinkers such as Freud Most of the texts studied here from the Chanson de Roland to Chateaubriand s M moires d outre tombe lend themselves to this type of approach because they promote narrative unity So too do Voltaire Mme de Sta l Nerval and Verlaine Many if not most texts however in the end turn out to be not quite so tightly knit as one may have supposed at first and in the case of Agrippa d Aubign and Descartes the reader is in for several surprises when the normal course of events leading from dream to text from signifier to signified is interrupted and subverted

Proust's Imaginary Museum Gabrielle Townsend,2008 This study of Marcel Proust s creative imagination examines an aspect of the novel that has hitherto been largely overlooked the author s dependence on secondary visual sources Gabrielle Townsend argues that reproductions play a key role in the work s complex multi layered structure
