

The background of the cover is a photograph of several people on a sandy beach. The image is heavily blurred, creating a sense of motion. In the foreground, a person is crouching or sitting on the sand, wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants. To their left, another person is standing, also blurred. In the upper right, a third person is visible, wearing a blue shirt. The overall tone is warm and natural, with the sand appearing in shades of beige and light brown.

Language Superdiversity Karel Arnaut:

Language and Superdiversity Karel Arnaut, Jan Blommaert, Ben Rampton, Massimiliano Spotti, 2015-12-22 A first synthesis of work done in sociolinguistic superdiversity this volume offers a substantial introduction to the field and the issues and state of the art research papers organized around three themes Sketching the paradigm Sociolinguistic complexity Policing complexity The focus is to show how complexity rather than plurality can serve as a lens through which an equally vast range of topics sites and issues can be tied together Superdiversity captures the acceleration and intensification of processes of social mixing and fragmentation since the early 1990s as an outcome of two different but related processes new post Cold War migration flows and the advent and spread of the Internet and mobile technologies The confluence of these forces have created entirely new sociolinguistic environments leading to research in the past decade that has brought a mixture of new empirical terrain extreme diversity in language and literacy resources complex repertoires and practices of participants in interaction and conceptual challenges Language and Superdiversity is a landmark volume bringing together the work of the scholars and researchers who spearhead the development of the sociolinguistics of superdiversity

Engaging Superdiversity Karel Arnaut, Martha Sif Karrebæk, Massimiliano Spotti, Jan Blommaert, 2016-12-09 This book is the fruition of five years work in exploring the idea of superdiversity The editors argue that sociolinguistic superdiversity could be a source of inspiration to a wide range of post structuralist post colonial and neo Marxist interdisciplinary research into the potential and the limits of human cultural creativity and societal renewal under conditions of increasing and complexifying global connectivity Through case studies of language practices in spaces understood as inherently translocal and multi layered classrooms and schools youth spaces mercantile spaces and nation states this book explores the relevance of superdiversity for the social and human sciences and positions it as a research perspective in sociolinguistics and beyond

The Oxford Handbook of Superdiversity Fran Meissner, Nando Sigona, Steven Vertovec, 2023 Superdiversity is one of the most prominent contemporary concepts advancing our current understanding of international migration and its societal outcomes This Handbook brings together chapters that link the numerous social scientific debates approaches and methodologies developed in light of superdiversity The handbook offers students educators researchers and practitioners a much sought after compendium of major advances made in studying complex transformations in light of superdiversity

Technologies of Suspicion and the Ethics of Obligation in Political Asylum Bridget M. Haas, Amy Shuman, 2019-03-11
Across the globe migration has been met with intensifying modes of criminalization and securitization and claims for political asylum are increasingly met with suspicion Asylum seekers have become the focus of global debates surrounding humanitarian obligations on the one hand and concerns surrounding national security and border control on the other In Technologies of Suspicion and the Ethics of Obligation in Political Asylum contributors provide fine tuned analyses of political asylum systems and the adjudication of asylum claims across a range of sociocultural and geopolitical contexts The contributors to this timely volume drawing on a variety of theoretical perspectives offer critical insights into the processes by which tensions between humanitarianism and security are negotiated at the local level often with negative consequences for asylum seekers By investigating how a politics of suspicion within asylum systems is enacted in everyday practices and interactions the authors illustrate how asylum seekers are often produced as suspicious subjects by the very systems to which they appeal for protection Contributors Ilil Benjamin Carol Bohmer Nadia El Shaarawi Bridget M Haas John Beard Haviland Marco Jacquemet Benjamin N Lawrance Rachel Lewis Sara McKinnon Amy Shuman Charles Watters Migration and Media Lorella Viola, Andreas Musolff, 2019-03-07 The socio discursive landscape surrounding the migration debate is characterised by a growing sense of crisis in both personal and collective identities From this viewpoint discourses about immigration are also always attempts at reconstructing the threatened home identity of the respective host society It is such attempts at reasserting identity in crisis due to migration that are the focus of the volume Migration and Media Discourses about identities in crisis This four part book explores the representational strategies used to frame current migration debates as crises of identity collective and individual It features fourteen case studies of varying sets of data including print media texts TV broadcasts online forums politicians speeches legal and administrative texts and oral narratives drawn from discourses in a range of languages Croatian English French German Greek Italian Lithuanian Polish Russian Serbian Slovenian Spanish and Ukrainian and it employs different discourse analytical methods such as Argumentation and Metaphor Analysis Gendered Language Studies Corpus assisted Semantics and Pragmatics and Proximity Theory Such a diverse range of sources languages and approaches provides innovative methodological and theoretical analysis on migration and identity which will be of interest to scholars students and policy makers working in the fields of migration studies media studies identity studies and social and public policy As of January 2023 this e book is freely available thanks to the support of libraries working with Knowledge Unlatched

Multilingual Youth Practices in Computer Mediated Communication

Cecelia Cutler,Unn Røyneland,2018-09-20 With an eye to the playful reflexive self conscious ways in which global youth engage with each other online this volume analyzes user generated data from these interactions to show how communication technologies and multilingual resources are deployed to project local as well as trans local orientations With examples from a range of multilingual settings each author explores how youth exploit the creative heteroglossic potential of their linguistic repertoires from rudimentary attempts to engage with others in a second language to hybrid multilingual practices Often their linguistic orthographic and stylistic choices challenge linguistic purity and prescriptive correctness yet in other cases their utterances constitute language policing linking standardness or correctness to piety trans local affiliation or national belonging Written for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and researchers in linguistics applied linguistics education and media and communication studies this volume is a timely and readymade resource for researching online multilingualism with a range of methodologies and perspectives

Forensic Linguistics I. M. Nick,2019-02-25 According to international statistics the world is currently undergoing one of the largest refugee catastrophes in modern history This humanitarian crisis has stimulated the mobilization of countless private and public rescue and relief efforts Yet deep seated concerns over potential breaches of national security and wide spread fears over uncontrolled mass immigration have prompted many policy makers to caution against the unregulated entry of foreigners with little or no identity documentation In an effort to strike a balance between addressing the needs of these two competing sets of concerns an increasing number of governments have instituted policies and procedures for identity verification In this multi authored work the focus is placed upon the widespread governmental use of language analyses to investigate displaced persons registered origins This dynamic collection of writings provides readers with a thought provoking politically stimulating intellectually challenging examination of the pitfalls and promise of these practices across differing sociopolitical legal linguistic and geographical contexts This contextual diversity reflects the unique strength of this reference work Unlike so many other publications on the market that focus rigidly upon a single vantage point this work offers a dynamic exploration of the theory and practice of language analysis for governmentally mandated identification procedures From the linguistic scholar to the human rights activist the agency worker to the asylum seeking applicant this collection offers a complex and rich cross section of professional and personal experiences The multiplicity of perspectives is powerfully complemented by the heterogeneity of disciplines represented in this work From sociology psychology demography and language policy to linguistics ethics international affairs government and politics this work will satisfy a wide variety of readers scholarly interests and commensurately serves as an excellent reference work for researchers and practitioners as well as a valuable teaching resource for graduate and undergraduate courses

Multilingualism and Pluricentricity John Hajek, Catrin Norrby, Heinz L. Kretzenbacher, Doris Schüpbach, 2023-11-20 This volume explores linguistic diversity and complexity in different urban contexts many of which have never been subject to significant sociolinguistic inquiry A novel mixture of cities of varying size from around the world is studied from megacities to smaller cities on the national periphery All chapters discuss either the multilingualism or the pluricentric aspect of the linguistic diversity in urban areas most focussing on one urban centre The book showcases multiple approaches ranging from a quantitative investigation based partly on census data to qualitative studies flowing for example from extensive ethnographic work or discourse analysis The diverse theoretical backgrounds and methodological approaches in the individual chapters are complemented by two chapters outlining the current trends and debates in the sociolinguistic research on urban multilingualism and pluricentricity and suggesting some possible directions for future investigations in this field The book thus provides a broad overview of sociolinguistic research of multilingual places and pluricentric languages

Language Learning and Teaching in Missionary and Colonial Contexts Dan Savatovsky, Mariangela Albano, Thi Kieu Ly Pham, Valérie Spaëth, 2025-10-01 This volume assembles texts dedicated to the linguistic and educational aspects of missionary and colonial enterprises taking into account all continents and with an extended diachronic perspective 15th 20th centuries Strictly speaking this linguistics is contemporary to the colonial era so it is primarily the work of missionaries of Catholic orders and Protestant societies It can also belong to a retrospective outlook following decolonization In the first category one mostly finds transcription translation and grammatization practices typically the production of dictionaries and grammar books In the second category one finds in addition descriptions of language use of situations of diglossia and of contact between languages Within this framework the volume focuses on educational and linguistic policies language teaching and learning and the didactics that were associated with them

Discussing the Faith Linda Sauer Bredvik, 2020-10-12 Encounters between people of diverse religious faiths and worldviews are becoming more common in an increasingly globalized and mobile world Research has not however kept pace by investigating how people talk about their faith with others who believe differently This monograph addresses that deficit by taking an emergent path combining qualitative and quantitative analysis to investigate and understand multilingual speakers discursive behaviors in multiparty interreligious dialogues Using 33 hours of recordings from conversations across seven research sites Sauer Bredvik investigates how speakers multilanguaging practices interact with other indexical and referential signs unfilled pauses disfluency pragmatic markers to affect how constitute messages are understood By combining corpus assisted discourse analysis with emic data taken from observation and 11 hours of participant interviews one is able to identify distinct patterns of use between these metalinguistic indicators and a dialogue outcome Readers will gain an understanding of how people of various linguistic and faith backgrounds use all their semiotic resources to display hospitality and respect for the Other in multilingual multifaith settings Bridging Linguistics and Economics Cécile B. Vigouroux, Salikoko S. Mufwene, 2020-03-19

By bridging the gap between linguistics and economics this book sheds light on a range of mutually valuable topics

Language Contact. Volume 2 Jeroen Darquennes, Joseph C. Salmons, Wim Vandenbussche, 2025-04-21 Targeting a full range of students and scholars this volume provides a total of 50 chapters illustrating the linguistic dynamics and the dynamics of inter individual and societal language contact as well as the dynamics of multidisciplinary language contact studies Fueled by a wealth of data from a rich variety of contact situations its geographically balanced case studies are governed by the triangulation between a focus on language structure and change a sincere drive of sociopolitical and academic agency and the confrontation with an everyday reality that can be unkind to and ignorant of those two factors The volume clearly demonstrates the social relevance of our trade in a time burdened with ecolinguistic challenges

Migration Stories Benjamin Gatling, 2025-09-09 Migrants and refugees stories have become an essential part of the public debate around immigration Benjamin Gatling edits interdisciplinary essays that bring together the distinct perspectives of researchers activists and policymakers to emphasize how these often siloed communities can use stories as social science data and advocacy tools Ranging from oral history projects to the asylum process to calls for decolonial justice the contributors analyses illuminate how migrants and refugees personal narratives influence both perceptions and policies Their merger of perspectives provides a nuanced understanding of migration and emphasizes the importance of how storytelling can foster empathy challenge stereotypes and drive social change At the same time the essays center migrants and refugees voices within public debates and in work done to humanize the reality they face Original and multifaceted Migration Stories provides a vital addition to how we study and frame immigration An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Ronald Wardhaugh, Janet M. Fuller, 2021-04-21 AN INTRODUCTION TO SOCIOLINGUISTICS The new eighth edition of An Introduction to Sociolinguistics brings this valuable bestselling textbook up to date with the latest in sociolinguistic research and pedagogy providing a broad overview of the study of language in social context with accessible coverage of major concepts theories methods issues and debates within the field This leading text helps students develop a critical perspective on language in society as they explore the complex connections between societal norms and language use The eighth edition contains new and updated coverage of such topics as the societal aspects of African American Vernacular English AAVE multilingual societies and discourse gender and sexuality ideologies and language attitudes and the social meanings of linguistic forms Organized in four sections this text first covers traditional language issues such as the distinction between languages and dialects identification of regional and social variation within languages and the role of context in language use and interpretation Subsequent chapters cover approaches to research in sociolinguistics variationist sociolinguistics ethnography and discourse analytic research and address both macro and micro sociolinguistic aspects of multilingualism in national transnational global and digital contexts The concluding section of the text looks at language in relation to gender and sexuality education and language planning and policy issues Featuring examples from a variety of languages and cultures that illustrate topics such as social and regional dialects multilingualism and the linguistic construction of identity this text provides perspectives on both new and foundational research in sociolinguistics and linguistic anthropology An Introduction to Sociolinguistics Eighth Edition remains the ideal textbook for upper level undergraduate and graduate course in sociolinguistics language and society linguistic anthropology applied and theoretical linguistics and education The new edition has also been updated to support classroom application with a range of effective pedagogical tools including end of chapter written exercises and an instructor website as well as materials to support further learning such as reading suggestions research ideas and an updated companion student website containing a searchable glossary a review guide additional exercises and examples and links to online resources

The Oxford Handbook of Language and Prejudice Jane Setter, Sender Dovchin, Vijay A. Ramjattan, 2025-09-25 This volume explores and rearticulates the relationship between language and prejudice Language plays an important role in the conceptualization enactment and defence of prejudice at both the individual and institutional level Language and language users can also be the object of prejudice and language itself can with some conditions be thought of as a solution to prejudice The chapters in the volume examine how prejudice manifests itself how it is perceived and how it might be combatted Parts I III cover linguistic prejudices relating to gender and sexuality ableism and race and ethnicity while Parts IV VI explore social issues politics and religion and educational perspectives The final part looks at projects and initiatives to tackle linguistic prejudice in a range of contexts While recent work in the field has tended to inadvertently construct knowledge according to normative and Northern epistemologies this volume features contributions that also provide an understanding of linguistic prejudice from Global South perspectives
