Encyclopedic Dictionary the companion publication to the Directory Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America Sophia A. McClennen, Earl E. Fitz, 2004 The genesis of Comparative Cultural Studies and Latin America stems from the contributors conviction that given its vitality and excellence Latin American literature deserves a more prominent place in comparative literature publications curricula and disciplinary discussions The editors introduce the volume by first arguing that there still exists in some quarters a lingering bias against literature written in Spanish and Portuguese Secondly the authors assert that by embracing Latin American literature and culture more enthusiastically comparative literature would find itself reinvigorated placed into productive discourse with a host of issues languages literatures and cultures that have too long been paid scant academic attention Following an introduction by the editors the volume contains papers by Gene H Bell Villada on the question of canon by Gordon Brotherston and Lucia de S on the First Peoples of the Americas and their literature by Elizabeth Coonrod Martinez on the Latin American novel of the 1920s by Román de la Campa on Latin American Studies by Earl E Fitz on Spanish American and Brazilian literature by Roberto González Echevarría on Latin American and comparative literature by Sophia A McClennen on comparative literature and Latin American Studies by Alberto Moreiras on Borges by Julio Ortega on the critical debate about Latin American cultural studies by Christina Marie Tourino on Cuban Americas in New York City by Mario J Valdés on the comparative history of literary cultures in Latin America and by Lois Parkinson Zamora on comparative literature and globalization The volume also contains a bibliography of scholarship in comparative Latin American culture and literature and biographical abstracts of the contributors to the volume

Cultural Anthropology Raymond Scupin, 2019-12-10 Cultural Anthropology A Global Perspective delves into both classic and current research in the field reflecting a commitment to anthropology's holistic and integrative approach This text illuminates how the four subfields of anthropology biological anthropology archaeology linguistics and cultural anthropology together yield a comprehensive understanding of humanity

Amerika Psycho Richard Neville, 2003 Neville a political satirist jailed after the Oz magazine censorship trials in the 1960s mocks the culture that sees the world as either a target market or a target a culture he says that reveals a disturbing identification with Imperial Rome Neville provoked outrage for his essay describing the US as a nation out of control and bent on serving its interests at any cost In the wake of 9 11 he warns that America has become a wounded Goliath whose impaired psychic gridlock of us them spells further destruction for the planet unless Uncle Sam can find himself

Cities of Others Xiaojing Zhou, 2014-12-01 Asian American literature abounds with complex depictions of American cities as spaces that reinforce racial segregation and prevent interactions across boundaries of race culture class and gender However in Cities of Others

Xiaojing Zhou uncovers a much different narrative providing the most comprehensive examination to date of how Asian American writers both celebrated and overlooked depict urban settings Zhou goes beyond examining popular portrayals of Chinatowns by paying equal attention to life in other parts of the city Her innovative and wide ranging approach sheds new light on the works of Chinese Filipino Indian Japanese Korean and Vietnamese American writers who bear witness to a variety of urban experiences and reimagine the American city as other than a segregated nation space Drawing on critical theories on space from urban geography ecocriticism and postcolonial studies Zhou shows how spatial organization shapes identity in the works of Sui Sin Far Bienvenido Santos Meena Alexander Frank Chin Chang rae Lee Karen Tei Yamashita and others She also shows how the everyday practices of Asian American communities challenge racial segregation reshape urban spaces and redefine the identity of the American city From a reimagining of the nineteenth century flaneur figure in an Asian American context to providing a framework that allows readers to see ethnic enclaves and American cities as mutually constitutive and transformative Zhou gives us a provocative new way to understand some of the most important works of Asian American literature

Reading

Inebriation in Early Colonial Peru Mónica P. Morales,2016-04-01 Viewing a variety of narratives through the lens of inebriation imagery this book explores how such imagery emerges in colonial Peru as articulator of notions of the self and difference resulting in a new social hierarchy and exploitation Reading Inebriation evaluates the discursive and geo political relevance of representations of drinking and drunkenness in the crucial period for the consolidation of colonial power in the Viceroyalty of Peru and the resisting rhetoric of a Hispanicized native Andean writer interested in changing stereotypes fighting inequality and promoting tolerance at imperial level in one of the main centers of Spanish colonial economic activity in the Americas In recognizing and addressing this imagery Mónica Morales restores an element of colonial discourse that hitherto has been overlooked in the critical readings dealing with the history of sixteenth and early seventeenth century Andes She presents drinking as the metaphorical site where Western culture and the New World collide and define themselves on the grounds of differing drinking rituals and ideas of moderation and excess Narratives such as dictionaries legal documents conversion manuals historical writings literary accounts and chronicles frame her context of analysis

Encountering Nature

Thomas Heyd,2016-04-29 This book argues that an attentive encounter with nature is of key importance for the development of an environmentally appropriate culture The fundamental idea is that the environmental degradation that we are increasingly experiencing is best conceived as the consequence of a cultural mismatch our cultures seem not to be appropriate to the natural environment in which we move and on which we depend in thoroughgoing ways In addressing this problem Thomas Heyd weaves together a rich tapestry of perspectives on human interactions with the natural world ranging from traditional modes of managing human communities that include the natural environment to the consideration of poetic travelogues ecological restoration and botanic gardens The volume is divided into three parts which respectively consider the relation of human beings to nature in terms of ethics aesthetics and culture It engages the current literature in each of these areas with the help of inter disciplinary approaches as well as on the basis of personal encounters with natural spaces and processes The ultimate aim of this book is to make a contribution to the development of a cultural fabric that is suitable to the natural spaces and processes in which we may thrive and on which we all depend as individuals and as a species

Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization

Ivonne del Valle,Anna More,Rachel Sarah O'Toole,2020-01-15 Through interdisciplinary essays covering the wide geography of the Spanish and Portuguese empires Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization investigates the diverse networks and multiple centers of early modern globalization that emerged in conjunction with Iberian imperialism Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization argues that Iberian empires cannot be viewed apart from early modern globalization From research sites throughout the early modern Spanish and Portuguese territories and from distinct disciplinary approaches the essays collected in this volume investigate the economic mechanisms administrative hierarchies and art forms that linked the early modern Americas Africa Asia and Europe Iberian Empires and the Roots of Globalization demonstrates that early globalization was structured through diverse networks and their mutual and conflictive interactions within overarching imperial projects To this end the essays explore how specific products texts and people bridged ideas and institutions to produce multiple centers within Iberian imperial geographies Taken as a whole the authors also argue that despite attempts to reproduce European models early Iberian globalization depended on indigenous agency and the agency of people of African descent which often undermined or changed these models The volume thus relays a nuanced theory of early modern globalization the essays outline the Iberian imperial models that provided templates for future global designs and simultaneously detail the negotiated and conflictive forms of local interactions that characterized that early globalization The essays here offer essential insights into historical continuities in regions colonized by Spanish and Portuguese monarchies
