subjects and indexed by author title and illustrator Somebody's Girl Maggie De Vries, 2011-05-01 Martha knows she is adopted but she's well loved and popular at least until her mother gets pregnant and she feels her parents' attention start to shift. Upset and confused, Martha lashes out and loses her friends. She also makes no secret about her annoyance at being forced to do a school project about sturgeon with Chance, a difficult boy whose foster parents are family friends. To add insult to injury, Martha's birth mother announces that she is getting married and moving away. Now Martha isn't number one in anybody's life. When her mom goes into labor prematurely, Martha realizes that she needs to figure out a way to be a better friend and daughter and a great sister. The Slumbering Masses Matthew J. Wolf-Meyer, 2012 Analyzes and critiques how sleep and sleep disorders are understood and treated. Neal-Schuman Guide to Recommended Children's Books and Media for Use with Every Elementary Subject Kathryn I. Matthew, Joy L. Lowe, 2002 This resource recommends books, videos, CD-ROMs, and other materials to infuse literature into skills-based science, art, health, math, music, language arts, sports, and social studies curricula. The materials are listed by subject and specific topics and reflect national curriculum standards in each major subject area. Techniques for bringing reading, writing, and discussion to class work in each subject are recommended.

The Vanishing Box Elly Griffiths, 2020-06-11 A magician plays detective when a show girl is murdered in an English resort town in this historical mystery by the Edgar Award-winning author Brighton, England, 1953. Over the holiday season, Max Mephisto and his daughter Ruby are headlining a variety show at the Brighton Hippodrome. Landing a gig at the city's biggest theater is a major achievement and only slightly marred by the less-than-savory supporting act: a tableau show of naked living statues. But when one of the girls goes missing and turns up dead, not long after, Max and Ruby realize there's something far more sinister than obscenity afoot in the theater. Max's good friend DI Edgar Stephens is on the case. As he searches for the killer, he begins to suspect that the girl's fatal vanishing act may be related to another case: the death of a local florist. But just as he's narrowing in on the missing link, Ruby goes missing, and he and Max must reach deep into their bag of tricks to find her before it's too late. Developing Partnerships with Families Through Children's Literature Elizabeth Lilly, Connie Green, 2004 This book blends information on contemporary families, research on early literacy, and practical strategies for sharing children's literature in classrooms, homes, and pre-school settings. Content is based on the belief that adult-child interactions around story reading play a significant role in fostering and developing children's language and literacy skills. This role manifests itself differently according to the social, cultural, and linguistic environment of a child's home. The authors present a selection of children's books from all genres and an array of field-tested ideas for developing early literacy. Authentic voices of teachers, children, and family members illustrate vivid descriptions of successful teacher-family partnerships and literacy strategies that work. FEATURES Extensive lists of children's books, coded by age range for easy selection; culturally diverse titles are incorporated that sensitively portray children with exceptionalities. Supplies readers with a wealth of choices in fiction, nonfiction, poetry, biography, and picture books, providing a starting point.

for building a personal library to share with their children and families Significant coverage of family life including respectful positive treatment of diversity in traditions style and structure embedded in discussions in every chapter Gives readers practical suggestions for promoting reading in daily families Includes daily routines bedtime playtime preparing meals as well as transitions such the birth of a new child or a death in the family A Literacy Partnership Cycle Highlighted by numerous literacy strategies that promote family involvement Gives readers a simple framework for engaging families in their children s early literacy development describes effective literacy practices for collaborating with families at home and at childcare centers and preschools Teacher to Teacher and Family to Family features Throughout the book Illuminates text content through the unique experiences of preschool teachers kindergarten teachers and other childcare specialists address common concerns and challenges and offer practical suggestions shown to be effective in translating theory into practice Internet Resources sections Highlighted within chapters wherever appropriate Refer students to Web sites relevant to early literacy family involvement children s literature and advocacy are ideal for in class discussions assignments or self study
