specializes in the valuation of companies ripe for acquisition He thrives on the energy of New York and the intensity of his work and his infatuation with regal Erica promises entrance into Manhattan society at the same exalted level once occupied by his own family back in Lahore For a time it seems as though nothing will stand in the way of Changez's meteoric rise to personal and professional success But in the wake of September 11 he finds his position in his adopted city suddenly overturned and his budding relationship with Erica eclipsed by the reawakened ghosts of her past And Changez's own identity is in seismic shift as well unearthing allegiances more fundamental than money power and perhaps even love Elegant and compelling Mohsin Hamid's second novel is a devastating exploration of our divided and yet ultimately indivisible world Excuse me sir but may I be of assistance Ah I see I have alarmed you Do not be frightened by my beard I am a lover of America I noticed that you were looking for something more than looking in fact you seemed to be on a mission and since I am both a native of this city and a speaker of your language I thought I might offer you my services as a bridge from The Reluctant Fundamentalist

Walkowitz,2015-08-04 As a growing number of contemporary novelists write for publication in multiple languages the genre s form and aims are shifting Born translated novels include passages that appear to be written in different tongues narrators who speak to foreign audiences and other visual and formal techniques that treat translation as a medium rather than as an afterthought These strategies challenge the global dominance of English complicate native readership and protect creative works against misinterpretation as they circulate They have also given rise to a new form of writing that confounds traditional models of literary history and political community Born Translated builds a much needed framework for understanding translation s effect on fictional works as well as digital art avant garde magazines literary anthologies and visual media Artists and novelists discussed include J M Coetzee Junot Diaz Jonathan Safran Foer Mohsin Hamid Kazuo Ishiguro Jamaica Kincaid Ben Lerner China Mi ville David Mitchell Walter Mosley Caryl Phillips Adam Thirlwell Amy Waldman and Young hae Chang Heavy Industries The book understands that contemporary literature begins at once in many places engaging in a new type of social embeddedness and political solidarity It recasts literary history as a series of convergences and departures and by elevating the status of born translated works redefines common conceptions of author reader and nation The Financial Imaginary Alison Shonkwiler,2017-02-14 As the world has been reshaped since the 1970s by neoliberalism and globalization increasing financial abstraction has presented a new political urgency for contemporary writers Globalized finance the return to Gilded Age levels of inequality and the emergence of new technologies pose a similar challenge to the one faced by American social realists a century ago making the virtualization of capitalism legible within the conventions of the realist novel In The Financial Imaginary Alison Shonkwiler reads texts by Richard Powers Don DeLillo Jane Smiley Teddy Wayne and Mohsin Hamid to examine how fiction confronts the formal and representational mystifications of the economic As Shonkwiler shows these contemporary writers navigate the social moral and class preoccupations of American economic fiction as shaped by such writers as William Dean Howells Henry James Frank Norris and Theodore Dreiser even as they probe the novel's inadequacies to tell the story of an increasingly abstract world system Drawing a connection from historical and theoretical accounts of financialization to the formal contours of contemporary fiction The Financial Imaginary examines the persistent yet vexed relationship between financial representation and the demands of literary realism It argues that the novel is essential to understanding our relation to the mystifications of abstraction past and present Terror in Global Narrative George Fragopoulos, Liliana M. Naydan, 2016-12-08 This is a collection of interdisciplinary essays that examines the historical political and social significance of 9/11 This collection considers 9/11 as an event situated within the much larger historical context of late late capitalism a paradoxical time in which American and capitalist hegemony exist as pervasive and yet under precarious circumstances Contributors to this collection examine the ways in which 9/11 changed both everything and at the same time nothing at all They likewise examine the implications of 9/11 through a variety of different media and art forms including literature film television and street art Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature, 1927 Who's afraid of...? Marion Gymnich, 2012-11-20 Fear in its many facets appears to constitute an intriguing and compelling subject matter for writers and screenwriters alike The contributions address fictional representations and explorations of fear in different genres and different periods of literary and cultural history The topics include representations of political violence and political fear in English Renaissance culture and literature dramatic representations of fear and anxiety in English Romanticism the dramatic monologue as an expression of fears in Victorian society cultural constructions of fear and empathy in George Eliot's Daniel Deronda 1876 and Jonathan Nasaw's Fear Itself 2003 facets of children's fears in twentieth and twenty-first century stream of consciousness fiction the representation of fear in war movies the cultural function of horror film remakes the expulsion of fear in Kazuo Ishiguro's novel Never Let Me Go and fear and nostalgia in Mohsin Hamid's post-9/11 novel The Reluctant Fundamentalist
