Peasants in Power Philip Verwimp, 2013-06-03 This book shows how Rwanda's development model and the organisation of genocide are two sides of the same coin In the absence of mineral resources the elite organised and managed the labour of peasant producers as efficient as possible In order to stay in power and benefit from it the presidential clan chose a development model that would not change the political status quo When the latter was threatened the elite invoked the preservation of group welfare of the Hutu called for Hutu unity and solidarity and relied on the great mass rubanda nyamwinshi for the execution of the genocide A strategy as simple as it is horrific The genocide can be regarded as the ultimate act of self preservation through annihilation under the veil of self defense Why did tens of thousands of ordinary people massacred tens of thousands other ordinary people in Rwanda in 1994 What has agricultural policy and rural ideology to do with it What was the role of the Akazu the presidential clan around president Habyarimana Did the civil war cause the genocide And what insights can a political economy perspective offer Based on more than ten years of research and engaging with competing and complementary arguments of authors such as Peter Uvin Alison Des Forges Scott Strauss Ren Lemarchand Filip Reyntjens Mahmood Mamdani and Andr Guichaoua the author blends economics politics and agrarian studies to provide a new way of understanding the nexus between development and genocide in Rwanda Students and practitioners of development as well as everyone interested in the causes of violent conflict and genocide in Africa and around the world will find this book compelling to read

The Importance of New Technologies and Entrepreneurship in Business Development: In The Context of Economic Diversity in Developing Countries Bahaaeddin Alareeni, Allam Hamdan, Islam Elgedawy, 2021-03-12 This book introduces the students researchers and practitioners into the subject and enabling technologies and applications pertaining to of technology entrepreneurship and business development through research articles case studies etc It is primarily intended for academic purposes for learners of computer Science management accounting and information systems disciplines economics entrepreneurship Publishing chapters in the book is new innovative idea to spread the book in the Middle East and Arab countries and make the book achieve more sales As many students in all levels graduates and undergraduates in addition to research professionals are not able to get sufficient resources because of the language concern
