Evolutionary Thinking Across Disciplines Agathe du Crest, Martina Valković, André Ariew, Hugh Desmond, Philippe Huneman, Thomas A. C. Reydon, 2023-06-26 This volume aims to clarify the epistemic potential of applying evolutionary thinking outside biology and provides a survey of the current state of the art in research on relevant topics in the life sciences the philosophy of science and the various areas of evolutionary research outside the life sciences By bringing together chapters by evolutionary biologists systematic biologists philosophers of biology philosophers of social science complex systems modelers psychologists anthropologists economists linguists historians and educators the volume examines evolutionary thinking within and outside the life sciences from a multidisciplinary perspective While the chapters written by biologists and philosophers of science address theoretical aspects of the guiding questions and aims of the volume the chapters written by researchers from the other areas approach them from the perspective of applying evolutionary thinking to non biological phenomena Taken together the chapters in this volume do not only show how evolutionary thinking can be fruitfully applied in various areas of investigation but also highlight numerous open problems unanswered questions and issues on which more clarity is needed As such the volume can serve as a starting point for future research on the application of evolutionary thinking across disciplines

From the Dust of the Earth Matthew J. Ramage, 2022-05-06 In this book the author s fourth dedicated to applying Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI s wisdom to pressing theological difficulties Matthew Ramage attempts to square advances in the field of evolutionary biology with the Bible as interpreted through the teaching of the Catholic Church Distinguishing between evolutionary theory properly speaking and materialist philosophy Ramage s work both addresses the challenge of evolutionary science to Catholic teaching on human origins and argues that discoveries in evolutionary biology yield precious insight into the mystery of God s saving plan in Christ applying Ratzinger s principles to such issues as the meaning of man s special creation the relationship between sin and death and the implications of evolution for eschatology science skirmishes known as the Evolution Wars have persisted into the 21st century It does so by considering the influences of mass media in relation to decision making research and the Elaboration Likelihood Model one of the most authoritative persuasion theories The book s analysis concentrates on the expression of cues or cognitive mental shortcuts in Darwin sceptic and counter creationist broadcasts A multiyear collection of media generated by the most prominent Darwin sceptic organizations is surveyed along with rival publications from supporters of evolutionary theory described as the pro evolutionists The analysed materials include works produced by Young Earth Creationist and Intelligent Design media makers New Atheist pacesetters as well as both agnostic and religious supporters of evolution These cues are shown to function as subtle but effective means of shaping public opinion including appeals to expertise claims that ideas are being censored and the tactical use of statistics and technical jargon Contending that persuasive mass media is a decisive component of science religion controversies this book will be of keen interest to scholars of Religion Science and Religion interactions as well as researchers of Media and Communication Studies more generally

Media and Science-Religion Conflict Thomas Aechtner, 2020-01-22 This book examines why the religion

Old Questions and Young Approaches to Animal Evolution José M. Martín-Durán, Bruno C. Vellutini, 2019-07-22 Animal evolution has always been at the core of Biology but even today many fundamental questions remain open The field of animal evo devo is leveraging recent technical and conceptual advances in development paleontology genomics and transcriptomics to propose radically different answers to traditional evolutionary controversies This book is divided into four parts each of which approaches animal evolution from a different perspective The first part chapters 2 and 3 investigates how new sources of evidence have changed conventional views of animal origins while the second chapters 4 8 addresses the connection between embryogenesis and evolution and the genesis of cellular tissue and morphological diversity The third part chapters 9 and 10 investigates how big data in molecular biology is transforming our understanding of the mechanisms governing morphological change in animals In closing the fourth part chapters 11 13 explores new theoretical and conceptual approaches to animal evolution Old questions and young approaches to animal evolution offers a comprehensive and updated view of animal evolutionary biology that will serve both as a first step into this fascinating field for students and university educators and as a review of complementary approaches for researchers

Neighborhood Project David Sloan Wilson, 2025-05-01 After decades studying creatures great and small evolutionary biologist David Sloan Wilson had an epiphany Darwin s theory won t fully prove itself until it improves the quality of human life in a practical sense And what better place to begin than his hometown of Binghamton New York Making a difference in his own city would provide a model for cities everywhere which have become the habitat for over half of the people on earth Inspired to become an agent of change Wilson descended on Binghamton with a scientist s eye and looked at its toughest questions such as how to empower neighborhoods and how best to teach our children He combined the latest research methods from experimental economics with studies of holiday decorations and garage sales Drawing upon examples from nature as diverse as water striders wasps and crows Wilson s scientific odyssey took him around the world from a cave in southern Africa that preserved the dawn of human culture to the Vatican in Rome Along the way he spoke with dozens of fellow scientists whose stories he relates along with his own Wilson's remarkable findings help us to understand how we must become wise managers of evolutionary processes to accomplish positive change at all scales from effective therapies for individuals to empowering neighborhoods to regulating the worldwide economy With an ambitious scope that spans biology sociology religion and economics The Neighborhood Project is a memoir a practical handbook for improving the quality of life and an exploration of the big questions long pondered by religious sages philosophers and storytellers Approaching the same questions from an evolutionary perspective shows as never before how places define us
