Originally developed for EngageNY and written with a focus on the shifts in instructional practice and student experiences, the standards require Paths to College and Career includes daily lesson plans, guiding questions, recommended texts, scaffolding strategies, and other classroom resources. Paths to College and Career is a concrete and practical ELA instructional program that engages students with compelling and complex texts. At each grade level, Paths to College and Career delivers a yearlong curriculum that develops all students' ability to read closely and engage in text-based discussions, build evidence-based claims and arguments, conduct research, and write from sources, and expand their academic vocabulary. Paths to College and Career's instructional resources address the needs of all learners, including students with disabilities, English language learners, and gifted and talented students. This enhanced curriculum provides teachers with freshly designed Teacher Guides that make the curriculum more accessible and flexible, a Teacher Resource Book for each module that includes all of the materials educators need to manage instruction, and Student Journals that give students learning tools for each module and a single place to organize and document their learning. As the creators of the Paths ELA curriculum for grades 6-12, PCG Education provides a professional learning program that ensures the success of the curriculum. The program includes Nationally recognized professional development from an organization that has been immersed in the new standards since their inception. Blended learning experiences for teachers and leaders that enrich and extend the learning. A train-the-trainer program that builds capacity and provides resources and individual support for embedded leaders and coaches. Paths offers schools and districts a unique approach to ensuring college and career readiness for all students, providing state-of-the-art curriculum and state-of-the-art implementation.

Leadership Education and Training (LET) 1, 2001 World Electoral Processes: The Legitimacy of Democratic Government Gr. 5-8 Darcy Frisina, 2016-08-01 This is the chapter slice "The Legitimacy of Democratic Government Gr 5-8" from the full lesson plan "World Electoral Processes: Become a voting expert with a clear understanding of the election process." Our resource breaks down the differences between a presidential, parliamentary, and dictatorship government. Travel back to ancient times to experience the first voting system. Explore the concept of a democratic government and whether it truly represents the people. Discover how the president has to share powers with the legislature in a presidential system. Explain why it is easier to pass laws in the parliamentary system than in the presidential system. Roleplay as a member of Parliament and deliver a 90-second statement about an important issue. Find out why most dictators were military leaders and how the role of dictator has changed over time. Learn about suffrage and what the requirements are for a citizen to be allowed to vote. Hold your own election to decide on a policy for running your classroom. Aligned to your

State Standards and written to Bloom's Taxonomy additional writing tasks crossword word search comprehension quiz and answer key are also included

Reading for Democracy Laura Bieger, 2025-09-26 Is literature of political use and if yes how might this use be defined Reading for Democracy addresses this question in a series of essays with topics ranging from reading as a political practice to the relational aesthetics of literary engagement from the public sphere as a space of appearance to public intellectuals and the predicament of popularity from Jesmyn Ward's poetics of breathing while Black to the art of the essay in the digital age In considering these topics it engages with a range of philosophical sociological media and literary critical works by scholars including Jürgen Habermas Michael Warner John Dewey Hannah Arendt Jean Paul Sartre Theodor Adorno Nicolas Bourriaud and Pierre Bourdieu But the baseline of the essays collected in this volume is an understanding of literature as a social practice a collective doing and making that involves a multiplicity of human and non human actors writers readers publishers agents book covers prize committees English departments literary characters and styles adaptations for stage and screen In this framework literary texts are not stable objects They are bonding agents in a complex and shifting web of relations and in this capacity they catalyze and channel the activities necessary to forge these relations reading writing publishing republishing citing reciting reviewing recommending Moving back and forth between two shape shifting actors the reading public and a socially engaged literature the assembled essays show how the political functions and uses of literature are defined from within this constellation or more precisely through the collective and reflective forms of judgment including aesthetic judgement that are tried and institutionalized in practicing literature And that are essential to negotiating the shape of the world Which is what the political is all about Holt People, Places, and Change Robert J.
