Hollywood or History? Thomas E. Malewitz, Adam P. Zoeller, 2023-01-01 Teaching and learning through Hollywood or commercial film and television productions is anything but a new approach and has been something of a mainstay in the classroom for nearly a century However purposeful and effective instruction through film is not problem free and many challenges accompany classroom applications of Hollywood motion pictures In response to the problems and possibilities associated with teaching through film we are developing a collection of practical classroom ready lesson ideas that might bridge gaps between theory and practice and assist teachers endeavoring to make effective use of film in their classrooms We believe that film can serve as a powerful tool in the social studies classroom and where appropriately utilized foster critical thinking and civic mindedness The NCSS College Career and Civic Life C3 framework represents a renewed and formalized emphasis on the perennial social studies goals of deep thinking reading and writing Our hope is that this edited book might play a small role in the larger project of supporting practitioners specifically 6 12 teachers of social studies and world religion content by offering a collection of classroom ready tools based on the Hollywood or History strategy and designed to foster inquiry through the careful use of selected motion pictures and television productions Topics of interest include the roots rituals symbols beliefs and controversial or significant people or events related to The Abrahamic Religions Judaism Christianity Islam Eastern Religions Philosophies Hinduism Buddhism Indigenous Religions Spirituality First Nations Traditional African Religions New York Magazine ,1991-02-25 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Lutheran Evangelist ,1904
