

The cover of the 'Historical Geology Lab Manual' features a close-up photograph of a geological hammer resting on a dark, reddish-brown, highly fractured rock surface. The hammer's head is positioned in the upper left, with its two flat faces angled towards the center. The rock surface is covered in a network of irregular, dark cracks, creating a mosaic-like pattern. The lighting is dramatic, casting deep shadows that emphasize the textures of both the rock and the metal hammer. The title 'Historical Geology Lab Manual' is printed in a large, white, serif font across the middle of the cover, partially overlapping the rock and the hammer's handle.
