the transgender community lacks access money and voters The Remarkable Rise of Transgender Rights explains the growth of the transgender rights movement despite its marginalized status within the current political opportunity structure

Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim, 2020-03-06 In Poor Queer Studies, Matt Brim shifts queer studies away from its familiar sites of elite education toward poor and working-class people, places, and pedagogies. Brim shows how queer studies also takes place beyond the halls of flagship institutions: in night school, after a three-hour commute in overflowing classrooms at no-name colleges, with no research budget, without access to decent food, with kids in tow, in a state of homelessness. Drawing on the everyday experiences of teaching and learning, queer studies at the College of Staten Island, Brim outlines the ways the field has been driven by the material and intellectual resources of those institutions that neglect and rarely serve poor and minority students. By exploring poor and working-class queer ideas and laying bare the structural and disciplinary mechanisms of inequality that suppress them, Brim jumpstarts a queer-class knowledge project committed to anti-elitist and anti-racist education. Poor Queer Studies is essential for all of those who care about the state of higher education and building a more equitable academy.

Re-Imagining Writing: Interdisciplinary Perspectives Phil Fitzsimmons, Johanna Pentikäinen, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Interdisciplinary Press in 2014. Across the globe, the nature of writing in the twenty-first century is coming under increasing scrutiny as technology becomes an ever-increasing component of everyday life and as measuring human output also takes hold in many disciplines. This book offers an alternative to these twin developments, providing instead many alternatives. Coming from an international set of authors with different world views, paradigms, and praxes, the common theme of writing is explored with deep enthusiasm, interest in productivity and human capacity, and that leads to a polyphonic and progressive inquiry to the subject matter. Each author's initial contribution suggests that writing as an object of study needs reimagining, be it connected to learning, knowledge creation, or artistic expression. Writing is a deeply person-centred process and its open, transformative, and multidimensional nature escaped definitions but can be understood through the metaphor of the gift.
