Islam Between East And West:

Islam Between East and West Alija 'Ali Izetbegovic, 1984-01-01 Islam Between East and West Islamic and Western philosophies examined by the first president of Bosnia In comparing the offerings of secular civilization with the truths and justice of Islam the author analyzes the West's denial of Islam and the lack of progress among Muslims An inspiring and astonishingly integrated analysis of the human condition The sweep of its power gives an invigorating sense of the beauty and universality of Islam Referrals for Islam Between East and West An inspiring and astonishingly integrated analysis of the human condition The sweep of its power gives an invigorating sense of the beauty and universality of Islam Robin Woodsworth Carlsen For centuries Europe has benefitted from Islam often without acknowledging it and without giving anything in return Now with the publication of Islam Between East and West Europe has begun to pay its debt to Islam Rational and yet not insulting to the emotions it exalts the spirit without denigrating the body But what stands it apart as a landmark is its transcendental wisdom expressed in a style inherent to all noble ideas Doubtless its appeal will go beyond its time because it embraces life and there is no theme greater than life M Tariq Islam Between East and West: New Reflections Alija Izetbegovic, Incarcerated by the Communist regime in Yugoslavia for five arduous years Alija Izetbegovic penned these treasured philosophical reflections on diverse topics such as freedom politics history religion and morality Confined to his cell in Foča Prison Sarajevo he filled thirteen notebooks with these wonderful pearls of wisdom and managed to smuggle them out with the help of a fellow inmate These notes are now presented for the first time as part of a series Notes from Prison is Alija Izetbegovic's spiritual escape to freedom and makes for an outstandingly unique read both in form and content Islam Between East and West Alija Izetbegović, 2010 The Ottoman City Between East and West Edhem Eldem, Daniel Goffman, Bruce Alan Masters, 1999-11-11 Studies of early modern Islamic cities have stressed the atypical or the idiosyncratic This bias derives largely from orientalist presumptions that they were in some way substandard or deviant The first purpose of this volume is to normalize Ottoman cities to demonstrate how on the one hand they resembled cities generally and how on the other their specific histories individualized them The second purpose is to challenge the previous literature and to negotiate an agenda for future study By considering the narrative histories of Aleppo Izmir and Istanbul the book offers a departure from the piecemeal methods of previous studies emphasizing their importance during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and highlighting their essentially Ottoman character While the essays provide an overall view each can be approached separately Their exploration of the sources and the agendas of those who have conditioned scholarly understanding of these cities will make them essential student reading Cultural and Economic Relations Between East and West Mikasa no Miya Takahito, 1988 Contains most of the papers read to the 7th section part 2 of the XXXIst International Congress of Human Sciences in Asia and North Africa held in Tokyo Japan Pref Bosnia Noel Malcolm, 1996-10 Vance Owen peace plan the tenuous resolution of the Dayton Accords and the efforts of the United Nations to keep the uneasy peace One Islam, Many Muslim Worlds Raymond William Baker, 2015-08-03 By all measures the late twentieth century was a time of dramatic decline for the Islamic world the Ummah particularly its Arab heartland Sober Muslim voices regularly describe their current state as the worst in the 1 400 year history of Islam Yet precisely at this time of unprecedented material vulnerability Islam has emerged as a civilizational force strong enough to challenge the imposition of Western particularly American homogenizing power on Muslim peoples This is the central paradox of Islam today at a time of such unprecedented weakness in one sense how has the Islamic Awakening a broad and diverse movement of contemporary Islamic renewal emerged as such a resilient and powerful transnational force and what implications does it have for the West In One Islam Many Muslims Worlds Raymond W Baker addresses this question Two things are clear Baker argues Islam's unexpected strength in recent decades does not originate from official political economic or religious institutions nor can it be explained by focusing exclusively on the often criminal assertions of violent marginal groups While extremists monopolize the international press and the scholarly journals those who live and work in the Islamic world know that the vast majority of Muslims reject their reckless calls to violence and look elsewhere for guidance Baker shows that extremists draw their energy and support not from contributions to the reinterpretation and revival of Islamic beliefs and practices but from the hatreds engendered by misguided Western policies in Islamic lands His persuasive analysis of the Islamic world identifies centrists as the revitalizing force of Islam saying that they are responsible for constructing a modern cohesive Islamic identity that is a force to be reckoned with

The Prester John Legend between East and West During the Crusades Ahmed M. A. Sheir, 2022-06-22 This book considers the history of the Prester John legend and its impact on the Crusades investigating its entangled mythical history between East and West during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries The present study thus responds to the still pressing need for a comprehensive historical investigation of the twelfth and thirteenth crusading history of the legend and its impact on the Muslim Crusader encounters examining various Latin Arabic Syriac and Coptic accounts It further reflects on new eastern aspects of the legend presenting a new Arab scholarly view This book first charts a pre history of the legend in the late ancient Christian prophecy of the Last Emperor down to the emergence of the legend in the mid twelfth century Second the work presents a historical discussion of the legend and its association with actual occurrences in the Far East and the Levant analysing the legend history under the crusading crisis and the imperial papal schism in Europe Meanwhile the work considers the vague Prester John Letter addressed to Manuel I Komnenus Byzantine Emperor and its elaborate conception of a mythical eastern kingdom revealing imaginative parallels on the wondrous East and legendary Eastern Christian kings in Arabic Muslim and Christian accounts of the Muslim geographer and cartographer al Idrisi the Coptic Abu al Makarim and the Syriac Ibn al Ibri Bar Hebraeus among others Moreover the book examines how the legend impacted war and peace processes between the Ayyubids and the Crusaders during the Fifth Crusade against Egypt 1217 1221 revealing how it was mingled with Arabic and Eastern Christian prophecies at the time The study concludes by investigating the perception of Prester John by the papal and European envoys to the Mongols in the thirteenth century revealing how the legend was instrumentalised and even weaponised to establish a Latin Mongol crusade through a parallel exploration of relevant Latin Arabic and Syriac sources The Islamic World and the West Kai Hafez, Mary Ann Kenny, 2000-01-01 The anthology is an introduction to political cultures in the Islamic world and into relations between the West and Islam It details its analysis in country studies on Algeria Iran Egypt Morocco Turkey Bosnia Israel Palestine Iraq Central Asia and Pakistan Islam Between East and West 'Alija 'Ali Izetbegovic, 1984

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 2:2 Roger Garaudy, Abdullah Ahsan, Fadel I. Abdallah, Aliah Schleifer, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Building between Eastern and Western Mediterranean Lands ,2022-08-01 This edited volume examines the construction processes and the mechanisms of transmission of knowledge between the eastern and western Mediterranean lands from the late Roman period to the early centuries of Islam The essays explore issues of material culture craft techniques technological and typological changes and cultural contacts in Syria Jordan North Africa and Spain The volume includes case studies on prestigious architectural complexes defensive systems and other structures located in major urban centres Cyrrhus Bosra Jerash Sousse Kairouan and Cordoba as well as minor sites and rural buildings It offers a fresh contribution to the long lasting historiographic debate on the transition from antiquity to the Middle Ages and how Early Islamic architecture fostered the structural assumptions for new building experiences in many Mediterranean regions Contributors Antonio Almagro Shaker Al Shbib Stefano Anastasio Ignacio Arce Jean Claude Bessac Pascale Clauss Balty Piero Gilento Mattia Guidetti Pedro Gurriar n Daza Roberto Parenti Pauline Piraud Fournet Mar a de los ngeles Utrero Agudo Jean Pierre van Sta vel Apolline Vernet Fran ois Villeneuve The Western Perception of Islam between the Middle Ages and the Renaissance Marica Costigliolo, 2017-10-27 In the Middle Ages as Christian sources on the Islamic world show Muslim culture was perceived as extremely threatening there were many defenses of Christianity like the treatise on the mistakes of the followers of Allah This book shows through an analysis of the works of Nicholas of Cusa and of other authors that in the course of time this textual attitude was modified as European authors aimed to point out the Christian truth in comparison with the falsity of Islamic theology in order to reinforce Christian identity through the presupposition of its own absolute truth The apologetic aim was gradually replaced by a systematic comparison based on partial translations of the Qur an The comparison with the other was also the basis for reinforcing identity in order to demonstrate the truth and consequently the supremacy of one s own theoretical position The Islamic Review ,1916 Islamic Review and Muslim India ,1916

Turkey Between East And West Vojtech Mastny, 2019-05-20 Linked by ethnic and religious affinities to two post Cold War crisis areas the former Soviet Union and Yugoslavia Turkey is positioned to play an influential role in the promotion of regional economic cooperation and in taking new approaches to security In this book experts from Turkey Europe and the United States address key aspects of Turkey Religious Freedom and the Position of Islam in Western Europe W. A. R. Shadid, P. Sj. van Koningsveld, 1995 The permanent presence of Islam and Muslims approximately 7 million is a comparatively recent phenomenon in most countries of the European Community By far the greater majority of them consists of former inhabitants of the Muslim world who migrated to the West for economic or political reasons after the Second World War Over the last decades many initiatives have been launched by Muslim communities to create infrastructural provisions for their religious life within the existing legal and social frameworks In fact all countries of the European Community share the principles of religious freedom and non discrimination in their respective Constitutions However the precise way in which these principles are interpreted and applied to Islam depends largely on the historical traditions concerning the relations between State and Religion which differ from one country to another The present book is mainly based on the numerous articles and books concerning the public status of Islam in the various countries of Western Europe which were published between 1987 and 1994 First of all a comparative study is offered of the relation between State and Religion according to the constitutional traditions of the member states of the European Community Secondly the authors discuss the opportunities and obstacles in the realization of an organizational structure by the Muslim communities Attention is paid among others to the foundation of mosques the position of imams and the attempts to create representative bodies on the national level which can serve as negotiating partners with the national governments In a separate chapter attention is paid to Islam as a minority religion from a theoretical point of view Then follows a discussion of the possibilities for the observance of Islamic customs and rituals such as religious holidays dietary laws and dress rules With regard to Islamic religious education attention is paid in the last chapter to religious education within mosques public Christian and Islamic schools At the end there is an extensive bibliography with an index of subjects and countries Law and the Rule of God Joshua Ralston, 2020-11-05 This book advances a constructive theological approach to the controversial issues of sharia public law and secularism in Christian Muslim relations Fictions of the War on Terror D. O'Gorman, 2015-06-29 This book argues that there are a number of contemporary novels that challenge the reductive us and them binaries that have been prevalent not only in politics and the global media since 9 11 but also in many works within the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction itself Islamic Studies , 1997
