Islam, Europe's Second Religion Shireen Hunter, 2002-07-30 Islam is slowly becoming part of Europe's social cultural and to some degree political landscape This work considers the best way of accommodating Islam in Europe and establishing cooperative relations between Muslims and the followers of other religious or secular value systems Islam in Europe S.

Sofos, R. Tsagarousianou, 2013-10-30 Drawing upon extensive fieldwork and suggesting novel ways of approaching the phenomenon of European Islam and the continent's Muslim communities Islam in Europe examines how European Muslims construct notions of identity agency and belonging how they negotiate and redefine the notions of religion tradition authority and cultural authenticity The Muslim Brothers in Europe Brigitte Maréchal, 2008 Based on interviews and discourse of the Muslim Brotherhood members this book offers a comprehensive overview of the ways in which their historical heritage is appropriated and continued beyond the movement's internal tensions and pretension to represent the Islamic orthodoxy

Rediscovering the Umma Ina Merdjanova, 2016 This book discusses the role of Islam in the political and social developments in the Balkans after the fall of communism It explores comparatively the transformations of Muslim identities under the influence of various national and transnational domestic and global factors The Islamic Challenge in Europe Raphael Israeli, 2017-09-08 Since the World Trade Center attacks in New York on September 11 2001 Europe has been plagued by Islamist attacks that have taken many lives and disrupted many services Considerable attention has been paid to radical Islamist attacks on the United Kingdom France and Germany but far less focus has been on the Islamist extremist impact on the rest of Europe This book warns all Europeans but Middle Easterners as well that they are not immune to terror That terror is confined to Jews and Israel is a myth Muslim extremist attacks have taken place against other Muslim nations as well as European nations in which Jewish influence or Israeli support is negligible The waves of Muslim recrimination against the West have given rise to internal struggles within the Arab world played out in terrorist acts Muslim brotherhoods have defined a global war against other religions nations and cultures that stray from the principles of fundamentalism a cultural and military jihad Just where religious identity supervenes national identity has become a critical turning point Israeli's book shows that the line between moderates and extremists within the Islamic fold is vague ambiguous and in certain situations non-existent It draws attention to polls and public sentiments of the Islamic faithful and emphasizes the Islamic attack on modernization and its cultural sources This timely volume is addressed to those in the West who are not accustomed to thinking in apocalyptic terms Israeli provides painstaking details of European responses to Islamist challenges particularly those who prefer pragmatic compliance rather than response He demonstrates that Islamic extremism continues to grow in the heartland of the European world This is neither an optimistic nor pessimistic book its disturbing message may be a wake up call to some It is a necessary read for those who want to go beyond news opting for a more intellectual and comprehensive diet Citizen Islam Zeyno Baran, 2011-07-21 Since September 11 Western governments have legitimized and empowered nonviolent Islamists as representatives of Islam for all Muslims in the West an approach that has worried Muslim moderates Citizen Islam addresses the implications of this approach The book opens with an overview of the theology and history of Islam to show that violence and intolerance are not fundamental aspects of the religion It then explains the growth of Islamism in Europe and in the United States before suggesting that both are finally beginning to recognize the threat posed by nonviolent Islamists Lastly it outlines steps that Western and Muslims leaders can take to strengthen moderate Islam and counter the threat of Islamism Written by Zeyno Baran a Turkish born Muslim Citizen Islam sheds a sharp light on Muslim communities in the West It concludes that there is much that Western governments can still do to reverse the spread of Islamism But they must act quickly The Routledge Handbook of Muslim-Jewish Relations Josef Meri,2016-06-23 The Routledge Handbook of Muslim Jewish Relations invites readers to deepen their understanding of the historical social cultural and political themes that impact modern day perceptions of interfaith dialogue The volume is designed to illuminate positive encounters between Muslims and Jews as well as points of conflict within a historical framework Among other goals the volume seeks to correct common misperceptions about the history of Muslim Jewish relations by complicating familiar political narratives to include dynamics such as the cross influence of literary and intellectual traditions Reflecting unique and original collaborations between internationally renowned contributors the book is intended to spark further collaborative and constructive conversation and scholarship in the academy and beyond

Political Islam and Masculinity Joshua M. Roose,2016-04-29 The question of Muslim identity and more specifically Muslim masculinities political loyalty and action has become the central pivot for the debate on the place of Islam in the West state policies on multiculturalism and even foreign policy towards the Middle East Young western born Muslim men are central figures in these questions yet their lives and identities remain poorly understood Political Islam and Masculinity Muslim Men in Australia reveals important and timely insights into why young Muslim men often from very similar social backgrounds are pursuing such dramatically different political paths in the name of Islam Based on an unprecedented depth of engagement and quality of sources this book examines the key social influences behind exceptional examples of political action by young Australian Muslim men who have extended their reach into the international realm from the streets of Jakarta to the battlefields of Syria and Iraq Citizenship, Security And Democracy Muslim Engagement With The West Wanda Krause,2009-01-01 Citizenship Security and Democracy provides greater analysis of and seeks solutions to the challenges of citizenship security and democracy through fresh and more varied perspectives as is related to Islamic discourse and Muslim communities and their activism in the West These concerns have never been more pressing than today Democracy has been a global endeavour and concern as in its ideal form it gives promise to liberty freedoms and rights However after especially 9 11 and 7 7 securitization has become a more immediate goal making security the driving discourse today But both security and democracy are becoming ever less attainable in today s climate of increased division and cleavages along ideological lines and Islamophobia an acute problem for citizenship in humanity On September 13 2006 the Association of Muslim Social Scientists AMSS UK and the Foundation for Political Economic and Social Research SETA held a three day conference to explore the challenges of democracy and security and importantly explore issues around citizenship and identity of Muslim diaspora Given the backdrop to a growing political discourse on the Muslim Other framed through the events of 9 11 and 7 7 and increased tension as a result of this discourse framing the aim was to help discern causes to the major challenges facing governments and the safety freedoms and dignity of individuals globally This was attempted through the study of Islamic thought and on the ground case study research of Muslim societies and communities This conference marks one of the major events to have been organised where such a large number of scholars experts and activists from a wide range of ideological positions and professional backgrounds come together in an ambitious attempt to resolve the most pressing issues at the turn of the 21st century Editor These papers have been published to widen discourse stimulate debate and hopefully pave the way for further research Doubtless readers may agree with some of the issues raised and disagree with others but it is hoped that overall both general and specialised readers will benefit from the perspectives offered and some of the more focused issues examined in the book

The Future of Islam John L. Esposito, 2010-02-04 John L Esposito is one of America's leading authorities on Islam Now in this brilliant portrait of Islam today and tomorrow he draws on a lifetime of thought and research to sweep away the negative stereotypes and provide an accurate richly nuanced and revelatory account of the fastest growing religion in the world Here Esposito explores the major questions and issues that face Islam in the 21st century and that will deeply affect global politics Are Islam and the West locked in a deadly clash of civilizations Is Islam compatible with democracy and human rights Will religious fundamentalism block the development of modern societies in the Islamic world Will Islam overwhelm the Western societies in which so many Muslim immigrants now reside Will Europe become Eurabia or will the Muslims assimilate Which Muslim thinkers will be most influential in the years to come To answer this last question he introduces the reader to a new generation of Muslim thinkers Tariq Ramadan Timothy Winter Mustafa Cerić Amina Wadud and others a diverse collection of Muslim men and women both the Martin Luthers and the Billy Grahams of Islam We meet religious leaders who condemn suicide bombing and who see the killing of unarmed men women and children as worse than murder who preach toleration and pluralism who advocate for women's rights The book often underscores the unexpected similarities between the Islamic world and the West and at times turns the mirror on the US revealing how we appear to Muslims all to highlight the crucial point that there is nothing exceptional about the Muslim faith Recent decades have brought extraordinary changes in the Muslim world and in addressing all of these issues Esposito paints a complex picture of Islam in all its diversity a picture of urgent importance as we face the challenges of the coming century

Localizing Islam in Europe Ahmet Yükleven, 2012-02-13 In the twentieth century Muslim minorities emerged in Europe seeking work a refuge from conflict and higher life standards As a result there are now more than 12 million Muslims in Western Europe As these immigrants became permanent residents the Islamic communities they developed had to respond to their European context reinterpreting Islam in accordance with local conditions In Localizing Islam in Europe Y kleyen brings this adaptation to light demonstrating how Islam and Europe have shaped one another and challenging the idea that Islamic beliefs are inherently antithetical to European secular democratic and pluralist values Y kleyen compares five different religious communities among Muslim immigrants in the Netherlands and Germany that represent a spectrum from moderate to revolutionary Islamic opinions Drawing on extensive fieldwork he finds that despite differences in goals and beliefs these communities play an intermediary role negotiating between the social and religious needs of Muslims and the socioeconomic legal and political context of Europe Y kleyen s rich ethnography shows that there is no single form of assimilated and privatized European Islam but rather Islamic communities and their interpretations and practices that localize Islam in Europe

Religious Freedom, Multiculturalism, Islam Tuula Sakaranaho, 2006-11-01 This is a comparative study of Muslims in Finland and the Republic of Ireland from the perspective of religious freedom and multiculturalism The book consists of three parts the first part discusses religious freedom and multiculturalism from a conceptual point of view and mainly within the context of Western Europe culminating in the cases of Finland and Ireland the second part deals with the establishment of Muslim communities in Europe in general and in Finland and Ireland in particular and the third part concerns Islam and education in these respective countries Islamic Traditions and Muslim Youth in Norway Christine

Jacobsen, 2010-12-17 A major question regarding Islam in Europe concerns the religiosity of Muslim youth a category currently epitomizing both the fears and hopes of multicultural Europe How are Islamic traditions engaged and reworked by young people born and educated in European societies and which modes of religiosity will they shape in the future Providing an in depth ethnographic account from Norway this book engages comparative research on Islam and young Muslims from across Europe focusing on Islamic revitalization Muslim identity politics changing configurations of religious authority and the formation of gendered religious subjectivities The author discusses anthropological and other social science theorizing in order to examine religious continuities and discontinuities in a context of international migration globalization and secular modernity

Jews and Muslims in London and Amsterdam Sipco J. Vellenga, Gerard A. Wiegers, 2022-11-28 This book focuses on the development of bilateral Jewish Muslim relations in London and Amsterdam since the late 1980s It offers a comparative analysis that considers both similarities and differences drawing on historical social scientific and religious studies perspectives The authors address how Jewish Muslim relations are related to the historical and contemporary context in which they are embedded the social identity strategies Jews and Muslims and their institutions employ and their perceived mutual positions in terms of identity and power The first section reflects on the history and current profile of Jewish and Muslim communities in London and Amsterdam and the development of relations between Jews and Muslims in both cities The second section engages with sources of conflict and cooperation Four specific areas that cause tension are explored the

Israeli Palestinian conflict antisemitism and Islamophobia attacks by extremists and the commemoration of wars and genocides In addition to trigger events what stands out is the influence of historical factors public opinion the mainstream Christian churches and the media along with the role of government The volume will be of interest to scholars from fields including religious studies interfaith studies Jewish studies Islamic studies urban studies European studies and social sciences as well as members of the communities concerned other religious communities journalists politicians and teachers who are interested in Jewish Muslim relations The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by University of Amsterdam

Rebounding Identities Dominique Arel, Blair A. Ruble, 2006 An examination of post Soviet society through ethnic religious and linguistic criteria this volume turns what is typically anthropological subject matter into the basis of politics sociology and history Ten chapters cover such diverse subjects as Ukrainian language revival Tatar language revival nationalist separatism and assimilation in Russia religious pluralism in Russia and in Ukraine mobilization against Chinese immigration and even the politics of mapmaking A few of these chapters are principally historical connecting tsarist and Soviet constructions to today's systems and struggles The introduction by Dominique Arel sets out the project in terms of new scholarly approaches to identity and the conclusion by Blair A. Ruble draws out political and social implications that challenge citizens and policy makers Rebounding Identities is based on a series of workshops held at the Kennan Institute in 2002 and 2003

When Islam and Democracy Meet: Muslims in Europe and in the United States Jocelyne Cesari, 2004-12-09 Exploring the woefully neglected reality of Islam as a major cultural and religious facet of American and European politics and societies Cesari examines how Muslims in the West are challenging the notion of an inevitable clash or confrontation With nearly twelve million Muslims living in the larger countries of Western Europe and almost six million in America the challenges of integrating newcomers within different countries and the place of Islam in democratic and secular context in the post 9/11 context have become more pertinent Comparing the interaction of Muslims with their new countries this book addresses the implications of increased Islamic visibility violent clashes beneficial cooperation and questions within the Muslim community about their role and the role of Islam in democratic states Pursuing a holistic approach to Muslims as a new minority within western democracy Cesari provides important insights

Islamic Movements of Europe Frank Peter, Rafael Ortega, 2014-09-08 Islam in Europe and Islamophobia are subjects of vital global importance which currently preoccupy policy makers and academics alike Through the examination of various European Muslim groups and institutions that have branched off from Islamic movements including the Muslim Brotherhood Hizb ut Tahrir and Jama'at al Islami this book outlines the configuration of social political and religious processes that have given rise to new kinds of European Muslim organisations The authors offer a new perspective on these Muslim groups and seek to reclaim them from the often highly charged public debates by placing them within the context of their origins as politicised religious movements on the one hand and their ongoing incorporation into European societal structures on the other They also consider the relationship of these organisations to their parent movements and examine the presence of Islam in European education and higher education institutions Taking into account the connection between Islamic movements and the perceived surge of Islamophobia in Europe this book does not debate the question of whether these groups fit into normative or cultural structures of European nation states but rather examines how these structures have changed through their interaction with these groups and the growing Muslim population within Europe It does not consider political Islam as the antithesis to a refined notion of secularism but as a form of public religion which contributes to the ever changing structure of Europe s secular regimes Featuring the work of more than 40 scholars from around the world this is the comprehensive guide to Islamic movements in Europe offering original definitive perspectives on Muslims and Islam in Europe today It will be essential reading for policy makers political commentators and scholars alike Producing Islamic Knowledge Martin van Bruinessen, Stefano Allievi, 2013-06-17 How do Muslims in Europe acquire discursive and practical knowledge of Islam How are conceptions of Islamic beliefs values and practices transmitted and how do they change Who are the authorities on these issues that Muslims listen to How do new Muslim discourses emerge in response to the European context This book addresses the broader question of how Islamic knowledge defined as what Muslims hold to be correct Islamic beliefs and practices is being produced and reproduced in West European contexts by looking at specific settings institutions and religious authorities Chapters examine in depth four key areas relating to the production and reproduction of Islamic knowledge authoritative answers in response to explicit questions in the form of fatwas the mosque and mosque association as the setting of much formal and informal transmission of Islamic knowledge the role of Muslim intellectuals in articulating alternative Muslim discourses higher Islamic education in Europe and the training of imams and other religious functionaries Featuring contributions from leading sociologists and anthropologists the book presents the findings of empirical research in these issues from a range of European countries such as France Italy the Netherlands and Great Britain As such it has a broad appeal and will be of great interest to students and scholars of Islamic studies anthropology sociology and religion

Muslim Women and Shari'ah Councils S. Bano, 2012-11-14 Using original empirical data and critiquing existing research Samia Bano explores the experience of British Muslim woman who use Shari ah councils to resolve marital disputes She challenges the language of community rights and claims for legal autonomy in matters of family law showing how law and community can empower as well as restrict women European Yearbook of Minority Issues European Centre for Minority Issues, 2005-01-30 The European Yearbook of Minority Issues provides a critical and timely review of contemporary developments in minority majority relations in Europe It combines analysis commentary and documentation in relation to conflict management international legal developments and domestic legislation affecting minorities in Europe Part I contains scholarly articles and in 2003 4 features two special focus sections on The Impact of Islam in Europe and Economic

Participation of Minorities Part II reviews the implementation of minority legislation and international standards at the universal and regional levels as well as new developments in relation to them and contains a list of international norms Apart from providing a unique annual overview of minority issues for both scholars and practitioners in this field the Yearbook is an indispensable reference tool for libraries research institutes as well as governments and international organisations
