Islam And Aids Between Scorn Pity And Justice:

Muslim and Catholic Responses to HIV and AIDS in Kenya Timothy James Carey, 2018-09-15 In the capital city of Nairobi Kenya African Catholic and Sunni Muslim leaders addressing HIV and AIDS are faced with a unique challenge On the one hand they are called to attend to the spiritual wellbeing of the infected individual on the other hand they are increasingly charged with serving as the stewards of the physical bodies of those negatively affected by such a physiologically debilitating and social stigmatized disease through certain identifiable interreligious traditions common to both faiths This book explores this development firsthand While conducting fieldwork in Nairobi Carey interviewed Muslim and Catholic leaders working in three areas HIV and AIDS prevention education and destigmatization These recorded observations and accounts help to illustrate that religious officials from within African Catholicism and Sunni Islam are attempting to provide the common inter religious traditions of mercy hospitality and justice in a holistic manner for those living with the virus in the city The research that produced this book involved six weeks of fieldwork during the summer of 2014 to help fill in the interstices between anthropological sociological and ethnographic accounts provided by other leading academics in their respective fields It presumed that religious traditions in Kenya exhibit a susceptibility to culture and context and a practical openness to its social environment which then affords this particular work a unique theological perspective in its attempt to identify and analyze patterns of social behavior and religious organization Islam and AIDS Farid Esack, Sarah Chiddy, 2009-01-19

Islam and AIDS is the first book to comprehensively address the HIV AIDS pandemic from an Islamic perspective with contributions from a number of internationally known activists and scholars of Islam including Kecia Ali and Abdulaziz Sachedina With an introduction by Peter Piot Director of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV AIDS this landmark work provides an insight into new possibilities of critical and progressive Islamic approaches in both law and ethics to one of the most urgent crises facing humankind today Covering emotive issues such as gender justice poverty health disease addiction and sexuality Islam and AIDS provides the religious analysis so essential for the communities at the forefront of the epidemic Islam and Health Policies Related to HIV Prevention in Malaysia Sima Barmania, Michael J.

Reiss, 2017-10-26 This salient text presents a culturally aware public health approach to the HIV epidemic in Malaysia a country emblematic of the Muslim world s response to the crisis It explores complex interactions of religion with health as a source of coping as well as stigma and denial particularly as Islam plays a central role in Malaysian culture politics and policy At the heart of the book a groundbreaking study analyzes attitudes and behaviors toward prevention among diverse people living with HIV faith leaders and government health officials From these findings readers gain insight into how health professionals policymakers and organizations can create appropriate prevention programs in Malaysia with implications for other Muslim countries This timely volume Situates Malaysia and the Asian Pacific region in the context of the HIV epidemic Analyzes ways Islamic beliefs can shape perceptions of HIV and prevention policy Reviews a unique study of stakeholder opinions and practices regarding HIV Discusses the consequences of Islamic rulings on sex outside marriage Offers recommendations for effective HIV prevention practice and policy Islam and Health Policies Related to HIV Prevention in Malaysia is of immediate relevance to researchers studying HIV prevention social aspects of religion sexuality and sex education Policymakers in health promotion and health education as well as graduate students in sex education sociology psychology and cultural studies should also find it useful

African Initiated Churches Facing HIV and AIDS in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, 2021-07-07 This book examines the responses of African Initiated Churches to HIV in Zimbabwe It describes the changing attitudes of African Initiated Churches to the pandemic exploring the adjustments that have been undertaken to both doctrine and practice within the movement The contributors show how the rigidity that often characterizes African Initiated Churches such as opposing the use of condoms insisting on polygamy and insisting exclusively on faith healing have gradually given way to more constructive approaches to HIV and AIDS

Feminist Edges of the Qur'an Aysha A. Hidayatullah, 2014-04-01 Aysha Hidayatullah presents the first comprehensive analysis of contemporary feminist interpretations of the Qur'an Synthesizing prominent feminist readings of the Qur'an in the United States since the late twentieth century she provides an essential introduction to this nascent field of Qur'anic scholarship and engages in a deep investigation as well as a radical critique of its methods and approaches With a particular focus on feminist impassions in the Qur'anic text she argues that many feminist interpretations rely on claims about feminist justice that are not fully supported by the text and she proposes a major revision to their exegetical foundations A provocative work of Muslim feminist theology Feminist Edges of the Qur'an is a vital intervention in urgent conversations about women and the Qur'an

The Imperatives of Progressive Islam Adis Duderija, 2017-02-03 With the proliferation of transnational Muslim networks over the last two decades the religious authority of traditionally educated Muslim scholars the ulama has come under increasing scrutiny and disruption These networks have provided a public space for multiple perspectives on Islam to be voiced allowing progressive Islamic worldviews to flourish alongside more neo traditional outlooks This book brings together the scholarship of leading progressive Muslim scholars incorporating issues pertaining to politics jurisprudence ethics theology epistemology gender and hermeneutics in the Islamic tradition It provides a comprehensive discussion of the normative imperatives behind a progressive Muslim thought as well as outlining its various values and aims Presenting this emerging and distinctive school of Islamic thought in an engaging and scholarly manner this is essential reading for any academic interested in contemporary religious thought and the development of modern Islam

Strings Attached Nadine Beckmann, Alessandro Gusman, Catrine Shroff, 2014-05-01 Religion and AIDS are transforming African public and private domains This book questions why so much of the transnational religious engagement has seemed to serve conservative values and explores connections between Europe North America and Africa highlighting how these carry both financial resources for HIV AIDS work and moral values

The Faith Sector and HIV/AIDS in Botswana Lovemore

Togarasei, Fidelis Nkomazana, 2011-01-18 This book is a collection of chapters by seasoned scholars of religion covering the role played by various religions at home in Botswana in the struggle against HIV and AIDS The book is a direct result of field research projects conducted by the authors on the role of religion in a country that once ranked as the worst affected by HIV and AIDS in the world It comprises of twelve chapters that are divided into four parts The first part comprising of three chapters provides a background of the faith sector in Botswana Part II of the book focuses on the Christian religion and comprises of four chapters Part III comprises of three chapters discussing other religious groups apart from Christianity Part IV addresses the role of culture and religion in HIV and AIDS response in Botswana With several attempts to mainstream HIV and AIDS in education both in schools and in tertiary institutions the book serves both the academic and research community at national and international levels It does not serve only those studying religion but all who address issues of HIV and AIDS from whatever field of study

Controversies in Queer Theology Susannah Cornwall, 2011 An introduction to one of the most challenging areas of contextual theology Queer theology is a significant new development and central to much current teaching and thinking about gender sexuality and the body

Qur'an of the Oppressed Shadaab Rahemtulla, 2017 This study analyzes the commentaries of four Muslim intellectuals who have turned to scripture as a liberating text to confront an array of problems from patriarchy racism and empire to poverty and interreligious communal violence Shadaab Rahemtulla considers the exegeses of the South African Farid Esack b 1956 the Indian Asghar Ali Engineer 1939 2013 the African American Amina Wadud b 1952 and the Pakistani American Asma Barlas b 1950 Rahemtulla examines how these intellectuals have been able to expound this seventh century Arabian text in a socially liberating way addressing their own lived realities of oppression and thus contexts that are worlds removed from that of the text's immediate audience Through a close reading of their works he underlines the importance of both the ethico social content of the Qur'an and their usage of new and innovative reading practices This work provides a rich analysis of the thought ways of specific Muslim intellectuals thereby substantiating a broadly framed school of thought Rahemtulla draws out their specific and general importance without displaying an uncritical sympathy He sheds light on the impact of modern exegetical commentary which is more self consciously concerned with historical context and present realities In a mutually reinforcing way this work thus illuminates both the role of agency and hermeneutical approaches in modern Islamic thought

Biblical Studies, Theology, Religion and Philosophy N. Amanze, 2012-06-28 This book introduces the study of Biblical studies theology religion and philosophy from an African perspective The book comprises twenty six chapters divided into four sections The first section deals with Biblical studies the second with theology the third with religion and the fourth with philosophy The contributions are from 20 eminent scholars from African and Caribbean universities

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them

Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

African Traditions in the Study of Religion, Diaspora and Gendered Societies Ezra Chitando, 2016-04-01 The historiography of African religions and religions in Africa presents a remarkable shift from the study of Africa as Object to Africa as Subject thus translating the subject from obscurity into the global community of the academic study of religion This book presents a unique multidisciplinary exploration of African Traditions in the Study of Religion Diaspora and Gendered Societies The book is structured under two main sections The first provides insights into the interface between Religion and Society The second features African Diaspora together with Youth and Gender which have not yet featured prominently in studies on religion in Africa Contributors drawn from diverse African and global contexts situate current scholarly traditions of the study of African religions within the purview of academic encounter and exchanges with non African scholars and non African contexts African scholars enrich the study of religions from their respective academic and methodological orientations Jacob Kehinde Olupona stands out as a pioneer in the socio scientific interpretation of African indigenous religion and religions in Africa and the new African Diaspora This book honours his immense contribution to an emerging field of study and research

Ethics Miguel A. De La Torre, 2013-01-01 This survey text for religious ethics and theological ethics courses explores how ethical concepts defined as liberationist which initially was a Latin American Catholic phenomenon is presently manifest around the globe and within the United States across different racial ethnic and gender groups Authored by several contributors this book elucidates how the powerless and disenfranchised within marginalized communities employ their religious beliefs to articulate a liberationist liberative religious ethical perspective Students will thus comprehend the diversity existing within the liberative ethical discourse and know which scholars and texts to read and will encounter practical ways to further social justice

Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity Dietrich Werner, David Esterline, Namsoon Kang, Joshva Raja, 2010-11-19 The Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity is the first attempt to map and analyze developments in theological education on a global scale This volume with contributions from 98 leaders in theological education from around the world provides a comprehensive introduction to the major themes and contexts in the international discourse on theological education surveys of the issues and challenges faced in different regions and introductory essays on the developments in the major denominational families in World Christianity The editors are Dietrich Werner World Council of Churches Geneva David Esterline McCormick Theological Seminary Chicago Namsoon Kang Brite Divinity School Fort Worth and Joshva Raja Queen s Foundation Birmingham Homosexuality in Islam Scott Siraj Al-Haq Kugle,2010-01-01 Homosexuality is anathema to Islam or so the majority of both believers and non believers suppose Throughout the Muslim world it is met with hostility where state punishments range from hefty fines to the death penalty Likewise numerous scholars and commentators maintain that the Qur an and Hadith rule unambiguously against same sex relations This pioneering study argues that there is far more nuance to the matter than most believe In its narrative of Lot the Qur an could be interpreted as condemning lust rather homosexuality While some Hadith are fiercely critical of homosexuality some are far more equivocal This is the first book length treatment to offer a detailed analysis of how Islamic scripture jurisprudence and Hadith can not only accommodate a sexually sensitive Islam but actively endorse it Mental Health Practitioner's Guide to HIV/AIDS Sana Loue,2012-12-09 Although efforts have been made and continue to be made to reduce the rate of HIV transmission in the U S and globally the rates continue to increase in the majority of countries In the U S members of minority communities remain especially at risk of HIV transmission An individual s discovery that he or she has contracted HIV or that a loved one has contracted the illness often raises significant issues that necessitate interaction with mental health professionals Mental Health Practitioner s Guide to HIV AIDS serves as a quick desk reference for professionals who may be less familiar with the terminology used in HIV AIDS care and services The Stolen Bible Gerald O. West,2016-08-09 The Stolen Bible tells the story of how Southern Africans have interacted with the Bible from its arrival in Dutch imperial ships in the mid 1600s through to contemporary post apartheid South Africa The Stolen Bible emphasises African agency and distinguishes between African receptions of the Bible and African receptions of missionary colonial Christianity Through a series of detailed historical geographical and hermeneutical case studies the book analyses Southern African receptions of the Bible including the earliest African encounters with the Bible the translation of the Bible into an African language the appropriation of the Bible by African Independent Churches the use of the Bible in the Black liberation struggle and the ways in which the Bible is embodied in the lives of ordinary Africans Treating Addiction from an Islāmic Psychology Perspective G. Hussein Rassool,2024-11-27 This book provides an understanding of behavioural and substance disorders from an Isl mic psychology perspective Despite the religious prohibitions against the use of most substances addiction is a significant psychosocial and spiritual problem both in Muslim majority countries and among Muslim minorities However many Muslim with substance use disorder have been left to suffer in silence because addictive behaviours are considered taboo Not only do feelings of guilt shame and a fear of being stigmatised and excluded from community prevent many from seeking therapeutic and spiritual interventions there are also limited culturally sensitive service provisions offering help for Muslims with addictive behaviours This book will synthesise the body of knowledge of the psychology of addiction from an Islamic perspectives to foster awareness and understanding of addictive behaviours to break that stigma It will also provide knowledge required to respond effectively to Muslim clients that psychotherapists and counsellors might encounter in their clinical practice presenting a step by step application of Rasool s Islamic Psychotherapy Practice model in working with clients with addictive behaviours This book will be a valuable read for Islamic psychologists psychotherapists and counsellors addiction researchers and specialists and students in these fields The Routledge
