Communities and Civil Society in Europe Rupert Graf Strachwitz, 2019-08-19 The seemingly vitalizing impact of religiosity on civil society is a research topic that has been extensively looked into not only in the USA but increasingly also in a European context. What is missing is an evaluation of the role of institutionalized religious communities and of circumstances that facilitate or impede their status as civil society organisations. This anthology in two volumes aims at closing this gap by providing case studies regarding political, legal and historical aspects in various European countries. Vol I provides an introduction and looks at cases in Greece, Italy, the Netherlands, Sweden and Bosnia and Herzegovina as well as chapters on legal issues and data and comprehensive bibliography. Civil Society in Asia Wayne Hudson, 2024-11-01 In

East and Southeast Asia the creation of civil society is a crucial yet most difficult issue. Europeans have had the luxury of centuries in a slow moving world characterised by weak governments in which the foundation institutions, norms and values of civil society could ferment and develop. Asia however faces this task when a nation's currency can devalue in seconds destabilising its government and when states have far more effective means of surveillance, suppression and terror. This book examines these issues and shows that a better understanding of civil society in the Asian context is central to promoting contemporary political, social and economic reform in Asia. It will appeal to students and teachers of politics, law and sociology because it provides new perspectives on how to understand civil society drawing on Asian examples as well as indications for rethinking what civil society means in Asia. Individual chapters combine theoretical and empirical issues in a way which fills a major gap in the literature. Henceforth works about civil society will need to take more account of the Asian evidence and Asianists will need to have a clear idea of what civil society in Asia means. Civil Society in British History Jose
