Campey,2005-05-16 Scots some of Upper Canadas earliest pioneers influenced its early development This book charts the progress of Scottish settlement throughout the province      The Institutions of Extraterrestrial Liberty Charles S. Cockell,2022-12-09 The exploration of space raises new problems in the expression of human freedoms While the potential to establish new extraterrestrial settlements is thrilling it also brings along a myriad of decisions to consider when addressing how these settlements should operate in a way which maintains human liberties In this book many dimensions of freedom in space are discussed Aspects of liberty beyond Earth from the near term freedom to claim satellite orbits to the very long term freedom on interstellar worldships are considered Gathering a diverse set of expertise from scientists ethicists lawyers philosophers and social scientists they seek to collectively answer questions such as How should early governance structures be assembled What are the ideal forms of institutions from science academies to schools and governments What freedoms can people expect in space and how will governance beyond Earth tread the fine line between authority and liberty A compelling analysis of liberties on Earth the solar system and beyond this text is bound to inspire the interests of academics and scientists alike      Book of Islay G. G. Smith,1895      An Unstoppable Force Lucille H. Campey,2008-05-06 This book provides the first exhaustive study of the great Scottish exodus to Canada written in modern times Using wide ranging sources some previously untapped Lucille Campey examines the driving forces behind the Scottish exodus and traces the remarkable progress of Scottish colonizers across Canada Mythology and truth are considered side by side as their story unfolds Scots had a profound impact on Canada and shaped the course of its history This book is essential reading for those who wish to understand why they came and the enormity of their achievements in Canada      The Hebridean World Robert Dodgshon,2024-10-23 The Hebrides has long been seen as an area that when considered over time was slow to absorb change Indeed from the nineteenth century onwards it attracted the attention of scholars for being seen as having not just the oldest rocks in Europe but also some of its oldest cultural practices and institutional forms This unchanging archaic character has continued to attract a great deal of research but over recent decades a counter view has emerged that highlights the changes that the region did experience This book argues the case for the latter by drawing out how the institutional forms around which the region and its farming communities were organised changed over time As background It highlights the importance of understanding two key inter related features that underpinned these changes the low output of Hebridean farming with its high frequency of poor harvests and the range of environmental hazards that beset the region Brought together the interaction between these two features makes the survival strategies adopted by communities an important part of the region s history Because society environment interactions are at the heart of the problem the book s discussion is presented as a study in human ecology One of the benchmark studies of the region in modern times is Sir Fraser Darling s The West Highland Problem A Study in Human Ecology OUP 1955 adopted such an approach This book gives this human ecological perspective on the region a greater time depth In addition to a Preface and an Epilogue it is divided into 12 chapters Title The Hebridean World Its Ecological History Through Time Preface 1 The Hebrides Their Physical Endowment and Its Challenges 2 The Oldest Cultural Landscapes 3 The Hebridean Mix Picts Scots and Vikings 4 How Land was Occupied Before Crofting 5 How the Land was Farmed before Crofting 6 Landscapes of Summer the Shielings 7 The Inter Tidal and Beyond the Harvest of Shore and Sea 8 Survival on the Margins 9 The Landscapes of Crofting 10 The Harvesting and Processing of Grain 11 The Clearances for Sheep and Deer 12 Hebridean Housing and Settlement Epilogue
