Issues In Curating Contemporary Art And:

Issues in Curating Contemporary Art and Performance Judith Rugg, Michèle Sedgwick, 2007 To stay relevant art curators must keep up with the rapid pace of technological innovation as well as the aesthetic tastes of fickle critics and an ever expanding circle of cultural arbiters Issues in Curating Contemporary Art and Performance argues that despite these daily pressures good curating work also requires more theoretical attention In four thematic sections a distinguished group of contributors consider curation in light of interdisciplinary and emerging practices examine conceptions of curation as intervention and contestation and explore curation's potential to act as a reconsideration of conventional museum spaces Against the backdrop of cutting edge developments in electronic art art science collaboration nongallery spaces and virtual fields contributors propose new approaches to curating and new ways of fostering critical inquiry Now in paperback this volume is an essential read for scholars curators and art enthusiasts alike Curatorial Challenges Malene Vest

Hansen, Anne Folke Henningsen, Anne Gregersen, 2019-03-04 Curatorial Challenges investigates the challenges faced by curators in contemporary society and explores which practices ways of thinking and types of knowledge production curating exhibitions could challenge Bringing together international curators and researchers from the fields of art and cultural history the book provides new research and perspectives on the curatorial process and aims to bridge the traditional gap between theoretical and academic museum studies and museum practices The book focuses on exhibitions as a primary site of cultural exchange and argues that as highly visible showcases producers of knowledge and historically embedded events exhibitions establish and organize meanings of art and cultural heritage Temporary exhibitions continue to increase in cultural significance and yet the traditional role of the museum as a Bildung institution has changed As exhibitions gain in significance so too do curatorial strategies Arguing that new research is needed to help understand these changes the book presents original research that explores how curatorial strategies inform both art and cultural history museums in contemporary society The book also investigates what sort of critical transformative and perhaps even conservative potential can be traced in exhibition cultures Curatorial Challenges fosters innovative interdisciplinary exchange and brings new insights to the field of curatorial studies As such it should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students engaged in the study of curatorial practice museum studies the making of exhibitions museum communication and art history

The Participator in Contemporary Art Kaija Kaitavuori, 2018-08-30 The early 21st century has seen contemporary art make continued use of audience participation in which the spectator becomes part of the artwork itself In this book Kaija Kaitavuori claims that the participator is a new artistic role that does not fall under the auspices of artist or spectator and in proving such she devises a four group typology of involvement Her classification distinguishes between different forms of engagement and identifies their specific features The key criteria she proposes are how concepts of authorship and ownership shift in relation to collectively created work how contracts regulating the use and production of shared work are arranged and the extent to which involvement in making art can be regarded as democratic This highly original book thus offers students and teachers the tools with which to improve their understanding of participatory art and removes the confusing terminology that has characterized so many other discussions

The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics Randy Martin, 2015-02-11 The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics offers a thorough examination of the complex relationship between art and politics and the many forms and approaches the engagement between them can take The contributors a diverse assembly of artists activists scholars from around the world discuss and demonstrate ways of making art and politics legible and salient in the world As such the 32 chapters in this volume reflect on performing and visual arts music film and new media as well as covering social practice community based work conceptual interventionist and movement affiliated forms The Companion is divided into four distinct parts Conceptual Cartographies Institutional Materialities Modalities of Practice Making Publics Randy Martin has assembled a collection that ensures that readers will come away with a wider view of what can count as art and politics where they might find it and how it moves in the world The diversity of perspectives is at once challenging and fortifying to those who might dismiss political art on the one hand as not making sufficient difference and on the other to those embracing it but seeking a means to elaborate the significance that it can make in the world The Routledge Companion to Art and Politics brings together a range of issues and approaches and encourages critical and creative thinking about how art is produced perceived and received

The Handbook of Textile Culture Janis Jefferies, Diana Wood Conroy, Hazel Clark, 2015-11-05 In recent years the study of textiles and culture has become a dynamic field of scholarship reflecting new global material and technological possibilities This is the first handbook of specially commissioned essays to provide a guide to the major strands of critical work around textiles past and present and to draw upon the work of artists and designers as well as researchers in textiles studies The handbook offers an authoritative and wide ranging guide to the topics issues and questions that are central to the study of textiles today it examines how material practices reflect cross cultural influences it explores textiles relationships to history memory place and social and technological change and considers their influence on fashion and design sustainable production craft architecture curation and contemporary textile art practice This illustrated volume will be essential reading for students and scholars involved in research on textiles and related subjects such as dress costume and fashion feminism and gender art and design and cultural history Cover image Anne Wilson To Cross Walking New York 2014 Site specific performance and sculpture at The Drawing Center NYC Thread cross research Photo Christie Carlson Anne Wilson Studio

Routledge International Handbook of the Sociology of Art and Culture Laurie Hanquinet, Mike Savage, 2015-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of the Sociology of Arts and Culture offers a comprehensive overview of sociology of art and culture focusing especially though not exclusively on the visual arts literature music and digital culture Extending and critiquing Bourdieu's influential analysis of cultural capital the distinguished international contributors explore the extent to which cultural omnivorousness has eclipsed

highbrow culture the role of age gender and class on cultural practices the character of aesthetic preferences the contemporary significance of screen culture and the restructuring of popular culture The Handbook critiques modes of sociological determinism in which cultural engagement is seen as the simple product of the educated middle classes The contributions explore the critique of Eurocentrism and the global and cosmopolitan dimensions of cultural life The book focuses particularly on bringing cutting edge relational research methodologies both qualitative and quantitative to bear on these debates This handbook not only describes the field but also proposes an agenda for its development which will command major international interest The Routledge International Handbook of Intercultural Arts Research Pamela Burnard, Elizabeth Mackinlay, Kimberly Powell, 2016-01-08 For artists scholars researchers educators and students of arts theory interested in culture and the arts a proper understanding of the questions surrounding interculturality and the arts requires a full understanding of the creative methodological and interconnected possibilities of theory practice and research The International Handbook of Intercultural Arts Research provides concise and comprehensive reviews and overviews of the convergences and divergences of intercultural arts practice and theory offering a consolidation of the breadth of scholarship practices and the contemporary research methodologies methods and multi disciplinary analyses that are emerging within this new field The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art Bertie Ferdman, Jovana Stokic, 2020-02-20 The Methuen Drama Companion to Performance Art offers a comprehensive guide to the major issues and interdisciplinary debates concerning performance in art contexts that have developed over the last decade It understands performance art as an institutional cultural and economic phenomenon rather than as a label or object Following the ever increasing institutionalization and mainstreaming of performance the book s chapters identify a marked change in the economies and labor practices surrounding performance art and explore how this development is reflective of capitalist approaches to art and event production Embracing what we perceive to be the oxymoronic status of performance art where it is simultaneously precarious and highly profitable the essays in this book map the myriad gestures and radical possibilities of this extreme contradiction This Companion adopts an interdisciplinary perspective to present performance art s legacies and its current practices It brings together specially commissioned essays from leading innovative scholars from a wide range of approaches including art history visual and performance studies dance and theatre scholarship in order to provide a comprehensive and multifocal overview of the emerging research trends and methodologies devoted to performance art New Music and Institutional Critique Christian Grüny, Brandon Farnsworth, 2023-10-26 While institutional critique has long been an important part of artistic practice and theoretical debate in the visual arts it has long escaped attention in the field of music This open access volume assembles for the first time an array of theoretical approaches and practical examples dealing with New Music s institutions their critique and their transformations For scholars leaders and practitioners alike it offers an important overview of current developments as well as theoretical reflections about New Music and its institutions today In this way it provides a major contribution to the debate about the present and future of contemporary music The Crafty Animator Caroline Ruddell, Paul Ward, 2019-04-03 This collection is a study of the value of craft as it can be understood within the study and practice of animation The book reconsiders the position of craft which is often understood as inferior to art with a particular focus on questions of labour in animation production and gendered practices The notion of craft has been widely investigated in a number of areas including art design and textiles but despite the fact that a wide range of animators use craft based techniques the value of craft has not been interrogated in this context until now Seeking to address such a gap in the literature this collection considers the concept of craft through a range of varying case studies Chapters include studies on experimental animation computer animation trauma and memory children s animation and silhouette animation among others The Crafty Animator also goes some way to exploring the relationship craft has with the digital in the context of animation production Through these varied discussions this book problematizes simplistic notions about the value of certain methods and techniques working to create a dialogue between craft and animation Comic Art in Museums Kim A. Munson, 2020-07-23 Contributions by Kenneth Baker Jaqueline Berndt Albert Boime John Carlin Benoit Crucifix David Deitcher Michael Dooley Damian Duffy M C Gaines Paul Gravett Diana Green Karen Green Doug Harvey Charles Hatfield M Thomas Inge Leslie Jones Jonah Kinigstein Denis Kitchen John A Lent Dwayne McDuffie Andrei Molotiu Alvaro de Moya Kim A Munson Cullen Murphy Gary Panter Trina Robbins Rob Salkowitz Antoine Sausverd Art Spiegelman Scott Timberg Carol Tyler Brian Walker Alexi Worth Joe Wos and Craig Yoe Through essays and interviews Kim A Munson s anthology tells the story of the over thirty year history of the artists art critics collectors curators journalists and academics who championed the serious study of comics the trends and controversies that produced institutional interest in comics and the wax and wane and then return of comic art in museums Audiences have enjoyed displays of comic art in museums as early as 1930 In the mid 1960s after a period when most representational and commercial art was shunned comic art began a gradual return to art museums as curators responded to the appropriation of comics characters and iconography by such famous pop artists as Andy Warhol and Roy Lichtenstein From the first known exhibit to show comics in art historical context in 1942 to the evolution of manga exhibitions in Japan this volume regards exhibitions both in the United States and internationally With over eighty images and thoughtful essays by Denis Kitchen Brian Walker Andrei Molotiu Paul Gravett Art Spiegelman Trina Robbins and Charles Hatfield among others this anthology shows how exhibitions expanded the public dialogue about comic art and our expectation of good art displaying how dedicated artists collectors fans and curators advanced comics from a frequently censored low art medium to a respected art form celebrated worldwide Exhibition Planning Ethan Evans, AI, 2025-02-22 Exhibition Planning offers a comprehensive guide to the multifaceted world of art exhibitions bridging artistic vision with essential business management It emphasizes that successful exhibitions require both meticulous planning and effective management highlighting how a well conceived curatorial statement can falter without solid execution and flawless management can't compensate for a poorly conceived exhibition. The book underscores the necessity of integrating business acumen with artistic sensibility for impactful and financially sustainable art exhibitions. The book uniquely emphasizes data-driven decision making, providing professionals with tools to analyze market trends and evaluate exhibition performance. It progresses from core concepts in exhibition theory and practice to detailed explorations of planning, management, and promotion, incorporating case studies to illustrate key principles. Marketing, finance, and project management principles are applied to audience development, budget creation, and project timelines, enriching the analysis and providing a broader understanding of the exhibition planning process. Targeted towards art professionals, gallery owners, and students of arts management, this book provides practical guidance applicable to various exhibition types, focusing primarily on contemporary art. By addressing ongoing debates such as the role of technology and ethics in art, the book encourages critical examination and informed perspectives within the dynamic field of arts management.

Interpreting Art in Museums and Galleries Christopher Whitehead, 2011-12-02 In this pioneering book, Christopher Whitehead provides an overview and critique of art interpretation practices in museums and galleries. Covering the philosophy and sociology of art traditions, art history, and art display, the book explores the psychology of the aesthetic experience and ideas about learning and communication. Whitehead advances major theoretical frameworks for understanding interpretation from curators' and visitors' perspectives. Although not a manual, the book is deeply practical. It presents extensively researched European and North American case studies involving interviews with professionals engaged in significant cutting-edge interpretation projects. Finally, it sets out the ethical and political responsibilities of institutions and professionals engaged in art interpretation. Exploring the theoretical and practical dimensions of art interpretation in accessible language, this book covers the construction of art by museums and galleries in the form of collections, displays, exhibition, and discourse. The historical and political dimensions of art interpretation, the functioning of narrative categories and chronologies in art displays, practices, discourses, and problems surrounding the interpretation of historical and contemporary art, visitor experiences, and questions of authorship and accessibility, the role of exhibition texts, new interpretive technologies, and live interpretation in art museum and gallery contexts are thoroughly researched with immediately practical applications. Interpreting Art in Museums and Galleries will inform the practices of art curators and those studying the subject.

The City on Display Joel Robinson, 2022-08-19 The City on Display: Architecture Festivals and the Urban Commons reflects on the biennials, triennials, and other festivals of architecture and design that have been held over the last two decades as they expand and transform in response to the exigencies of planetary urbanisation. Joel Robinson examines the development of these large-scale international and perennial exhibitions as they address such challenges as urban regeneration, heritage preservation, climate change, and the migration crisis. Homing in on examples of festivals in Venice, Rotterdam, Oslo, Tallinn, Sharjah, Seoul, Shenzhen, and Hong Kong, the author describes how they alter the public spaces that host them, either through civic boosterism and gentrification on the one hand or through a reassertion of the urban commons and the right to the city on the other hand He attempts to thematise the architecture festival's relationship with the city and interrogate its potential as a forum for global debate about the emergencies of the urban condition This book will be beneficial for students and academics of architecture and urbanism and especially those who have an interest in how the city gets exhibited at such festivals and even reimagined as something other than it currently is

Art Practice in a Digital Culture Hazel Gardiner, Charlie Gere, 2016-04-15 Much as art history is in the process of being transformed by new information communication technologies often in ways that are either disavowed or resisted art practice is also being changed by those same technologies One of the most obvious symptoms of this change is the increasing numbers of artists working in universities and having their work facilitated and supported by the funding and infrastructural resources that such institutions offer This new paradigm of art as research is likely to have a profound effect on how we understand the role of the artist and of art practice in society In this unique book artists art historians art theorists and curators of new media reflect on the idea of art as research and how it has changed practice Intrinsic to the volume is an investigation of the advances in creative practice made possible via artists engaging directly with technology or via collaborative partnerships between practitioners and technological experts ranging through a broad spectrum of advanced methods from robotics through rapid prototyping to the biological sciences

International Performance Research Pedagogies Sruti Bala, Milija Gluhovic, Hanna Korsberg, Kati Röttger, 2017-11-07 This book offers a unique and much needed interrogation of the broader questions surrounding international performance research which are pertinent to the present and the future of Theatre and Performance studies Marking the completion of eight years of the Erasmus Mundus MA Programme in International Performance Research MAIPR a programme run jointly by the universities of Warwick UK Amsterdam Netherlands Helsinki Tampere Finland Arts in Belgrade Serbia and Trinity College Dublin Ireland the essays in this volume take stock of the achievements insights and challenges of what international performance research is or ought to be about By reflecting on the discipline of Performance Studies using the MAIPR programme as a case study in point the volume addresses the broader question of the critical link between the discipline of Performance Studies and humanities education in general examining their interactions in the contemporary university in the context of globalisation

Research Handbook on Art and Law Jani McCutcheon, Fiona McGaughey, 2020-01-31 Featuring international contributions from leading and emerging scholars this innovative Research Handbook presents a panoramic view of how law sees visual art and how visual art sees law It resists the conventional approach to art and law as inherently dissonant one a discipline preoccupied with rationality certainty and objectivity the other a creative enterprise ensconced in the imaginary and inviting multiple unique and subjective interpretations Blending these two distinct disciplines this unique Research Handbook bridges the gap between art and law

Aesthetic Practices and Adult Education Darlene E. Clover, Kathy Sanford, Shauna Butterwick, 2020-05-21 In the past and over the last decade in particular the arts and arts spaces have become integral to the research theory and practice of adult education This edited volume showcases the possibilities and challenges of work by adult educators in community settings university classrooms and arts and cultural institutions in Canada the United States and Europe The authors share the ways in which they use aesthetic practices to promote human and cultural development address complex issues such as racism respect aboriginal knowledge or simply aim to provide spaces and opportunities to creatively and critically re imagine the world as a better fairer and more healthy and sustainable place This book will benefit educators in universities communities and art galleries who wish to expand their knowledge and understanding of the arts as tools for change This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education
