

A 17th-century painting depicting a group of men in period dress, likely Dutch or Flemish, gathered around a table. The men are playing various instruments, including lutes, harps, and a keyboard instrument (possibly a harpsichord or spinet). The scene is set indoors, with a table covered in a green cloth. On the table are several items, including a glass, a bowl, and some papers. The background features a draped curtain. The painting is signed 'Nympha, Claus, Pietas, Musica, Noster a Mor' at the top.
