A Matter of Faith David E. Campbell, 2007-09-01 Moral values dominated the post election headlines in 2004 Analysts pointed to exit polls strong turnout among evangelicals and controversy over gay marriage as evidence that the election had been decided along religious lines Soon however this explanation was called into question In A Matter of Faith distinguished scholars go beyond the headlines to assess the role of religion in the 2004 election Were issues such as stem cell research really more influential than the economy and Iraq Did deeply religious Americans necessarily vote Republican Was the morality factor really a dramatic new development David E Campbell and his colleagues examine the religious affiliations of voters and party elite and evaluate the claim that moral values were decisive in 2004 The authors analyze strategies used to mobilize religious conservatives and examine the voting behavior of a broad range of groups including evangelicals African Americans and the understudied religious left This rich perspective on faith and politics is essential reading on a critical aspect of American politics Contributors include John Green University of Akron Pew Forum on Religion and Public Life James Guth Furman University Sunshine Hillygus Harvard University Laura Hussey University of Baltimore John Jackson University of Southern Illinois Scott Keeter Pew Research Center for the People and the Press Lyman Kellstedt Wheaton College Geoffrey Layman University of Maryland David Leal University of Texas at Austin David Leege Notre Dame Eric McDaniel University of Texas at Austin Quin Monson Brigham Young University Barbara Norrander University of Arizona Jan

Granquist, Eric Lund, 2017-11-10 This unique collection of excerpts from Lutheran historical documents many translated here for the first time presents readers with a full picture of how the Lutheran movement developed in its thought and practice Covering not only theology but also church life popular piety and influential historical events the primary documents include theological treatises confessional statements liturgical texts devotional writings hymns letters and diaries satirical polemics political documents woodcuts and pamphlet literature This first volume covers the chronological period from Luther's first calls for reform to the development of Lutheran Orthodoxy and Pietism during the seventeenth century The judiciously selected and carefully translated texts as well as the contextualizing information provided in each chapter's introductory essay acquaint readers with the turbulence and fervor of this revolutionary Christian movement its struggles for survival and consolidation and its further evolution up to the dawn of the Enlightenment     Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1979-03

A Matter of Faith Robert Sullivan, 1996-07-30 This is the most extensive account of Moore's fiction to date that considers his many works from the early stories to the recent novel No Other Life Moore who was born in Ireland but is a Canadian citizen and resides predominantly in the United States has earned an international reputation as an important novelist This book sets out to demonstrate a discernible pattern of concerns that cut across Moore's fictive output over the last 40 years It argues that the concerns of love and faith and the interplay between them form the backbone of Moore's oeuvre Sullivan draws from interviews with Moore and presents a study that convincingly demonstrates how Moore's fictions from first to last take their place in a larger thematic and formal master narrative     Church Dogmatics The Doctrine of God, Volume 2, Part 2 Karl Barth, 2003-11-01 Described by Pope Pius XII as the most important theologian since Thomas Aquinas the Swiss pastor and theologian Karl Barth continues to be a major influence on students scholars and preachers today Barth's theology found its expression mainly through his closely reasoned fourteen part magnum opus Die Kirchliche Dogmatik Having taken over 30 years to write the Church Dogmatics is regarded as one of the most important theological works of all time and represents the pinnacle of Barth's achievement as a theologian T T Clark International is now proud to be publishing the only complete English translation of the Church Dogmatics in paperback     Faith, Life and Leadership:

Vol 2, 2019-09-11 Faith Life and Leadership Vol 2 8 Canadian Women Tell Their Stories is the follow up volume to the very successful first book by the same title This second group of eight successful experienced godly Canadian women have been similarly assembled and again each is a distinguished leader in her field All have been willing to share the unique story that relates to the lessons they learned during their leadership journey Their personal stories are told with utmost authenticity and integrity Readers will be inspired encouraged and edified to achieve great things for the Kingdom The unique perspective of each models important and essential characteristics and practices that will help emerging leaders to prepare for the roadblocks and adversities that will undoubtedly present themselves on their own journey to becoming strong Spirit filled leaders These stories will cover important themes such as Understanding the Call of God Developing and Building Character Leadership Tests Seasons and Processes Mentoring Strengthening Spiritual Disciplines Maturing Through Offences Living and Leaving a Legacy Unity, 1919 A Set of Holiday Sermons, 1916 Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W
