Jack Maggs Peter Carey:

Jack Maggs Peter Carey, 2007-12-18 The Booker Prize winning author of Oscar and Lucinda returns to the nineteenth century in an utterly captivating mystery. The year is 1837 and a stranger is prowling London. He is Jack Maggs, an illegal returnee from the prison island of Australia. He has the demeanor of a savage and the skills of a hardened criminal, and he is risking his life on seeking vengeance and reconciliation. Installing himself within the household of the genteel grocer Percy Buckle, Maggs soon attracts the attention of a cross section of London society. Saucy Mercy Larkin wants him for a mate. The writer Tobias Oates wants to possess his soul through hypnosis. But Maggs is obsessed with a plan of his own. And as all the various schemes converge, Maggs rises into the center, a dark looming figure at once frightening, mysterious, and compelling. Not since Caleb Carr's The Alienist have the shadowy city streets of the nineteenth century lit up with such mystery and romance.

Jack Maggs Samuel Adamson, 2024-11-28 You're a dead man if they find you. Enigmatic ex-convict Jack Maggs returns from Australia to the murky streets of nineteenth-century London and embarks on a quest to find his son Henry Phipps, who has mysteriously disappeared. Disguised as a footman, he joins the peculiar household of Phipps's neighbour Percy Buckle, where he meets Tobias Oates, a young novelist and amateur mesmerist searching for inspiration. Striking a dangerous deal with Oates, Maggs becomes ensnared in a dazzling, distorted world of ambition, secrets, and unexpected alliances. Samuel Adamson's ingenious, wildly entertaining adaptation of Peter Carey's bestselling novel opened in November 2024 in a production by State Theatre Company South Australia.

Jack Maggs Peter Carey, 1997 In London in the 1830s, a young thief insinuates himself into a wealthy household and soon falls in with an author fascinated by the criminal mind.

Jack Maggs Peter Carey, 2000     Discussion Notes on Peter Carey's Jack Maggs Gillian Bouras, 1998     Jack Maggs Manuscripts and Other Literary and Personal Papers, Mostly 1994-1996 Peter Carey,     Witnessing the Past Sigrun Meinig, 2004     Turned Upside Down? Dickens's Australia and Peter Carey's Jack Maggs, 2001     Peter Carey Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2010-03-10 Peter Carey, writer of such celebrated works as Oscar and Lucinda, True History of the Kelly Gang, and His Illegal Self, is one of Australia's most critically acclaimed novelists. Deeply concerned with South Pacific culture, especially the lives of its most downtrodden citizens, Carey uses popular art as a tool for raising the consciousness of readers. This book provides an introduction to the author's life as well as a guided overview of his body of work. Designed for the fan and scholar alike, this text features an alphabetized, fully annotated listing of major terms in the Carey canon, including fictional characters, motifs, historical events, and themes. Additional features include a listing of headwords, a Carey history, 44 reading and writing topics, and bibliographies of primary and secondary sources. A comprehensive index is included.

Missions of Interdependence Gerhard Stilz, 2002 At the beginning of the twenty-first century, it is necessary to combine into a productive programme the striving for individual emancipation and the social practice of humanism in order to help the world survive both the ancient pitfalls of particularist terrorism and the levelling tendencies of cultural indifference engendered by the renewed imperialist arrogance of hegemonial global capital In this book thirty five scholars address and negotiate in a spirit of learning and understanding an exemplary variety of intercultural splits and fissures that have opened up in the English speaking world Their methodology can be seen to constitute a seminal field of intellectual signposts They point out ways and means of responsibly assessing colonial predicaments and postcolonial developments in six regions shaped in the past by the British Empire and still associated today through their allegiance to the idea of a Commonwealth of Nations They show how a new ethic of literary self assertion interpretative mediation and critical responsiveness can remove the deeply ingrained prejudices silences and taboos established by discrimination against race class and gender

Neo-Victorianism and the Memory of Empire Elizabeth Ho, 2012-04-19 Examining the global dimensions of Neo Victorianism this book explores how the appropriation of Victorian images in contemporary literature and culture has emerged as a critical response to the crises of decolonization and Imperial collapse Neo Victorianism and the Memory of Empire explores the phenomenon by reading a range of popular and literary Anglophone neo Victorian texts including Alan Moore s Graphic Novel From Hell works by Peter Carey and Margaret Atwood the films of Jackie Chan and contemporary Steampunk science fiction Through these readings Elizabeth Ho explores how constructions of popular memory and fictionalisations of the past reflect political and psychological engagements with our contemporary post Imperial circumstances

Reconstructing Identity in Peter Carey's Jack Maggs Susanna Isobella Viljoen, North-West University (South Africa). Potchefstroom Campus, 2007

Refracting the Canon in Contemporary British Literature and Film, 2016-08-09 Contemporary works of art that remodel the canon not only create complex hybrid and plural products but also alter our perceptions and understanding of their source texts This is the dual process referred to in this volume as refraction that the essays collected here set out to discuss and analyse by focusing on the dialectic rapport between postmodernism and the canon What is sought in many of the essays is a redefinition of postmodernist art and a re examination of the canon in the light of contemporary epistemology Given this dual process this volume will be of value both to everyone interested in contemporary art particularly fiction drama and film and also to readers whose aim it is to promote a better appreciation of canonical British literature

Embracing the Other Dunja M. Mohr, 2008 In the wake of addressing multiculturalism transculturalism racism and ethnicity the issue of xenophobia and xenophilia has been somewhat marginalized The present collection seeks from a variety of angles to investigate the relations between Self and Other in the New Literatures in English How do we register differences and what does an embrace signify for both Self and Other The contributors deal with a variety of topics ranging from theoretical reflections on xenophobia its exploration in terms of intertextuality and New Zealand Maori historiography to analyses of migrant and border narratives and issues of transitionality authenticity and racism in Canada and South Africa Others negotiate identity and alterity in Nigerian Malaysian Australian Indian Canadian and Caribbean texts or reflect on diaspora and orientalism in Australian Asian and West Indian contexts      Dickens Adapted John Glavin, 2017-03-02 From their first appearance in print Dickens's fictions immediately migrated into other media and particularly in his own time to the stage Since then Dickens has continuously apparently inexhaustibly functioned as the wellspring for a robust mini industry sourcing plays films television specials and series operas new novels and even miniature and model villages If in his lifetime he was justly called The Inimitable since his death he has become just the reverse the Infinitely Imitable The essays in this volume all appearing within the past twenty years cover the full spectrum of genres Their major shared claim to attention is their break from earlier mimetic criteria does the film follow the novel to take the new works seriously within their own generic and historical contexts Collectively they reveal an entirely other Dickensian oeuvre which ironically has perhaps made Dickens better known to an audience of non readers than to those who know the books themselves      Rewriting the Victorians Andrea Kirchknopf, 2013-05-21 The 19th century has become especially relevant for the present as one can see from for example large scale adaptations of written works as well as the explosion of commodities and even interactive theme parks This book is an introduction to the novelistic refashionings that have come after the Victorian age with a special focus on revisions of Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre and Charles Dickens's Great Expectations As post Victorian research is still in the making the first part is devoted to clarifying terminology and interpretive contexts Two major frameworks for reading post Victorian fiction are developed the literary scene authors readers critics and the national identity political and social aspects Among the works examined are Caryl Phillips's Cambridge Matthew Kneale's English Passengers Peter Carey's Oscar and Lucinda and Jack Maggs Lloyd Jones's Mister Pip Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea D M Thomas's Charlotte and Jasper Fforde's The Eyre Affair      Postcolonial Con-Texts John Thieme, 2002-03-01 In recent years works such as Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea J M Coetzee's Foe and Peter Carey's Jack Maggs which write back to classic English texts have attracted considerable attention as offering a paradigm for the relationship between post colonial writing and the canon Thieme's study provides a broad overview of such writing focusing both on responses to texts that have frequently been associated with the colonial project or the construction of race The Tempest Robinson Crusoe Heart of Darkness and Othello and texts where the interaction between culture and imperialism is slightly less overt Great Expectations Jane Eyre and Wuthering Heights The post colonial con texts examined are located within their particular social and cultural backgrounds with emphasis on the different forms their responses to their pre texts take and the extent to which they create their own discursive space Using Edward Said's models of filiative relationships and affiliative identifications the book argues that writing back is seldom adversarial rather that it operates along a continuum between complicity and oppositionality that dismantles hierarchical positioning It also suggests that post colonial appropriations of canonical pre texts frequently generate re readings of their originals It concludes by considering the implications of this argument for discussions of identity politics and literary genealogies more generally Authors examined include Chinua Achebe Margaret Atwood Kamau Brathwaite Peter Carey J M Coetzee Robertson Davies Wilson Harris Elizabeth Jolley Robert Kroetsch George Lamming Margaret Laurence Pauline Melville V S Naipaul Caryl Phillips Ngugi wa Thiong'o Jean Rhys Salman Rushdie Janet Sears Sam Selvon Olive Senior Jane Urquhart and Derek Walcott      Charles Dickens's Great Expectations Mary

Hammond, 2016-03-03 Great Expectations has had a long active and sometimes surprising life since its first serialized appearance in All the Year Round between 1 December 1860 and 3 August 1861 In this new publishing and reception history Mary Hammond demonstrates that while Dickens's thirteenth novel can tell us a great deal about the dynamic mid Victorian moment into which it was born its afterlife beyond the nineteenth century Anglophone world reveals the full extent of its versatility Re-assessing generations of Dickens scholarship and using newly discovered archival material Hammond covers the formative history of Great Expectations early years analyses the extent and significance of its global reach and explores the ways in which it has functioned as literature and stage TV film and radio drama from its first appearance to the latest film version of 2012 Appendices include contemporary reviews and comprehensive bibliographies of adaptations and translations The book is a rich resource for scholars and students of Dickens of comparative literature and of publishing readership and media history
