Islam Christianity And The West A Troubled History Faith Meets Faith Series:

Islam, Christianity, and the West Rollin Stely Armour, 2002 One of a number of 9 11 volumes that appeared last year Rollin Armour's book has been nearly a decade in the making He takes the World Trade Center bombing in 1993 and its final destruction in 2001 as historical bookends for the material covered His stated goal is to contribute to better mutual understanding between the West and the Islamic world African Traditions Meeting Islam Lawrence Osei, 2018-12-31 In many communities across the world traditional beliefs and practices are passed down generations and are a feature of day to day life despite the influence of outside sources Focusing on Luo Muslims in Kenya Dr Lawrence Osei looks at the interaction of Islam and traditional Luo practices especially those around death and burial Dr Osei's research with Luo Muslims in Kendu Bay investigates the impact of the traditional Luo conceptualization of death with their current views and provides new understanding of fundamental issues that affect the lives of ordinary Muslims From his observation of this community Osei encourages a celebration of traditions and customs showing that an appreciation of traditions and beliefs can help develop ministry to local communities Dr Osei's findings result in a deepened understanding of cultures how they develop from a blend of influences and provides anthropological and missiological guidelines for cross cultural ministry particularly in times of bereavement The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque Sidney H. Griffith, 2012-01-09 Amid so much twenty first century talk of a Christian Muslim divide and the attendant controversy in some Western countries over policies toward minority Muslim communities a historical fact has gone unnoticed for more than four hundred years beginning in the mid seventh century some 50 percent of the world's Christians lived and worshipped under Muslim rule Just who were the Christians in the Arabic speaking milieu of Mohammed and the Qur'an The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque is the first book length discussion in English of the cultural and intellectual life of such Christians indigenous to the Islamic world Sidney Griffith offers an engaging overview of their initial reactions to the religious challenges they faced the development of a new mode of presenting Christian doctrine as liturgical texts in their own languages gave way to Arabic the Christian role in the philosophical life of early Baghdad and the maturing of distinctive Oriental Christian denominations in this context Offering a fuller understanding of the rise of Islam in its early years from the perspective of contemporary non Muslims this book reminds us that there is much to learn from the works of people who seriously engaged Muslims in their own world so long ago Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions The Religious Concordance Joshua Hollmann, 2017-05-01 In The Religious Concordance Nicholas of Cusa and Christian Muslim Dialogue Joshua Hollmann examines Nicholas of Cusa's unique Christocentric approach to Islam While many late medieval Christians responded to the fall of Constantinople with polemic Nicholas of Cusa wrote a peaceful dialogue De pace fidei between Christians and Muslims as synthesis of religious concordance through the person and work of Jesus Christ Nicholas of Cusa's Christ centered dialogue with Muslims sheds further light on his broader Christ centered theology over his entire career as philosopher and theologian Drawing upon Nicholas of Cusa's philosophical foundations for religious dialogue and peace Joshua Hollmann convincingly proves that Cusa constructively understands religious diversity through the concordance of religion as centred in Christ East Meets West in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Times Albrecht Classen, 2013-09-03

This new volume explores the surprisingly intense and complex relationships between East and West during the Middle Ages and the early modern world combining a large number of critical studies representing such diverse fields as literary German French Italian English Spanish and Arabic and other subdisciplines of history religion anthropology and linguistics The differences between Islam and Christianity erected strong barriers separating two global cultures but as this volume indicates despite many attempts to Other the opposing side the premodern world experienced an astonishing degree of contacts meetings exchanges and influences Scientists travelers authors medical researchers chroniclers diplomats and merchants criss crossed the East and the West or studied the sources produced by the other culture for many different reasons As much as the theoretical concept of Orientalism has been useful in sensitizing us to the fundamental tensions and conflicts separating both worlds at least since the eighteenth century the premodern world did not quite yet operate in such an ideological framework Even though the Crusades had violently pitted Christians against Muslims there were countless contacts and a palpable curiosity on both sides both before during and after those religious warfares American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Journal of Theology for Southern Africa ,2003 Islam Claire Woodward, 2002 Islam Background Bibliography Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003 Turkey and the European Union P. Levin, 2011-06-20

This book carefully examines the historical roots of contemporary Western prejudices against both Muslims and Turks and presents an original theory of collective identity as dramatic re enactment as a means of understanding the remarkable persistence of medieval stereotypes
