Anthropology and Alterity Bernhard Leistle, 2016-12-08 Alterity or otherness is a central notion in cultural anthropology and philosophy as well as in other disciplines While anthropology with its aim of understanding cultural difference tends to take otherness as a fact there have been vigorous attempts in contemporary philosophy particularly in phenomenology to answer the fundamental question What is the Other This book brings the two approaches to otherness the hermeneutical pragmatics of anthropology and the radical reflection of philosophy together with the goal of enriching one through the other The philosophy of the German phenomenologist Bernhard Waldenfels up to now little known to anthropologists has a central position in this undertaking Waldenfels s concept of a responsivity to the Other offers to cultural anthropology the possibility of a philosophical engagement with the Other that does not contradict the project of making sense of concrete empirical others The book illustrates the fertility of this new approach to alterity through a broad spectrum of themes ranging from reflections on theory formation via discussions of race and human animal relations to personal meditations on experiences of alterity

Vegetarianism, Meat and Modernity in India Johan Fischer, 2023-04-07 Never before in human history have vegetarianism and a plant based economy been so closely associated with sustainability and the promise of tackling climate change Nowhere is this phenomenon more visible than in India which is home to the largest number of vegetarians globally and where vegetarianism is intrinsic to Hinduism India is often considered a global model for vegetarianism However in this book which is the outcome of eight months of fieldwork conducted among vegetarian and non vegetarian producers traders regulators and consumers I show that the reality in India is quite different with large sections of communities being meat eaters In 2011 vegetarian veg green and nonvegetarian non veg brown labels on all packaged foods drinks were introduced in India Paradoxically this grand scheme was implemented at a time when meat and non vegetarian food production trade and consumption were booming The overarching argument of the book is that a systematic study of the complex and changing relationship between vegetarian and non vegetarian understandings and practices illuminates broader transformations and challenges that relate to markets the state religion politics and identities in India and beyond The book's empirical focus is on the changing relationship between vegetarian non vegetarian as understood practised and contested in middle class India while remaining attentive to the vegetarian non vegetarian modernities that are at the forefront of global sustainability debates Through the application of this approach the book provides a novel theory of human values and markets in a global middle class perspective

Religious Economies in Secular Context Rano Turaeva, Michael Brose, 2023-12-09 This edited collection is one of the few sociological and anthropological studies of Halal markets The chapters inquire into the legal and religious aspects of Halal markets in non Muslim contexts or the countries where the label Halal matters and is not taken for granted as it is the case in most of the Muslim world where it is an accepted norm In many countries Halal has become a type of brand used to market food and cosmetic products This is an effective marketing strategy because it appeals directly to Muslims but also increasingly to non Muslims who seek pure fresh products In this case Halal implies attributes similar to other brands where quality and purity is guaranteed such as Fair Trade Bio or organic in the US and Europe but with the additional appeal to prospective Muslim consumers that it satisfies Islamic norms The book consists of contributions on Halal economies in non Muslim societies dealing with such dilemmas as rational thinking and halal philosophy within various fields of halal economy such as regulation production marketing service delivery and consumption
