

The background of the slide is a photograph of a mosque's exterior. It features a large, golden-brown dome at the top. Below the dome is a band of intricate Arabic calligraphy in gold and blue. The lower part of the image shows the corner of a building with detailed geometric tilework in shades of blue, green, and gold. The sky is a clear, deep blue.

Islamic Philosophy Theology And Mysticism A Short Introduction:

A Short Introduction to Islamic Philosophy, Theology and Mysticism Majid Fakhry, 1997 This fascinating introduction explores the major philosophical theological and mystical concepts that have developed into Islamic philosophy Islamic Philosophy, Theology and Mysticism Majid Fakhry, 2003 Islamic Philosophy, Theology and Mysticism Majid Fakhry, 2000 From the introduction of Greek philosophy into the Muslim world in the eighteenth century to modern times this book charts the evolution and interaction of philosophy theology and mysticism in the Islamic context In a succinct but comprehensive guide the author highlights key individuals movements concepts and writings and explores the conflicts and controversies between anti and pro philosophical parties that have characterised the development of Islamic thought The book also features coverage of the translation of ancient texts and their transmission to the Muslim world the development of systematic philosophy in Islam theology mysticism and the development of sufism Islam's interaction with western philosophy and theology on temporary trends This accessible book should be of interest to students scholars and all those interested in broadening their knowledge of the Islamic tradition Abraham's Dice Karl Giberson, 2016 Most of us believe everything happens for a reason Whether it is God's will karma or fate we want to believe that nothing in the world especially disasters and tragedies is a random meaningless event But now as never before confident scientific assertions that the world embodies a profound contingency are challenging theological claims that God acts providentially in the world The random and meandering path of evolution is widely used as an argument that God did not create life Abraham's Dice explores the interplay between chance and providence in the monotheistic religious traditions looking at how their interaction has been conceptualized as our understanding of the workings of nature has changed This lively historical conversation has generated intense ongoing theological debates and provocative responses from science what are we to make of the history of our universe where chance and law have played out in complex ways Or the evolution of life where random mutations have challenged attempts to find purpose within evolution and convinced many that human beings are but a glorious accident The enduring belief that everything happens for a reason is examined through a conversation with major scholars among them holders of prestigious chairs at Oxford and Cambridge Universities and the University of Basel as well as several Gifford lecturers and two Templeton prize winners Organized historically Abraham's Dice provides a wide ranging scientific theological and biblical foundation to address the question of providence and divine action in a world shot through with contingency The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman, 2015-07-16 Philosophy flourished in the Islamic world for many centuries and continues to be a significant feature of cultural life today Now available in paperback The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy covers all the major and many minor philosophers theologians and mystics who contributed to its development With entries on over 300 thinkers and key concepts in Islamic philosophy this updated landmark work also includes a timeline glossary and detailed bibliography It goes beyond philosophy to reference all kinds of theoretical inquiry which were often linked with philosophy such as the Islamic sciences grammar theology law and traditions Every major school of thought from classical Peripatetic philosophy to Sufi mysticism is represented and entries range across time from the early years of the faith to the modern period Featuring an international group of authors from South East Asia the Indian Subcontinent the Middle East and North Africa Europe and North America The Biographical Encyclopedia of Islamic Philosophy provides access to the ideas and people comprising almost 1400 years of Islamic philosophical tradition All the World Is Awry R. Kevin Lacey,2021-12-01 Free thinking poet grammarian social critic and satirist Ab al Al al Ma arr 973 1057 CE remains one of the more celebrated and intriguing personalities in the history of Arab Islamic civilization Although the controversies surrounding his skepticism cynicism and anticlericalism have never been completely resolved his more disquieting writings are commonly available in the Arab world cited in standard histories of Arabic literature and the subject of scholarly studies Al Ma arr is universally recognized as a giant among the litterateurs of Islam deservedly famous for the role that he played in the development of Arabic verse as a more serious vehicle of religious political thought and social criticism The centrality attributed to al Ma arr as innovator has been linked to a strain of inquiry that has been particularly paramount to Westerners To what extent did al Ma arr and other unconventional thinkers stray from the course of mainstream Islamic thought In this book R Kevin Lacey places al Ma arr within the broader context of Arab Islamic political and intellectual history up to the mid eleventh century and identifies the coherencies and incoherencies within his overall thought in an effort to determine the extent to which he deviated from his inherited faith Al Ma arr and his like were hardly representative and their imprint on their co religionists may be questionable but they must be taken into consideration in order to do full justice to the intellectual history of Islam

Modern Debates on Prophecy and Prophethood in Islam Mahsheed Ansari,2023-07-17 While prophethood is the backbone of the Islamic tradition and an uncompromised tenet of faith the impact of modernity with its ambivalent status afforded to the prophet and institution of prophethood shook many Muslim scholars Through analysis of these modern debates on prophethood in Islam this book situates Muhammad Iqbal s 1877 1938 and Said Nursi s 1877 1960 discourses within it and assesses their implications on the modern period This book introduces the what who and how of the prophets in the Islamic tradition It unveils the rich Islamic literature of both the classical and modern periods and analyses the construction of their philosophies and theologies Concise in both historical and textual analyses this book makes an important contribution to our understanding of contemporary debates on prophecy and prophethood in Islam and will be of great interest to postgraduate students and researchers of Islam religious studies medieval studies and contemporary studies of Islam and religion Ibn Taymiyya's Theological Ethics Sophia Vasalou,2016 This book investigates Ibn Taymiyya s approach to some of the core ethical and theological questions of the classical period of Islam and in doing so sheds new light on his intellectual identity

Dictionary of World Philosophy A. Pablo Iannone,2013-04-15 The Dictionary of World Philosophy covers the diverse and challenging terminology concepts schools and traditions of the vast field of world philosophy Providing an extremely comprehensive resource and an essential point of reference in a complex and expanding field of study the Dictionary covers all major subfields of the discipline Key features Cross references are used to highlight interconnections and the cross cultural diffusion and adaptation of terms which has taken place over time The user is led from specific terms to master entries which provide valuable historical and cultural context Each master entry is followed by at least two suggestions for further reading on the subject creating a substantial bibliography of world philosophy References extend beyond philosophy to related areas such as cognitive science computer science language and physics Subdisciplines covered include aesthetics ethics sociopolitical philosophy the philosophy of law epistemology logic the philosophy of science the philosophy of mind the philosophy of culture and history metaphysics the philosophy of religion Entries are drawn from West Africa Arabic Chinese Indian Japanese Jewish Korean Latin American Maori and Native American philosophy including the important and so far largely neglected instance of Pre Hispanic thought Nahua philosophy An Anthropology of the Qur'an Ahmed Achrati,2021-11-29 This book presents an anthropological study of the Qur an offering an unprecedented challenge to some of the epistemological and metaphysical assumptions of the taw dic discourses Combining primary textual materials and anthropological analysis this book examines transcendence as a core principle of the Qur an uniquely signified in the divine name al Qudd s the Holy It shows how the taw dic representations of Allah constitute an inversion of this attribute examines how this inversion has been conceived authorized and maintained and demonstrates how it has affected Islamic thinking and practices especially as relates to authority This book also explores how a return to the Qur anic primacy of God s otherness as al Qudd s can influence Islamic thinking and practices moving forward Therefore it will be highly useful to scholars of Islamic Studies philosophical theology Qur anic studies political science ethics anthropology and religious studies Ethics in Islam Nuha Al-Shaar,2014-12-05 Offering a new reading of Islamic ethical and political thought in the B yid period 334 440 946 1048 this book focuses particularly on the philosopher Ab Hayy n al Tawh d who lived in Baghdad and what is now western Iran Ethics in Islam provides the first major treatment of al Tawh d s ethics political thought and social idealism investigating the complex influences that shaped this thought and especially his concept of friendship which is analysed in the unique context of B yid society Al Tawh d revives the value of friendship in politics He introduces it as the best way to reform social and political order and as a means to the good life to restrain passion and self interest to bring about cooperation and promote reason and for action in opposition to religious zeal Instead of seeing him as alienated from society supposedly rejecting traditional Muslim beliefs this book places him in his historical and intellectual contexts and shows that while he was original in many ways his outlook was firmly rooted in the Islamic culture in which he was educated Contributing to modern discussions of Islam and political ethics this book is of interest to scholars and researchers of political philosophy comparative ethical thought and Islamic studies Islamic Philosophy Oliver Leaman,2013-05-03

Although Islamic philosophy represents one of the leading philosophical traditions in the world it has only recently begun to receive the attention it deserves in the non Islamic world This important text provides a concise and accessible introduction to the major movements thinkers and concepts within that tradition from the foundation of Islam to the present day Ever since the growth of Islam as a religious and political movement Muslim thinkers have sought to understand the theoretical aspects of their faith by using philosophical concepts Leaman outlines this history and demonstrates that although the development of Islamic philosophy is closely linked with Islam itself its form is not essentially connected to any particular religion and its leading ideas and arguments are of general philosophical significance The author illustrates the importance of Islamic thought within philosophy through the use of many modern examples He describes and contrasts the three main movements in Islamic philosophy Peripatetic Sufi and Illuminationist and examines the Persian as well as the Arabic traditions Wide coverage is given to key aspects of Islamic philosophy including epistemology ontology politics ethics and philosophy of language providing readers with a balanced view of the discipline The second edition has been thoroughly revised and updated throughout including the addition of two new chapters on recent debates surrounding Islam s need for an enlightenment and on the future of Islamic philosophy The new edition of Islamic Philosophy will continue to be essential reading for students and scholars of the subject as well as anyone wanting to learn more about one of the most significant and influential philosophical traditions in the world today

Neither Belief nor Unbelief Sona Grigoryan, 2022-12-19 The book re examines the religious thought and receptions of the Syrian poet Ab l Al al Ma arr d 1057 and one of his best known works Luz m m l yalzam The Self Imposed Unnecessity a collection of poems which although widely studied needs a thorough re evaluation regarding matters of un belief Given the contradictory nature of al Ma arr s oeuvre and Luz m in particular there have been two major trends in assessing al Ma arr s religious thought in modern scholarship One presented al Ma arr as an unbeliever and a freethinker arguing that through contradictions he practiced taq ya i e dissimulation in order to avoid persecution The other often apologetically presented al Ma arr as a sincere Muslim This study proposes that the notion of ambivalence is a more appropriate analytical tool to apply to the reading of Luz m specifically in matters of belief This ambivalence is directly conditioned by the historical and intellectual circumstances al Ma arr lived in and he intentionally left it unsolved and intense as a robust stance against claims of certainty Going beyond reductive interpretations the notion of ambivalence allows for an integrative paradigm in dealing with contradictions and dissonance
