Isle Of Palms Sc Images Of America:

Island in the Storm Jamie W. Moore, Dorothy Perrin Moore, 2006-08-16 Island in the Storm by local historians Jamie and Dorothy Moore documents in vivid detail the devastation loss and eventual rebuilding of this beloved island community On the night of September 21 1989 Hurricane Hugo slammed into the South Carolina coast at Sullivan s Island with winds exceeding 160 miles per hour The colossal force of the hurricane was punctuated by storm surges ranging from five to ten feet above sea level At approximately one minute after midnight Hugo s eye passed over the island and the charming community seaside community disappeared beneath the tumultuous sea for nearly an hour After Hugo left Sullivan s Island in its furious wake the first news broadcasts from the Charleston area reported that the island and neighboring Isle of Palms were completely destroyed The Ben Sawyer Bridge the only connection to the island at the time was knocked off its pedestal and rendered useless and so the hundreds of families who had evacuated the area could not return to their homes to see what if anything remained The recovery process started slowly and for many it would be a long arduous journey More than 15 years later Sullivan s Island s homes and businesses have been restored but the memory of Hugo s fury will not soon be forgotten

Port Royal Wendy Nilsen Pollitzer, 2006 Port Royal was chartered in 1874 when the Port Royal Railroad was completed The town built a port that attracted the largest ships from all over the world mainly because of the natural depth of the harbor A coaling station and dry dock built at the Port Royal Navy Yard boosted port activity but by the end of the 1920s the town was economically devastated The shrimping and crabbing industries as well as the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at nearby Parris Island were the town s salvation and in 1958 the State Ports Authority built a terminal that reactivated the port The town experienced a redevelopment boom in the mid 1990s and is poised for another transformation Gov Mark Sanford signed legislation in 2004 to sell the port to developers as agreed upon by the state and the town After years of an idle economy Port Royal s fiscal fate looks promising
