House. Banking and Currency Committee,1956 Oversight Hearing to Examine the Impact of FIRREA on the Federal Home Loan Bank System United States. Congress. House. Committee on Banking, Finance, and Urban Affairs. Subcommittee on General Oversight and Investigations,1990 What Answer? Anna E. Dickinson,2019-12-09 In What Answer Anna E Dickinson presents a compelling exploration of moral and social issues in post Civil War America through a series of thought provoking essays Dickinson's literary style is characterized by its eloquent rhetoric and passionate advocacy for social reform particularly concerning women's rights and the abolition of slavery Her writing is deeply contextualized within the prevailing sentiments of the time reflecting a society grappling with the ramifications of war and a quest for justice Through articulated arguments and introspective reflections Dickinson seeks to challenge her contemporaries to respond to the pressing ethical dilemmas of their day Anna E Dickinson a prominent speaker and writer emerged as a notable voice in the women's suffrage movement and the broader social reform landscape of the late 19th century Growing up in a Quaker family that championed equality Dickinson's own experiences of injustice fueled her advocacy She was one of the first women to rise to prominence as a public lecturer often addressing audiences on the virtues of freedom morality and civic responsibility I highly recommend What Answer to readers interested in the intersections of literature social justice and women's rights Dickinson's unapologetic call to action not only reflects her prowess as a writer but also serves as an essential text for understanding the evolving dialogue on social ethics in American history Russian Music at Home and Abroad Richard Taruskin,2016-09-06 This new collection views Russian music through the Greek triad of the Good the True and the Beautiful to investigate how the idea of nation embeds itself in the public discourse about music and other arts with results at times invigorating at times corrupting In our divided post Cold War and now post 9 11 world Russian music formerly a quiet corner on the margins of musicology has become a site of noisy contention Richard Taruskin assesses the political and cultural stakes that attach to it in the era of Pussy Riot and renewed international tensions before turning to individual cases from the nineteenth century to the present Much of the volume is devoted to the resolutely cosmopolitan but inveterately Russian Igor Stravinsky one of the major forces in the music of the twentieth century and subject of particular interest to composers and music theorists all over the world Taruskin here revisits him for the first time since the 1990s when everything changed for Russia and its cultural products Other essays are devoted to the cultural and social policies of the Soviet Union and their effect on the music produced there as those policies swung away from Communist internationalism to traditional Russian nationalism to the musicians of the Russian postrevolutionary diaspora and to the tension between the compelling artistic quality of works such as Stravinsky's Sacre du Printemps or Prokofiev's

Zdravitsa and the antihumanistic or totalitarian messages they convey Russian Music at Home and Abroad addresses these concerns in a personal and critical way characteristically demonstrating Taruskin's authority and ability to bring living history out of the shadows

Wild Mustard Charles Waugh, Lien Nguyen, Van Giá, 2017-04-15 Wild Mustard an anthology of prizewinning short fiction by contemporary Vietnamese writers throws into relief the transformations of self and place that followed Vietnam's turn toward a market economy In just three decades since the 1986 policy known as doi moi renovation ended collectivization and integrated Vietnam into world markets the country has transformed from one of the poorest and most isolated on earth into a dynamic global economy The nineteen stories in this volume capture the kaleidoscopic experiences of Vietnam's youth navigating between home and newly expanded horizons as they seek new opportunities through migration education and integration not only into their nation but into the world In the tradition of the Under 40 collections popularized by magazines such as the New Yorker and Granta but with greater stakes and greater differences between the previous generation of writers and this new one Wild Mustard seeks to change how North American readers think of Vietnam Escaping the common fixation on the Vietnam War and its aftermath these stories reflect the movement and dynamism of the young Vietnamese who locate themselves amid the transnational encounters and proliferating identities of a global economy
