Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2020-12-08 Italian cinema is now regarded as one of the great cinemas of the world Historically however its fortunes have varied Following a brief moment of glory in the early silent era Italian cinema appeared to descend almost into irrelevance in the early 1920s A strong revival of the industry which gathered pace during the 1930s was abruptly truncated by the advent of World War II The end of the war however initiated a renewal as films such as Roma città aperta Rome Open City Sciusci Shoeshine 1946 and Ladri di biciclette Bicycle Thieves 1948 flagbearers of what soon came to be known as Neorealism attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation that only continued to grow in the following years as Italian films were feted worldwide Ironically they were celebrated nowhere more than in the United States where Italian films consistently garnered the lion's share of the Oscars with Lina Wertmüller becoming the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on major movements directors actors actresses film genres producers industry organizations and key films This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Italian Cinema

A Grammar of Cinepoiesis Silvia Carolosi, 2015-09-17 Cinepoiesis or cinema of poetry strikes us as a strange combination a phrase we initially read as an oxymoron Poetry is often associated with the abstract and the evocative while cinema suggests the concrete and the visible Yet various visual media use strong and often contradictory images whose symbolic force and visual impact stimulate the public's attention Abstract and emblematic images surround us and the poetic nature of these images lies in the way they speak beyond their apparent limits and stimulate connections on a subjective level A prosaic world like the contemporary one though no longer seems to hold a place for poetry We are inundated by the need to tell and to be told the need to build our lives through narratives But it is precisely here in this contemporary landscape that the cinema of poetry attempts to establish a space for itself exchanging the productive and industrial apparatus for the poetic stimulus of a sensory experience A Grammar of Cinepoiesis is a theoretical and practical guide to the cinema of poetry to its tools and forms It examines how the language of a cinema of poetry works both in its theoretical foundations and in its modes of representation and how it takes shape in the exemplary practice of Italian authors such as Pier Paolo Pasolini Michelangelo Antonioni Federico Fellini and the more recent Franco Piavoli and Matteo Garrone

The Cinema of Federico Fellini Peter Bondanella, 2021-01-12 This major artistic biography of Federico Fellini shows how his exuberant imagination has been shaped by popular culture literature and his encounter with the ideas of C G Jung especially Jungian dream interpretation Covering Fellini's entire career the book links his mature accomplishments to his first employment as a cartoonist gagman and sketch artist during the Fascist era and his development as a leading neo realist scriptwriter Peter Bondanella thoroughly explores key Fellinian themes to reveal the director's growth not only as an artistic master of the visual image but also as an astute interpreter of culture and politics Throughout the book Bondanella draws on a new archive of several dozen manuscripts obtained from Fellini and his scriptwriters These previously unexamined documents allow a comprehensive treatment of Fellini's important part in the rise of Italian neorealism and the even more decisive role that he played in the evolution of Italian cinema beyond neorealism in the 1950s By probing Fellini's recurring themes Bondanella reinterprets the visual qualities of the director's body of work and also discloses in the films a critical and intellectual vitality often hidden by Fellini's reputation as a storyteller and entertainer After two chapters on Fellini's precinematic career the book covers all the films to date in analytical chapters arranged by topic Fellini and his growth beyond his neorealist apprenticeship dreams and metacinema literature and cinema Fellini and politics Fellini and the image of women and La voce della luna and the cinema of poetry

Strada, La Federico Fellini, Peter Bondanella, Manuela Gieri, 1987 According to the American Film Institute La Strada is one of the most popular films in cinema history The performances of Giulietta Masina as the waif Gelsomina Richard Basehart as the Fool and Anthony Quinn as the strongman Zampano who buys Gelsomina from her mother and takes her with him on the road have been acclaimed for their power and sometimes ridiculed for their sentimentality The debates over what these characters and the story they enact represent a Christian parable a journey of self discovery a tale of beauty and the beast and the position of the film within the neo realist genre continue today This new translation and critical edition of the continuity script for La Strada is the only accurate guide to the film in any language The notes to the shooting script enable the reader to reconstruct some of Fellini s changes while shooting the film The edition also contains an introduction which analyzes the work s place in film history and within the so called crisis of neo realism and provides for the first time in English a number of articles on the film s production Fellini s most important interviews and statements on La Strada are included as well Finally two of the best critical analyses of the film by Frank Burke and Peter Harcourt are reprinted along with a number of the contemporary reactions by critics from France Andre Bazin Italy Guido Aristarco and the United States including a description of its reception at the Venice Film Festival The illustrations include some of Fellini s original drawings made during the shooting of the film

Cottino-Jones,2010-02-15 Women Desire and Power in Italian Cinema offers for the first time in Italian Cinema criticism a contextual study of the representation of women in twentieth century Italian films Marga Cottino Jones argues that the ways women are depicted on screen reflects a subconscious sexual conservatism typical of an Italian society rooted within a patriarchal ideology The book then follows the slow but constant process of social awareness in the Italian society through women in film especially after the 1950s Comprehensive in scope this book analyzes the films of internationally known male and female directors such as Antonioni Fellini Rossellini Visconti Bertolucci Benigni Cavani Wertmuller Comencini and Archibugi Special consideration is given to the actresses and actors that have become the icons of Italian femininity and masculinity such as Sofia Loren Gina Lollobrigida Silvana Mangano Gian Carlo Giannini Marcello Mastroianni and Alberto Sordi
