J.M.W. Turner David Blayney Brown, Amy Concannon, Sam Smiles, 2014      The EY Exhibition Tate Britain (Gallery), 2014 When Turner died in 1851 the general view of an artist's late work was one of decline Indeed Turner's own painting from 1845 onwards was described as indulgent eccentric and repulsive and even his devoted champion John Ruskin commented on its wholly inferior value However from the early 1900s there was a major reassessment of Turner's later paintings and sketches Commentators hailed his study of light as a visionary precursor to the ideas of the Impressionists This continued into the twentieth century with curatorial choices in some museums presenting Turner's late and unfinished work as distinctly modern Through a number of key themes and studies into his subject matter technique and personal activities this new analysis challenges the historical conceptions of Turner's late style The idea that as an elderly artist Turner was seen as introverted and detached by the Victorian art world is set against the fact that his paintings from 1835 were some of the most popular accessible and intellectual that he created Meanwhile questioning the notion that Turner's late work articulated a conclusive radical vision that was heedless of public reaction the texts explore how Turner had a very firm idea of the workings of the art market at that time Fully illustrated in colour and with contributions by some of the foremost Turner scholars this book breaks new ground in the continuing study of the life and legacy of one of art's greatest masters      Late Turner Joseph Mallord William Turner, 2014      Creativity in Later Life David Amigoni, Gordon McMullan, 2018-12-07 This collection begins with two premises that our understanding of the nature and forms of creativity in later life remains limited and that dialogue between specialists in gerontology the arts and humanities can produce the crucial new insights that are so obviously needed Representing the outcome of ongoing dialogue across the disciplinary divide the contributions of this volume reflect anew on what we share and how we differ creating new narratives so as to build an understanding of late life creativity that goes far beyond the narrow confines of the pervasively received idea of late style Creativity in Later Life encompasses a range of personal reflections and discussions of the boundaries of creativity including Canonical artistic achievements to community art projects Narratives of carers for those living with dementia Analyses of creative theory Through these insightful chapters the authors consequently offer an understanding of creativity in later life as varied socialised and above all located in the cultural and economic circumstances of the here and now This title will appeal to academics practitioners and students in the various gerontological arts and humanities fields and to anyone with an interest in the nature of creativity in later life and the forms it takes      "Turner's Whaling Pictures" The Metropolitan Museum of Art Bulletin, v. 73, no. 4 (Spring, 2016) Alison Hokanson, 2016-05-02 This Bulletin centers around Turner's depictions of whaling and seascapes These expressive paintings created when the artist was in his seventies exemplify the boldly inventive style of Turner's later years The Bulletin explores Turner's interest in images of whaling considers the connections to Herman Melville's Moby Dick and discusses the enduring appeal of these evocative marine

Hampstead cloud studies Turner his Venetian watercolors and oils Seeking the transcendent aesthetic awe of the sublime and reeling from their personal anguish these talented painters portrayed the terrible beauty of the natural world from an intimate close up perspective Plumly studies the paintings against the pull of the artists lives probing how each finds the sublime in different though inherently connected worlds At once a meditation on the difficulties in achieving truly immortal works of art and an exploration of the relationship between artist and artwork Elegy Landscapes takes a wide angle look at the philosophy of the sublime

Winter Light Douglas J. Penick, 2025-02-28 In the contemporary West the elderly are regarded as somehow other no longer who they used to be no longer full members of the worlds they once inhabited Being old is seen as a medical management issue But old age is not a defective version of what preceded it it is like childhood adolescence and middle age its own time of life with its own challenges and gifts It is an unexpected experience and largely unknown terrain Winter Light On Late Life s Radiance is an exploration of old age as a time when sudden and uncontrollable losses reveal and clarify patterns of existence formerly obscured In this context Penick tells of the lives of artists musicians and others who in old age changed radically through visionary modes of experience that otherwise would not have been possible Near the end of their lives Titian Michelangelo Beethoven Rabindranath Tagore Jean Rhys Andrea Palladio Paul C zanne Leo Jan ek Igor Stravinsky and others found unforeseen paths and articulated subtleties and beauties never before encountered Their visions are now woven into our culture and the stories of their lives are signposts for us As Thoreau once said Not til we are lost not til we have lost the world do we begin to find ourselves and realize where we are and the infinite extent of our relations In five essays concerned respectively with body connection pattern loss and vision Winter Light explores irretrievable losses and dawning possibilities Penick gives voice to aspects of the inner life that in old age unfold with unanticipated depth breadth strangeness and light

The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Patrick Beldio, 2024-12-15 The Mother of the Sri Aurobindo Ashram Co Creator of the Integral Yoga analyzes the contributions of the Mother n e Mirra Alfassa 1878 1973 to the Integral Yoga that she and Sri Aurobindo n Aurobindo Ghose 1872 1950 co created for his ashram Scholars have ignored Mirra for Aurobindo which prevents a full understanding of their spiritual practice Scholars have also avoided examining work Aurobindo produced after they began their partnership in 1920 until his death in 1950 and privileged the written output in his journal Arya from 1914 to 1921 In this initial fertile period he put forth his innovative teaching about what he called the Supermind an emergent human faculty that he said would manifest a new humanity and a new earth through Mirra s body Mirra claimed that after his death in 1956 this manifestation happened as he foretold Mirra s work in the ashram from his death until hers in 1973 reveals important ways that she both fulfilled and changed Aurobindo s initial vision These developments are chiefly based on her experiences of mental dissolution while her body gained a new supramental form and consciousness

Coastal Works Nicholas Allen, Nick Groom, Jos Smith, 2017-06-23 In all the complex cultural history of the islands of Britain and Ireland the idea of the coast as a significant representative space is critical For many important artists coastal space has figured as a site from which to braid ideas of empire nation region and archipelago They have been drawn to the coast as a zone of geographical uncertainty in which the self definitions of the nation founder they have been drawn to it as a peripheral space of vestigial wildness of island retreats and experimental living as a network of diverse localities richly endowed with distinctive forms of cultural heritage and as a dynamically interconnected ecosystem which is at the same time the historic site of significant developments in fieldwork and natural science This collection situates these cultures of the Atlantic edge in a series of essays that create new contexts for coastal study in literary history and criticism The contributors frame their research in response to emerging conversations in archipelagic criticism the blue humanities and island studies the essays challenging the reader to reconsider ideas of margin periphery and exchange These twelve case studies establish the coast as a crucial location in the imaginative history of Britain Ireland and the north Atlantic edge Coastal Works will appeal to readers of literature and history with an interest in the sea the environment and the archipelago from the 18th century to the present Accessible innovative and provocative Coastal Works establishes the important role that the coast plays in our cultural imaginary and suggests a range of methodologies to represent relationships between land sea and cultural work Turner and the Whale Jason Edwards,2017-10-19 This is the guide to the exhibition Turner and the Whale at the Hull Maritime Museum in Autumn 2017 which brings together for the first time in the UK 3 of the 4 whaling pictures Turner was at work on in 1845 1846 As part of the city of Hull s year as the UK Capital of Culture the exhibition guide will bring the Turner whaling pictures into context with key parts of the Hull collections including natural historical specimens whaler carvings and Inuit art Unfinished Kelly Baum,Andrea Bayer,Sheena Wagstaff,2016-03-01 This groundbreaking book explores the evolving concept of unfinishedness as essential to understanding art movements from the Renaissance to the present day Unfinished features more than 200 works created in a variety of media by artists ranging from Leonardo Titian Rembrandt Turner and C zanne to Picasso Warhol Twombly Freud Richter and Nauman What unites these works across centuries and media is that each one displays some aspect of being unfinished Essays and case studies by major contemporary scholars address this key concept from the perspective of both the creator and the viewer probing the impact that this long artistic trajectory which can be traced back to the first century has had on modern and contemporary art The book investigates the degrees to which instances of incompleteness were accidental or intentional experimental or conceptual Also included are illuminating interviews with contemporary artists including Tuymans Celmins and Marden and parallel considerations of the unfinished in literature and film The result is a multidisciplinary approach and thought provoking analysis that provide valuable insight into the making meaning and critical reception of the unfinished in art Exhibitionist Richard Dorment,2016-08-22 100 sumptuously produced essays by Britain s leading art critic US born Richard Dorment They cover exhibitions of historic and contemporary art world wide interpreting and critiquing many of the most important shows of the last 30 years They offer in a highly accessible form the fundamental elements of a history of art and a beguiling review of recent cultural trends Old Age in Art Larry Silver, 2025-05-13 A sweeping history of aging in European art across centuries Old Age in Art shows how elders have been depicted from ancient Greece and Rome to the present century The book explores portraits including self portraits and stories of older figures in religion myth and history focusing on the theme of wisdom versus folly Larry Silver also discusses the concept of old age within the Middle Ages and early modern periods The final chapter examines how renowned artists like Michelangelo Titian and Monet turned to experimental forms and new subjects in their later years This book provides a comprehensive overview of old age in European art history Late Style and its Discontents Gordon McMullan, Sam Smiles, 2016-09-01 Late style is a critical term routinely deployed to characterise the work of selected authors composers and creative artists as they enter their last phase of production often but not only in old age Taken at face value this terminology merely points to a chronological division in the artist's oeuvre late being the antonym of early or the third term in the triad early middle late However almost from its inception the idea of late style or late work has been freighted with aesthetic associations and expectations that promote it as a special episode in the artist's creative life Late style is often characterised as the imaginative response made by exceptional talents to the imminence of their death In their confrontation with death creative artists critics claim produce work that is by turns a determination to continue while strength remains a summation of their life's work and a radical vision of the essence of their craft And because this creative phenomenon is understood as primarily an existential response to a common fate so late style is understood as something that transcends the particularities of place time and medium Critics seeking to understand late work regularly invoke the examples of Titian Goethe and Beethoven as exemplars of what constitutes late work proposing that something unites the late style of authors composers and creative artists who otherwise would not be bracketed together and that lateness per se is a special order of creative work The essays in this collection resist this position Ranging across literature the visual arts music and scientific work the material assembled here looks closely at the material biographical and other contexts in which the work was produced and seeks both to question the assumptions surrounding late style and to prompt a more critical understanding of the last works of writers artists and composers Turner and Constable Nicola Moorby, 2025-03-11 Born just fourteen months apart one in London and the other in rural Suffolk J M W Turner and John Constable went on to change the face of British art The two men have routinely been seen as polar opposites not least by their peers Differing in temperament background beliefs and vision they created images as dissimilar as their personalities Yet in many ways they were fellow travellers As children of the late 18th century both faced the same challenges and opportunities Above all they shared common cause as champions of a distinctively British art Through their work they fought for the recognition and appreciation of landscape painting and in doing so ensured their reputations were forever intertwined and interlinked Nicola Moorby offers us a fresh perspective on two extraordinary artists uncovering the layers of fiction that have embellished and disguised their greatest achievements For Turner it is also the story of the triumph of landscape painting      Great Art Explained James Payne,2025-10-14 Art appreciation made accessible relevant and entertaining writer curator and YouTube sensation James Payne demystifies great works of art James Payne s YouTube Channel Great Art Explained gained a huge and appreciative worldwide audience This beautifully put together book is simply the best introduction to the lifelong pleasure and rewards of looking at pictures since Gombrich An instant classic Stephen Fry Based on the popular and enormously successful YouTube channel of the same name Great Art Explained unveils the fascinating stories behind some of the world s most iconic paintings and sculptures proving that there s more to art than just watching paint dry Art can be thrilling and resonate on a deep personal level It is how you view the work place it in context and understand its history that makes an artwork truly come alive A fresh approach to a classic subject James Payne s no nonsense analysis sheds new light on 30 masterpieces from around the globe and reveals what makes them truly timeless works of art Each chapter delves into not only the art itself but also the artist s life as well as the work s place in their wider oeuvre in other words what makes it great From Hilma af Klint s occult altarpieces to Claude Monet s Water Lilies Botticelli s The Birth of Venus to Georgia O Keeffe s Jimson Weed each artwork is explored with clarity and passion Whether a seasoned art enthusiast or a curious newcomer this book promises to deepen your appreciation and enrich your understanding of some of the world s greatest treasures      The Introspective Art of Mark Twain Douglas Anderson,2017-04-20 A new reading of the major themes and concerns of Mark Twain s life and work tracing the development of his imagination from his earliest works in 1865 to his writings in the early twentieth century
