Intellectual Property And Development Theory And Practice:

Intellectual Property and Development Rami M. Olwan, 2013-03-15 The book examines the correlation between Intellectual Property Law notably copyright on the one hand and social and economic development on the other The main focus of the initial overview is on historical legal economic and cultural aspects Building on that the work subsequently investigates how intellectual property systems have to be designed in order to foster social and economic growth in developing countries and puts forward theoretical and practical solutions that should be considered and implemented by policy makers legal experts and the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO

Intellectual Property Theory and Practice Wenwei Guan, 2014-07-03 This book explains China's intellectual property perspective in the context of European theories through a critical examination of intellectual property theory and practice focused on China's compliance with the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS The author's critical review of contemporary intellectual property philosophy suggests that justifying intellectual property protection through Locke or Hegel's property theories internalizes a theoretical paradox Professor Wenwei Guan's treatment of intellectual property law and practice in the PRC offers new perspectives that enrich an already active field of study This book will be a useful contribution to academic and policy discourses examining conceptual and operational dimensions of China's intellectual property protection system and the broader process of China's international engagement Dr Pitman B Potter Professor of Law University of British Columbia Canada Dr Guan reminds us of the daunting challenge of the public private divide in forming and reforming TRIPS regime how this regime has failed to address development needs and public concerns in developing countries like China and how TRIPS's birth defect can be overcome and its evolution can be put back on the right track Dr Yahong Li Associate Professor at Faculty of Law Hong Kong University
