Social Advantage and Disadvantage Hartley Dean, Lucinda Platt, 2016-01-22 Social advantage and disadvantage are potent catch-all terms. They have no established definition but considered in relation to one another they can embrace a wide variety of more specific concepts that address the ways in which human society causes, exacerbates or fails to prevent social divisions or injustices. This book captures the sense in which any conceptualisation of disadvantage is concerned with the consequences of processes by which relative advantage has been selectively conferred or attained. It considers how inequalities and social divisions are created as much by the concentration of advantage among the best off as by the systematic disadvantage of the worst off. The book critically discusses from a global and a UK perspective a spectrum of conceptual frameworks and ideas relating to poverty, social exclusion, capability deprivation, rights violations, social immobility and human or social capital deficiency. It addresses advantage and disadvantage from a life course perspective through discussions of family and childhood, education, work, old age and the dynamics of income and wealth. It considers cross-cutting divides that are implicated in the social construction and maintenance of advantage and disadvantage, including divisions premised on gender, race, ethnicity, migration and religion, neighbourhood and the experience of crime. Handbook of

Mind the Backlash: Gender Discrimination and Sexism in Contemporary Societies Hilde Coffe, Susan Banducci, Marta Fraile, Jessica Fortin-Rittberger, Amy Alexander, 2023-09-26 Decades of campaigns and policy efforts have brought significant progress in women's economic and political status and pushed gender equality up the global policy agenda The goal of gender equality however still remains largely out of reach as illustrated by the recent wave of women's protests against sexual harassment assault and gender violence e.g. MeToo movement Some European countries e.g. Poland Hungary and Lithuania have even seen their performance on gender equality backslide in recent years and in parallel to calls for increased equality a wave of mobilisation against gender equality has appeared in the public discourse Conservative authoritarian and populist voices in many democracies are now contesting the equal participation of men and women in society under the auspices of a war on gender ideology This backlash against women's empowerment carries considerable implications for anti discrimination laws policies protecting women against domestic violence reproductive health and the establishment of gender quotas Given the backlash against gender observed in various countries around the globe we argue that now is a critical time to revisit and broaden our knowledge about gender discrimination gender equality and sexism Our proposed Research Topic will provide a gender perspective to illustrate and understand the recent illiberal turn in politics in a variety of contexts Taking a comparative approach we aim at improving our understanding of how sexism discrimination and gender equality operate at the societal level and how they shape broader social and political views At the individual level we will study the current seemingly opposing forces for and against gender equality by analysing the antecedents predispositions experiences and motivations explaining and underpinning these attitudes towards different ways of gender equality sexism and discrimination
