Agu,2012-03-29 In spite of everything he's gone through in his young life Desmond has never caught himself thinking defeating thoughts before. He has always been tough and hard core but when he came in contact with Cherryl she awoke tender emotion in him that caused the hardness he is made of to evaporate. He desired her with a selfish hunger but Cherryl wanted him for good. He thought he wasn't good enough for her. However when he reached a breaking point he had no option than to let go. It is not always dark, darkness surely gives way to light once light is introduced. Weeping indeed endures for the night but Joy comes with the limelight of the morning. Cherryl brought light to Desmond and this book can bring you the light you so much desire. Why is everybody and everything against him? Why didn't he die at child birth or even in the operating room during those unsuccessful surgeries? Why is he not like the other of his mates? Why is everybody wicked and callous? Why is there no kind person around in the whole world? These and other series of questions bothered him so much that he refused to go to class for the night prep that evening rather he laid down on his bed and wept himself to sleep. Who said a blind man can't dream? Who said a handicapped can't have vision and pursue it with vigour? Desmond refused to be tagged invalid or handicapped. He knew he was headed somewhere and he sure wasn't going to allow anyone define him with his disability. He may be disabled in one way but he sure has lots of abilities so he was not going to let the disability over ride all the abilities he is bestowed with. He knew that with memories yesterday still lives so what he did was to brush those memories aside and set before him the dreams, hopes and aspirations of tomorrow. He knew his tomorrow will be far better than his today if he worked hard and worked right. Desmond wants to distinguish himself just like the eagle he wants to be exceptionally different from his mates though they are all in the same school and class but he has his eyes focused somewhere and none is strong enough to stop him except himself. As they carried him out he prayed and hoped that someone will see them or even the house master that sent for him but alas none was insight it was as if they had bribed everyone in the school premises. They carried him out to only God knows where and when they got to their destination they told him they weren't there for jokes he should tell them where that money was or they will kill him. Desmond was shocked beyond words all these for the four thousand dollars he won as award. These were not students so how did they get to know about the money? Blind bat. One of the guys roared where is the damn cash? Desmond didn't want to appear frightened to them so he kept mute trying to gain composure. Desmond scampered to the direction he heard the dog's shrill cry. Brownie oh Brownie please don't die. As he took some steps further he stumbled over a log and fell down he tried getting up but couldn't he has broken an ankle. Tears of anguish and pain streamed down his face he sat there weeping he felt the grasses rustle around him. Brownie whimpered to his side still shaken from the whole episode. Meanwhile exams has begun since yesterday and funny enough no teacher has asked of Desmond What is really going on could it be that Desmond has left school for now But why didn t he tell either Roland or Daniel These two have been quite close to him in the recent time Thank you Sir Roland said we came to report to you that we haven t seen Desmond around for the past three days and exams has started To make matters worse Sir Daniel joined in no teacher has ever asked of him during the exams so we decided to come to you Sir to report he concluded The Principal sent the security men to go fetch Mr Lambert they came back with the shocking news that he was found stabbed to death in his bathroom Desmond was hospitaliz
