Sheltered from the Swastika Peter Kory, 2014-01-10 In the short span of 17 years the first 17 years of his life he was known as Peter Korytowski Pierre Engglenger and Pierre Boivin depending on who was hunting him at the time Nine years old and his world had collapsed It was 1940 and Hitler had unleashed the Blitzkrieg bombs were exploding all around him changing everything This moment of terror catapulted him into an epic nine year adventure during the Second World War He was forced to abandon his home his family and his childhood Like a bad dream from which he could not awake he began an alternate existence that of a refugee prey for the Nazis part of old French nobility a resistance participant and a rebellious orphan But most of all he learned how to be a survivor

Memoirs of a Failure Tom Jennings, 2022-05-04 Memoirs of a Failure is like no other Hollywood memoir It is the autobiography of a Hollywood agent and former casting director Tom Jennings whose personal demons provide a cautionary tale about the pitfalls of hubris and how to stay out of them After the University of Illinois Jennings moved to LA and two years later became a top casting director first at Universal and then at Warner Brothers Always fast out of the gate He was then talked into starting a talent agency with Walter Beakel which they parlayed into some early success and became one of the top boutique agencies in Hollywood with a partner in London At its peak Beakel and Jennings represented stars on The Dukes of Hazard Charlie's Angels Happy Days and many more series writers such as Irving Stone and Taylor Caldwell musicians Burl Ives and Gene Simmons DJ Rick Dees athletes Dick Butkus and Bubba Smith and comedians Foster Brooks Henny Youngman and Buddy Hackett as well as future super star Julian Fellowes Uber agent status was next A bright star appeared on the horizon Or was that a nuclear explosion Explosion it was Alcohol fueled business deals unraveled at an alarming rate The Hobbit Bat Man The Blues Brothers Red Star Over China Norton and Ali King Tut Blitz Dracula and several others fell through the cracks and became missed opportunities later championed by others The movers and shakers of the time would have made them happen Beakel and Jennings had them first but were too busy figuring things out over cocktails at The Rangoon Racket Club or The Polo Lounge Worst of all was the chronic illness of his youngest son Hugo who developed epilepsy which changed his life completely as well as his Dad's. In 1969 Jennings was on the fast track. In 1993 he was by himself living in his brother's fourteen foot duck hunting trailer. What went wrong? This book answers that question.

Play Among Books Miro Roman, Alice Ch3n81, 2021-12-06

How does coding change the way we think about architecture? This question opens up an important research perspective. In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information. They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books. Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation, the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science.

The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012

This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century. Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries, it offers students, researchers, and the general public a reliable up-to-date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture.

Designing a World-Class Architecture Firm Patrick MacLeamy, 2020-03-13

Offers architects and creative services professionals exclusive insights and strategies for success from the former CEO of HOK. Designing a World Class Architecture Firm: The People, Stories, and Strategies Behind HOK tells the history of one of the largest design firms in the world and draws lessons from it that can help other architects, interior designers, urban planners, and creative services professionals grow bigger or better. Former HOK CEO Patrick MacLeamy shares the revolutionary strategies HOK's founders deployed to create a brand new type of architecture firm. He pulls no punches, revealing the triple crisis that almost bankrupted HOK and describes how any firm can survive and thrive. Designing a World Class Architecture Firm tells the inside story of many of HOK's most iconic buildings, including the National Air and Space Museum, Moscone Convention Center, Oriole Park at Camden Yards, the Houston Galleria, and the reimagined LaGuardia Airport. Each chapter conveys lessons learned from HOK's successes and failures, including:

- The importance of diversifying to depression and recession-proof your firm.
- The benefit of organizing your firm around specialized leaders and project types.
- The difference between leading and managing your people.
- The value of simple financial metrics to ensure your firm's health and profitability.
- The run-toward-trouble strategy which prevents problems from ballooning.

MacLeamy delivers his advice via inspirational stories such as how HOK survived when its home office in St. Louis went up in flames, and humorous stories like the time an HOK executive was mistaken for royalty on a trip to Saudi Arabia. In this tell-all guide, the driven architecture or design professional will find the tools needed to evolve or grow.

Reconstructing History in Twentieth-Century German Architecture Alexander Luckmann, Volker M. Welter, 2025-02-11 The battle in architecture between the internationalist voices of modernism and the localized resistance which favored traditional technologies and regional precedents reflected in microcosm the violent and complex histories of twentieth century Germany The chapters in this book span the years from 1902 to 1991 and interrogate the ways in which architecture constructed and reconstructed these histories with a primary focus on those voices that were opposed to the dogmas of modernism All translated into English for the first time the chapters reflect the changing eras and contours of the German nation They were written in the German Empire 1871 1918 the Weimar Republic 1918 1933 the Third Reich 1933 1945 the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic GDR which both existed from 1949 to 1990 and finally the reunified Germany that came into being in 1990 when the former GDR and the reunified Berlin joined the Federal Republic of Germany The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Art in Translation

Westminster Part II: The Art, Architecture and Archaeology of the Royal Palace Warwick Rodwell, Tim Tatton-Brown, 2020-04-27 Westminster came into existence in the later Anglo Saxon period and by the mid 11th century when Edward the Confessor's great new abbey was built it was a major royal centre two miles south west of the City of London Within a century or so it had become the principal seat of government in England and this series of twenty eight papers covers new research on the topography buildings art history architecture and archaeology of Westminster's two great establishments Abbey and Palace Part I begins with studies of the topography of the area an account of its Roman period finds and an historiographical overview of the archaeology of the Abbey Edward the Confessor's enigmatic church plan is discussed and the evidence for later Romanesque structures is assembled for the first time Five papers examine aspects of Henry III's vast new Abbey church and its decoration A further four cover aspects of the later medieval period coronation and Sir George Gilbert Scott's impact as the Abbey's greatest Surveyor of the Fabric A pair of papers examines the development of the northern precinct of the Abbey around St Margaret's Church and the remarkable buildings of Westminster School created within the remains of the monastery in the 17th and 18th centuries Part II part deals with the Palace of Westminster and its wider topography between the late 11th century and the devastating fire of 1834 that largely destroyed the medieval palace William Rufus's enormous hall and its famous roofs are completely reassessed and comparisons discussed between this structure and the great hall at Caen Other essays reconsider Henry III's palace St Stephen's chapel the king's great chamber the Painted Chamber and the enigmatic Jewel Tower The final papers examine the meeting places of Parliament and the living accommodation of the MPs who attended it the topography of the Palace between the Reformation and the fire of 1834 and the building of the New Palace which is better known today as the Houses of Parliament

The Publishers Weekly, 1927 Culture, Philanthropy and the Poor in Late-Victorian London Geoffrey A. C. Ginn, 2017-04-21 2018 Choice Outstanding Academic Title The Late Victorian cultural mission to London's slums was a peculiar effort towards social reform that today is largely forgotten or misunderstood The philanthropy of middle and upper class social workers saw hundreds of art exhibitions concerts of fine music evening lectures clubs and socials debates and excursions mounted for the benefit of impoverished and working class Londoners Ginn's vivid and provocative book captures many of these in detail for the first time In refreshing our understanding of this obscure but eloquent activism Ginn approaches cultural philanthropy not simply as a project of class self interest nor as fanciful missionary aestheticism Rather he shows how liberal aspirations towards adult education and civic community can be traced in a number of centres of moralising voluntary effort Concentrating on Toynbee Hall in

Whitechapel the People's Palace in Mile End Red Cross Hall in Southwark and the Bermondsey Settlement the discussion identifies the common impulses animating practical reformers across these settings Drawing on new primary research to clarify reformers underlying intentions and strategies Ginn shows how these were shaped by a distinctive diagnosis of urban deprivation and anomie In rebutting the common view that cultural philanthropy was a crudely paternalistic attempt to impose rational recreation on the poor this volume explores its sources in a liberal minded social idealism common to both religious and secular conceptions of social welfare in this period Culture Philanthropy and the Poor in Late Victorian London appeals to students and researchers of Victorian culture moral reform urbanism adult education and philanthropy who will be fascinated by this underrated but lively aspect of the period's social activism Splendid Legacy Alice Cooney Frelinghuysen, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1993 Issued in conjunction with the exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art of over 450 works of art from the legendary Havemeyer collection formed at the turn of the century by pioneering American patrons of art Henry O and Louisine Havemeyer this lavishly illustrated catalogue combines 800 illustration 176 in color with the collaborative efforts of 27 authors who examine the various aspects of the collection in summarizing essays and in entries on individual works In addition one essay is devoted to the Manhattan residence designed for the Havemeyers by Tiffany and Colman An exhaustive 90 page chronology offers a perspective on the formation of the collection outlining the roles of friend and advisor Mary Cassatt and a succession of dealers and focusing on the history of the family and its business interests 9 25x12 25 Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR The United States and Germany in the Era of the Cold War, 1945-1990 Detlef Junker, Philipp Gassert, Wilfried Mausbach, David B. Morris, 2004-05-17 Publisher Description Building the Nation Steven Conn, Max Page, 2016-01-18 Moving away from the standard survey that takes readers from architect to architect and style to style Building the Nation Americans Write About Their Architecture Their Cities and Their Landscape suggests a wholly new way of thinking about the history of America's built environment and how Americans have related to it Through an enormous range of American voices some famous and some obscure and across more than two centuries of history this anthology shows that the struggle to imagine what kinds of buildings and land use would best suit the nation pervaded all classes of Americans and was not the purview only of architects and designers Some of the nation's finest writers including Mark Twain W E B Du Bois Henry James Edith Wharton Lewis Mumford E B White and John McPhee are here contemplating the American way of building Equally important are those eloquent but little known voices found in American newspapers and magazines which insistently wondered what American architecture and environmental planning should look like Building the Nation also insists that American architecture can be understood only as both a result of and a force in shaping American social cultural and political developments In so doing this anthology demonstrates how central the built environment has been to our definition of what it is to be American and reveals seven central themes that have repeatedly animated American writers over the course of the past two centuries the relationship of American architecture to European architecture the nation's diverse regions the place and shape of nature in American life the design of cities the explosion of the suburbs the power of architecture to reform individuals and the role of tradition in a nation dedicated to being perennially young American Studies Jack Salzman, 1990-05-25 This volume supplements the acclaimed three volume set published in 1986 and consists of an annotated listing of American Studies monographs published between 1984 and 1988 There are more than 6 000 descriptive entries in a wide range of categories anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science and technology and sociology
