R. Leinbach, 2007-01-01 The editors as well as the authors of these essays should be commended for bringing together and discussing within this volume many of the important issues facing globalized freight movements Robert Martin The Professional Geographer Leinbach and Capineri have produced an interesting and useful addition to the literature on this massive subject Anthony Beresfore International Journal of Maritime History Globalization is a fashionable issue But solid research on the conditions and implications for freight transport is badly missing This volume contains a unique set of high quality contributions on freight transport in the age of globalization It offers a wealth of original insights to both the research and policy making community Peter Nijkamp VU University Amsterdam The Netherlands The worldwide movement of freight has emerged as one of the most critical and dynamic aspects of the transport sector The contributors to this study examine the current state of global freight transport with an emphasis on Europe and North America and their extra regional linkages These original contributions synthesize existing knowledge highlight new developments problems and possible solutions and underscore the need for further research The book's starting point is the fact that freight transport is the main element supporting global supply and commodity chains from the transformation of raw materials to market distribution and after market services However as the authors point out the rising costs associated with security and various other constraints as well as the complexity of getting goods delivered is adding to profit pressures faced by manufacturers around the globe. Despite the application of technology and increasingly efficient solutions to the movement of freight, constraint points and conditions obstructing smooth operations and sustainability have developed. These difficulties affect both the environment and economic growth. Examining the issues from four critical perspectives: intermodality, e-commerce and technology, logistics and sustainability, Globalized Freight Transport captures the concern for the viability of freight systems and the ways they are impacting the global economy. This cutting edge study will be of great interest to students and scholars of transportation as well as to public sector policymakers and private sector managers. Transport Links between Europe and Asia, European Conference of Ministers of Transport, 2006-11-13. This report includes recommendations and a plan of action approved by ministers and a report on Trends in Europe Asia Trade and Consequences for Transport. It also includes contributions from the UNECE and the IRU. Energy Abstracts for Policy Analysis, 1986. Maritime Technology and Engineering 5 Volume 1, Carlos Guedes Soares, 2021-07-08. This set of two volumes comprises the collection of the papers presented at the 5th International Conference on Maritime Technology and Engineering MARTECH 2020 that was held in Lisbon, Portugal from 16 to 19 November 2020. The Conference has evolved from the series of biennial national conferences in Portugal which have become an international event and which reflect the internationalization of the maritime sector and its activities. MARTECH 2020 is the fifth of this new series of biennial conferences. The set comprises 180 contributions that were reviewed by an International Scientific Committee. Volume 1 is dedicated to maritime transportation, ports and maritime traffic as well as maritime safety and reliability. It further comprises sections dedicated to ship design, cruise ship design and to the structural aspects of ship design such as ultimate strength and composites, subsea structures, pipelines and to ship building and ship repair.
