The News Sorority Sheila Weller, 2014-09-30 Weller rivetingly recounts these gutsy ladies' time on the front lines an inspiration for future generations of journalists Vanity Fair For decades women battered the walls of the male fortress of television journalism After fierce struggles three women Diane Sawyer Katie Couric and Christiane Amanpour broke into the newsroom's once impenetrable boys club These women were not simply pathbreakers but wildly gifted journalists whose unique talents enabled them to climb to the top of the corporate ladder and transform the way Americans received their news Drawing on exclusive interviews with their colleagues and intimates from childhood on The News Sorority crafts a lively and exhilarating narrative that reveals the hard struggles and inner strengths that shaped these women and powered their success Life outside the newsroom love loss child rearing would mark them all complicating their lives even as it deepened their convictions and instincts Life inside the newsroom would include many nervy decisions and back room power plays previously uncaptured in any media account Taken together Sawyer's Couric's and Amanpour's lives as women are here revealed not as impediments but as keys to their success Raised in Louisville Kentucky Diane Sawyer was a young woman steering her own unique political course in a time of societal upheaval Her fierce intellect almost insuperable work ethic and sophisticated emotional intelligence would catapult Sawyer from being the first female on air correspondent for 60 Minutes to presenting anchoring the network flagship ABC World News From her first breaks as a reporter all the way through her departure in 2014 Sawyer's charisma and drive would carry her through countless personal and professional changes Katie Couric always conveniently underestimated because of her girl next door demeanor brazened her way through a succession of regional TV news jobs until she finally hit it big In 1991 Couric became the cohost of Today where over the next fifteen years she transformed the female slot from secondary to preeminent while shouldering devastating personal loss

Couric's greatest triumph and most bedeviling challenge was at CBS Evening News as the first woman to solo anchor a nighttime network news program. Her contradictions—seriously feminist while proudly sorority girlish—made her beyond easy typecasting and as original as she is relatable. A glamorous unorthodox cosmopolite raised in pre-revolution Iran amid royalty and educated in England, Christiane Amanpour would never have been picked out of a lineup as a future war reporter until her character flourished on catastrophic soil: her family's exile during the Iranian Revolution. Once she knew her calling, Amanpour shrewdly made a virtue of her outsider status, joining the fledgling CNN on the bottom rung and then becoming its face, catalyzing its rise to global prominence. Amanpour's fearlessness in war zones would make her the world's witness to some of its most acute crises and television's chief advocate for international justice. Revealing the tremendous combination of ambition, empathy, and skill that empowered Sawyer Couric and Amanpour to reach stardom, The News Sorority is a detailed story of three very particular lives and a testament to the extraordinary character of women everywhere.

Forever and Beyond Dianne Wilson Elliott, 2009-06-30 Katie O'Malley is a free-spirited, artsy, red-haired beauty who is about to graduate from Columbia University. But when her parents John and Mary O'Malley die in a tragic plane crash, Katie's life becomes very complicated. First she learns the plane crash was no accident; her uncle paid someone to tamper with the fuel gauge. And she certainly didn't expect to lose her heart to the handsome young priest Andrew Jackson, who comforted her during her time of loss and grief. Nor did she expect to have her feelings returned by the good father. A file in her father's desk reveals the biggest surprise of all: It's a surprise that rocks Katie's world and takes her far from the bright lights of New York City to an unknown future on The Outer Banks of North Carolina. As she searches for answers, Katie wonders if her father's hidden past will be the key to the future she has always longed for. Other uncertainties plague Katie's future: Will Father Andrew Jackson leave the life of a priest and follow his heart back to her? Or will Katie find a new love in the sleepy little village of Buxton, North Carolina?

Out of Tragedy Nancy Dice, 2022-08-01 Katie Trazinski, a recent college graduate and now post-graduate student, just scored the summer dream job of her life when she is hired to drive two orphans from California to Maine to meet relatives whom the children have never seen. As she prepares for her great adventure, she meets a young law graduate, Kevin Davis, who insinuates himself right into her trip by using compelling and logical arguments. But Kevin knows secrets about Katie that she does not even know herself. The biggest one is that these secrets are not to be revealed to her until the trip is completed, or everything will be ruined. Can they travel across this country without her finding out? And what happens to the two children she comes to care for?
