Teaching History with Film Alan S. Marcus, Scott Alan Metzger, Richard J. Paxton, Jeremy D. Stoddard, 2010-02-25 Visit any school in the United States and chances are that you will find at least one of the social studies teachers showing a film about history Along with the textbook movies are one of the most prominent teaching aids in the history classroom Yet when middle and high school history teachers look for models of the effective use of motion pictures in history classrooms the cupboard is surprisingly bare Teaching History with Film provides a fresh engaging and clear overview of teaching with film to effectively enhance social studies instruction Using cases of experienced teachers to illustrate accomplished history teaching through the use of movies this text provides pre and in service teachers with ideas for implementing film based lessons in their own classrooms and offers a deeper understanding of the thorny issues involved in using film to teach history Each section of the book focuses on how teachers can effectively support the development of students historical film literacy through topics such as using film to develop historical empathy to develop interpretive skills and to explore controversial issues By developing the skills students need to think critically about the past or what they think they know about history the lessons in this book illustrate how to harness the pedagogical power of film to provide the tools necessary for rigorous inquiry and democratic citizenship Special features include Reflection on the Case following each chapter analyzing and discussing the strengths and limitations of the teacher s approach as well as providing strategies for using and choosing films specific to the educational outcome Sample unit outlines descriptions of class texts and films worksheets essay questions viewer guides and exercises for the classroom throughout Discussion of the practical considerations facing classroom teachers including juggling time restraints issues of parental permission and meeting standards

Confronting Injustice without Compromising Truth Study Guide

Thaddeus J. Williams, 2022-06-28 Enacting social justice is essential to the Christian faith But the Bible s call to seek justice is not a call to superficial activism True justice requires biblical wisdom and communal discernment Maybe you re frustrated with a version of Christianity that doesn t seem to take justice seriously Perhaps you ve witnessed the rise of ideologies that brand themselves as social justice but you have a sense that something is off about them Maybe you have a hunch that God offers a better way to do justice than what s offered by the snarky memes on our news feeds In this 14 session video based study guide teacher and lecturer Thaddeus Williams furthers the case he made in his book taking study groups and individuals deeper into complex question of how to pursue a path of justice without compromising the truth of the gospel

Participants will watch video segments DVD streaming video sold separately hear from a diverse range of experts interact in group discussions and answer personal reflection questions to discover what the Bible and the example of Jesus have to teach us about justice Williams confronts religious and political tribalism and challenges participants to discover a compelling vision of justice for all God's image bearers that offers hopeful answers to life's biggest questions and a way forward Sessions Include What is Social Justice The God Question The Imago Question The Idolatry Question The Collective Question The Splintering Question The Fruit Question The Disparity Question The Color Question The Gospel Question The Tunnel Vision Question The Suffering Question The Standpoint Question Conclusion A Guide to Family Devotion Alexander
