Grottos of Chinatown Arthur J. Burks, 2009 Dorus Noel spent years in the Far East and had the torture scars to prove it Now he was back in NYC working undercover in Manhattan s Chinatown confronting the most insidious crimes and criminals imaginable Burks Chinatown is a society of strange alliances a place of dark menace and mystery an urban nightmare of secret passageways riddling the district like rabbit warrens a new world under the shadow of China s past Collected for the first time are all 11 Dorus Noel stories from the pulp All Detective Magazine 1933-34 Also included is extensive new information on All Detective and the fascinating career of pulp writer Arthur J Burks Bells of Pell Street Arthur J. Burks, 2011-09-16 A weird melody those tinkling brassy tones out as life itself hung in the balance of a chime when Dorus Noel and Chu Chul matched cunning in the Grottos of Chinatown Excerpt Well I m damned said Dorus Noel if this isn t the queerest day I ever spent Three hours on Park Avenue at a tea given by the elite to a Chinese actor And China s best though he is is still an actor than which profession there is none lower in China He was made over by all the society folks as though he had been a king or something As Dorus Noel spoke ostensibly to his Chinese boy his hands absent mindedly fingered the strange gifts which had come to him during his absence at the tea He scarcely saw the ancient musical instruments much as he liked such things for a moment or two because he was thinking of Mei Ying the actor From the second he had clasped hands with the actor doing it with his tongue in his cheek because his society hosts expected it of him he had had a feeling of repulsion There had been something unclean about Mei Ying He had felt sure too that he had seen something akin to hatred in the eyes of the gorgeously orientally gowned actor He shrugged his shoulders though and gave closer attention to the three barred frame shaped oddly like an H with an extra bar across its middle and one across the top containing the nine bells three bells to each bar Those bells were the Chinese musical scale and were sounded by a little wooden mallet which was part of the gift The other instrument was the oldest known to the Chinese It looked like a teapot and one played it by blowing into the spout Where the lid should have been were twenty four resonance tubes with holes in the sides One played them by fast manipulation of the fingers and one had almost to inherit the art of playing them How was Dorus Noel to guess that both the instrument of the nine bells and that of the twentyfour resonance tubes were really weapons of murder and the strangest and most horrible that had ever come to Chinatown The New York Times Book Review Index, 1896-1970: Title index ,1973 Cue ,1951-10 Record Research ,1973
